Yanks Have Brawl:

JOE PEPITONE PRECIPITATES SCUFFLE

By MARTIN LADER
UPI Sports Writer

The New York Yankees are having a brawl as they merrily dance their way to another American league pennant.

As for those skeptics who have protested the lack of fight in the junior circuit, they would have had a ball themselves had they been at Yankee Stadium Wednesday night.

In the best extra-mural scuffle of the season, New York first baseman Joe Pepitone precipitated a general melee between members of the Yankees and Cleveland Indians after being hit by a pitch thrown by Gary Bell in the eighth inning of the second game of a twi-night doubleheader. The ensuing scene somewhat resembled a barnyard dance as players grappled with anyone in reach.

Pepitone, who earlier in the game had been hit by starter Barry Latman and then was brushed back by Bell before being hit again, was tossed out of the game when umpires finally restored order. Bell received a warning from plate umpire Lou Dimuro, which automatically calls for a $50 fine.

Yanks Win Two

Regarding the fight the Yankees are paid to win, they took both ends of the doubleheader by identical 3-1 scores. The sweep, engineered behind the fine pitching of Al Downing and Stan Williams, boosted New York into a 10-game lead over the second - place Chicago White Sox.

In other American league contests, the Los Angeles Angels edged Baltimore, 3-2, in the second game of a twi-night doubleheader after the Orioles had taken the opener, 7-4; the White Sox topped the Boston Red Sox, 7-1; the Washington Senators beat the Kansas City Athletics, 5-1; and in a day contest the Minnesota Twins routed the Detroit Tigers, 12-1.

The Los Angeles Dodgers extended their National league lead to 7½ games over St. Louis by nipping the Cardinals, 2-1, in 16 innings; the Houston Colts tripped Cincinnati, 1-0; and in afternoon games Milwaukee defeated San Francisco, 6-2, and Pittsburgh edged Chicago, 7-6. New York and Philadelphia were postponed by rain.

Pepitone had better luck with his bat than with his fists since it was his two-run double in the first inning of the nightcap that provided Williams with his winning margin. Tom Tresh banged two doubles to figure in all the Yankee scoring in the opener.

Steve Barber went only 3⅔ innings in the first game for Baltimore but still received credit for his 18th victory, top figure in the league. The Orioles broke the game open with six runs in the second inning. A seventh inning pinch-hit single by Bob Rodgers drove in the winning Los Angeles run in the second contest.

Rookie Gary Peters won his ninth straight game for the White Sox. He received ample support from Tom McCraw with four hits and Pete Ward, who had a home run.

Don Lock and Don Zimmer each blasted home runs and Ron Moeller picked up his first win of the year for Washington although he needed relief help from veteran Ed Roebuck.

The twins scored eight runs in the fourth inning and added four more in the fifth to make it a downhill job for Camilo Pascual to gain his 16th victory against six defeats.

Lynch Sets Pinch Home Run Mark

By ED SAINSBURY
UPI Sports Writer

Chicago (UPI) – Pittsburgh's Jerry Lynch had no instructions to hit a home run to win a game for the Pirates over the Chicago Cubs, but he did, and set a major league record in the process because it was the 15th pinch homer of his career.

"All Danny Murtaugh said to me 'Lynch, you're the hitter'," Lynch said, describing the situation when he went to bat for pitcher Al McBean to open the Pirates' ninth.

"He didn't say anything like 'Hit a home run,' or 'Get on base,' or anything else."

Fourth of Season

But Lynch specializes in pinch home runs, and his drive went deep in the right field bleachers to give the Pirates a 7-6 win.

It was his fourth pinch homer this season – two of them with Cincinnati before he was traded to Pittsburgh in late May, and now two of them with the Pirates.

The total of 15 moved him ahead of the old record holder, Geoorge Crowe, who amassed 14 with three National league teams, Boston-Milwaukee, Cincinnati and St. Louis. The American league record is 12, by Bob Cerv with New York and Kansas City.

"Of all of them," Lynch said, "this one felt the best. It was a high strike, a fast ball, and I hit it good. It was a good pitch."

Game Men Lengthen Bird Season

Portland – (UPI) – The state game commission gave waterfowl and upland game bird hunters a present Tuesday in the form of longer seasons and larger bag limits.

The commission announced the regulations after a public hearing.

The season on ducks and geese will run for 90 days, opening at noon Oct. 8 and closing Jan. 5. The season was set within the limits established earlier by the Department of Interior and is 15 days longer than last year's.

