

State Team Thumps Metro 27-0 In Shrine All-Star Grid Tangle

Portland—UPI—Coach Fred Spiegelberg of Medford would not single out a player in victory.

"They all did a good job," he said. But it was Roseburg quarterback Paul Brothers who led State to a 27-0 victory over Metropolitan Hospital all-star football game before 16,194 persons at Multnomah stadium Saturday night.

It was State's first win in the series since 1956. "You have to mention the whole team," Spiegelberg said. "They all did what they were told to and that's all I could ask," the State coach added.

Brothers Most Valuable
Brothers, who was named the most valuable player in the game, scored one touchdown, started another, ran for 75 yards in 18 carries and hit 5 of 17 passes for 48 yards.

Voted the outstanding line-man and back for the winners were Roseburg tackle Doug John and halfback Bob Officer of South Eugene. Tackle Bob Lawrence of Marshall and Jesuit fullback Pat Casey were selected as the top line-man and back for Metro.

The Staters held a 7-0 lead at halftime, scored again in the third period and added their last two tallies in the final quarter.

Pond Scores First TD
Tackle Bob Pond of Corvallis ran 37 yards for State's first touchdown after recovering a fumble by Metro quarterback Barry Hordt of David Douglas in the first quarter.

With just six seconds to play in the third period, Brothers ran nine yards and then pitched out to Officer, who completed a 84-yard scoring play.

Brothers sneaked across from a yard out and halfback Jim Leagfeld of Bend ran nine yards for State touchdowns in the final period.

Medford's Dan Miles kicked three extra points. Shepard Goes 48

State moved in from the 29-yard line for its third touchdown, after a long roll-out run by Brothers. The fourth TD followed a 48-yard punt return by Bob Shepard of Grants Pass to the Metro 22. With Miles generating, Mike Glines of Crater gained two and Tim Temple of Pendleton four yard. A Miles to Glines pass put the ball on the seven yard line.

It was the first Shrine victory for Spiegelberg in six times as a coach for the annual all-star game.

Among those getting particular citation for their defensive work were Medford's Gary Griffin, Jack Lowery and Lloyd Hammons and Klamath Fall's Ron Hitchcock.

Lowery 23 for 7
Lowery packed the ball seven times for 23 yards for State. Hammons caught two passes for 16 yards, Lowery one for 13 and Glines one for seven. Glines was the ball holder on Miles' extra point tries and Hammons was the center on the conversion kicks and snapped the ball also to Officer for his fine punts which helped keep State out of trouble.

Shepard intercepted a Metro pass on the final play of the game.

Saturday's game was halted at one stage over the protest of state coaches Spiegelberg, Spike Hillstrom and Roy Thompson over alleged illegal variations of the mandatory 6-2-2-1 defense. They charged that Metro stacked its defensive line and shifted illegally, putting a linebacker head over center.

CHAMPS OF EUROPE
New York—UPI—The Izmir Giants of Turkey, Little League baseball champions of Europe, arrived Sunday from Istanbul to take part in the Little League championships in Williamsport, Pa. The 13 players are sons of American military and civilian personnel stationed in Izmir.

Ralston Clinches Davis Net Victory

By ALEX KAHN
Los Angeles—UPI—Freckled Dennis Ralston put the United States back among the world's tennis powers today after he almost singlehandedly defeated the Mexican Davis Cup team in the North American zone eliminations.

There's still a long way ahead before the U. S. team can invade Australia to challenge for the cherished trophy emblematic of the world's championship. But Mexican captain Francisco Contreras said the United States has a good chance to go all the way and bring the Davis Cup back to North America.

Beats Osuna
Ralston clinched the playoff Sunday in the first match when he swept aside Mexico's brilliant Rafael Osuna, 6-1, 6-3, 7-5. That victory came after the 21-year-old youngster had teamed with Chuck McKinley Saturday to upset the favored Mexican doubles team of Osuna and Antonio Palafox. Ralston scored the first U. S. singles win Friday over Palafox after Osuna had defeated McKinley in a hard-fought five-set match.

Bill Casper Winner in Golf Open

Hartford, Conn.—UPI—None of his fellow pros gave Billy Casper a chance of winning the Insurance City Open when the 72-hole tournament opened last Thursday.

After all, this was the Californian's first tournament appearance since May when he quit during the fourth round of the Tournament of Champions at Last Vegas with a hand injury.

Casper still looked like a poor bet Sunday when he started the final round at the Wethersfield Country club trailing pace-setting George Bayer by five strokes.

However, the 32-year-old former sailor from Bonita, Calif., fired a six-under-par 65 to take the top prize of $6,400 with an aggregate score of 271. Bayer finished a shot back of Casper after settling for a 71 in the final round.

Wes Ellis, who led through the first two rounds, slipped to third place with a 275, two shots ahead of Doug Ford.

The doubles win gave the U. S. a lead of two matches to one, and Ralston clinched the elimination matches with his win over Osuna, leaving McKinley's win over Palafox by a score of 6-4, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3 an anti-climax.

"That was the best I've ever seen Ralston play in a big match," the articulate Mexican captain added. "If he keeps up the pace he had in the series, he could become the best player in the world."

Shula has installed four varied backfield formations and also has made frequent use of men-in-motion plays during the pre-season period.

Rookies May Help
Two rookie players could improve the line-blocking. They are Bob Vogel, 232-pound Ohio State tackle who was Baltimore's No. 1 draft choice, and John Mackey of Syracuse, making a strong bid for the tight end position.

Unitas Bodyguard Needed by Colts

(Editor's note: This is another in a series of dispatches sizing up the prospects of professional football teams for the 1963 season.)