Bag limits will be four ducks daily and eight in possession. Not more than two may be wood ducks and not more than one a hooded merganser. There will be no open season on redheads or canvasbacks.

More Mallards Allowed

As in 1962, two more mallards will be allowed in the daily limit and four more in possession in Baker, Malheur, Wallowa, Umatilla, Union, Gilliam, Sherman, Morrow and Wasco counties.

The bag limit on geese will be three daily and six in possession. It may be increased to six daily if three or more are snow geese. One Ross's goose will be allowed in the bag limit this year.

Black brant season will be Nov. 18-Jan. 31 with a bag limit of three daily and three in possession. The season on American and red-breasted merganser will be Oct. 8-Jan. 25, with a bag limit of five daily and 10 in possession. Coot can be taken from Oct. 8 to Jan. 25 with a bag limit of 25.

For upland game birds, the season on cock pheasants and valley and mountain quail starts Oct. 12 and ends Nov. 24 except in Malheur county. The pheasant limit is three daily and 12 in possession. Limit on quail is 10 daily and 20 in possession. There will be no open season on bobwhite quail this year.

Extended Season Set

An extended mountain quail season also was set in Eastern Oregon, where the bird population has increased. It will run from Nov. 25 through Dec. 31 with the same bag limit.

In Malheur county, seasons will run from Oct. 26 through Nov. 24 with a pheasant bag limit of four daily and eight in possession. The quail limit will be the same as in other areas.

The commission added nearly a month to the chukar and Hungarian partridge season. It will run from Sept. 7 to Dec. 31. Bag limit is eight daily and 16 in possession, an increase of two and four, respectively, over last year.

Tulsa Nine Defeats KF

Farmington, N. M. – (UPI) – Tulsa, Okla., powered its way into the semifinals of the Babe Ruth world series with a 9-2 conquest of Klamath Falls, Ore., Wednesday night.

Atlanta won the other semifinals berth with a 5-3 decision over Porto Nuevo, Puerto Rico.

Klamath Falls played Oakland, Calif., in the losers bracket this afternoon. In other games, Joplin, Mo., met Oaklawn, Ill.; Porto Nuevo played Farmington, and Frankfurt, Germany, met Frederick, Md.

Tulsa had two four-run innings en route to its win. Center-fielder Gary Marr's one-run double and third baseman Jerry Hill's three-run home run were the highlights of a fourth-inning explosion.

Duplicates

In the sixth inning, first baseman Bob Banfield drove in two runs with a double and Don Jernigan duplicated the feat later in the inning. Tulsa pitcher Eli Gourd had a no-hitter until he was tapped for three safeties in the sixth.

Tim Badley opened that inning for Klamath Falls with a double and later scored on a single by Rick Brosterhous.

The other Klamath run came in the seventh inning on a single by Dave Lyman, a double by Greg Brosterhous and walks to Badley and pinchhitter Mick Keck.

Roseburg Bills Omaha

Indianapolis – (UPI) – Roseburg, Ore., will play its first game in the American Legion junior baseball world series at Keene, N. H., Sunday against Omaha, Neb.

The Legion's national headquarters here announced the schedule Wednesday.

Long Beach, Calif., and Somerville, Mass., open the tourney Sunday afternoon. Games Monday match Greensboro, N. C., against Memphis, Tenn., and Evansville, Ind., against Washington, D. C.

FREE-FOR-ALL – Members of the New York Yankees and the Cleveland Indians baseball teams mix it up in a wild free-for-all in eighth inning of second game of doubleheader at New York City. Joe Pepitone and Gary Bell were the key figures in the battle that featured a pair of 3-1 wins by the Yankees. The trouble started when Pepitone was nicked by one of Bell's deliveries. It took the umpires five minutes to restore order. Pepitone was thrown out. – (UPI

Egyptian Wins Distance Swim

Chicago – (UPI) – Abdel-Latif Abo-Heif, a durable Egyptian who has splashed across the English Channel three times, today called his winning effort in a 60-mile marathon across chilly Lake Michigan an "enjoyable swim."

Abo-Heif, 34, a major in the United Arab Republic army, stepped onto Silver Beach at St. Joseph, Mich., at 7:45 p.m. (EDT) Wednesday, 33 hours and 45 minutes after he plunged into the water at Chicago for the start of what is billed as the world's longest and richest race.

Abo-Heif, one of only two survivors in an original field of 16, received the winning purse of $15,000.

Ted Erikson, a 23-year-old chemical engineer of Chicago, finished approximately two hours after the winner, and pocketed a check for $1,000.