By PHIL CORWIN
Baltimore, Md.—UPI—What the Baltimore Colts need most is a bodyguard for quarterback Johnny Unitas.

They could also use a few good runners to take a lot of the heat off Johnny's passing efforts.

And the task of finding just the right man is the main preoccupation these days of Don Shula, the bright 33-year-old new head coach who replaces Weeb Eubank this season.

For the past few years, ever since Alan (The Horse) Ameche retired, Unitas has not received the pass protection he one enjoyed during the Colts' 1958 and 1959 National Football league championship seasons.

Joe Perry has done a good job at fullback in ball-carrying but he has not been the blocker Ameche was. Others have been tried at that position and been found wanting.

Acquire New Fullback
So, before the start of this season the Colts acquired 226-pound J. W. Lockett from the Dallas Cowboys with the hopes that he can do the job of keeping enemy rushers off Unitas' back.

In pre-season games Lockett has alternated effectively with Perry and it looks as though J. W. will wind up with the starting job at fullback.

As for the running halfback assignment, Shula will have to depend on the same personnel as last year but he expects to generate more yardage by beefing up the line blocking and by use of more varied backfield formations.

Lenny Moore, starting his eighth NFL season, will get the first call at running halfback. The 190-pound Moore may not be as durable or as elusive as he once was but he remains a two-way threat as a runner and pass-catcher. Behind him is Tom Matte, who executes the Paul Hornung-styled pass-run option play well.

Shula has installed four varied backfield formations and also has made frequent use of men-in-motion plays during the pre-season period.

Big Crowds See Grid Exhibitions

By United Press International
Last winter's pro football betting scandals apparently haven't curbed the fans' appetite for the sport.

Despite the absence of suspended Paul Hornung and Alex Karras from the 1963 National Football League scene, a total of 179,305 turned up for last Saturday's exhibition action.

A doubleheader at Cleveland drew 83,218 spectators who watched Y. A. Tittle set up three touchdowns on passes as the New York Giants defeated the Detroit Lions, 24-21, and Johnny Unitas tossed two scoring strikes in the Baltimore Colts' 21-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns.

The champion Green Bay Packers routed the Dallas Cowboys, 31-10, before 53,121 in the Texas City, and 42,966 saw the Minnesota Vikings romp over the Rams, 27-3 at Los Angeles.

Broncs Win
In American Football league pre-season games, the Kansas City Chiefs trounced the Oakland Raiders, 35-21, before 13,500 at Seattle, Wash., and 11,135 fans at Denver viewed the Broncos' 31-35 win over the San Diego Chargers.

Sound on Defense
Defensively, the Colts are sound everywhere except perhaps at tackle, where Billy Ray Smith has retired. Gino Marchetti, a perennial All-Pro, and Ordell Braase are fixtures at end; Bill Pellington, Don Shinnick and Jackie Burkett return as linebackers, while Andy Nelson, Jim Welch, Bob Boyd, Lenny Lyles and Wendell Harris man the backfield positions.

Frederick Miller, 240-pound rookie tackle from LSU, has impressed on both defense and offense. Two other good-looking newcomers are linebacker Butch Maples of Baylor and defensive back Jerry Logan of West Texas State.

Equally large crowds are expected for seven NHL exhibition games this week end. On Saturday, Dallas meets Los Angeles at Portland, Ore.; Detroit plays St. Louis at Omaha; Green Bay faces Chicago at Milwaukee; Philadelphia tussles with Washington at Charlotte, N. C., and Baltimore tackles Pittsburgh at Atlanta. On Sunday, San Francisco entertains Cleveland and Minnesota hosts New York at Minneapolis.

Tourney Taken By Mattisons

Portland—UPI—Lloyd and Jack Mattison of Eugene won their fifth straight Oregon Golf association Father-Son tournament championship, and their sixth in seven years, Sunday at Oswego Lake Country club.

They fired a two-over-par 144 to edge Corvallis High school football coach Lee Gustafson and his son, Mark, by one stroke.

Oakland at Mobile, Ala., and Denver visits Kansas City on Friday. Buffalo hosts Boston on Sunday.

Equally large crowds are expected for seven NHL exhibition games this week end. On Saturday, Dallas meets Los Angeles at Portland, Ore.; Detroit plays St. Louis at Omaha; Green Bay faces Chicago at Milwaukee; Philadelphia tussles with Washington at Charlotte, N. C., and Baltimore tackles Pittsburgh at Atlanta. On Sunday, San Francisco entertains Cleveland and Minnesota hosts New York at Minneapolis.

Play of Baker Draws Praise

Los Angeles—UPI—The Los Angeles Rams today looked forward to an exciting season from rookie quarterback Terry Baker despite a week end setback at the hands of the Minnesota Vikings.

Although the Rams went down 27-3 in Saturday night's Viking game in Memorial Coliseum, Baker, the All-America player from Oregon State, drew praise both from Ram coach Harland Svare and Viking coach Norm Van Brocklin.

Svare admitted Baker "moved the ball club," while Van Brocklin enthused the rookie was "a real exciting player," adding "he's going to drive people crazy."

One reason for Svare's laconicism might have been the Rams' failure to cash in at the goal line on Baker's marches. The lone scoring play by Los Angeles came in the second quarter on a 29-yard field goal by Danny Villanueva following a 41-yard drive piloted by Baker.

Equally large crowds are expected for seven NHL exhibition games this week end. On Saturday, Dallas meets Los Angeles at Portland, Ore.; Detroit plays St. Louis at Omaha; Green Bay faces Chicago at Milwaukee; Philadelphia tussles with Washington at Charlotte, N. C., and Baltimore tackles Pittsburgh at Atlanta. On Sunday, San Francisco entertains Cleveland and Minnesota hosts New York at Minneapolis.
