BISHOP V. L. BROWN Quarterly Conference

Counselor To Preside at Stake

Bishop Victor L. Brown, second counselor in the presiding bishopric of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Salt Lake City, will preside at a quarterly conference of the Klamath Stake Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 24 and 25, in Klamath Falls.

Accompanying Elder Brown will be Elders Delbert F. Wright, a member of the priesthood home teaching committee and Warren E. Pugh, of the missionary committee.

General sessions of the conference will be conducted Sunday at 10 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. by Stake President Ronald Earl Phair, Klamath Falls.

Visitors are welcome to attend these meetings. Bishop Brown, a native of Cardston, Alberta, Canada, was an executive of United Air Lines at the time of his appointment to the presiding bishopric in 1961. He is experienced in youth, church, and business leadership.

Elders Wright and Pugh will address meetings for priesthood and missionary leaders on Saturday.

Two Services Set At St. Peter's

"Two Kinds of Church People" is the topic of the sermon for Sunday's two services chosen by the Rev. John E. Simon, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran church, 1020 East Main st. The services begin at 8:15 and 11 a.m. Sunday school begins at 9:30 a.m.

A number of St. Peter's young people will leave Saturday for a week of church camp sponsored by the International Walthier League at Camp Dead Indian Soda Springs above Lake Creek. The camp will continue until Friday afternoon, Aug. 30.

Willette Eubanks, a member of St. Peter's church and a recent graduate of Medford high, left Aug. 16 for Lake Chelan, Wash., to attend a young people's work camp at Holden Village sponsored by the International Walthier League of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod. She plans to return early next month.

Pastor Simon will return this evening from Portland where he is attending the fiscal conference of the Northwest District of his denomination held at the campus of Concordia college.

'Teach Me To Pray, Lord' Is 1st Christian Subject

"Teach Me To Pray, Lord" is the title of the sermon which the Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will preach at the service Sunday morning at the First Christian church. It is based on Luke 11:1.

Mrs. Ralph Matlack will sing "I'll Walk With God" at both the services. Mrs. Edward Conner Jr. and Mrs. A. L. Paul will be hostesses at the coffee hour following the second service.

At 6 p.m. Sunday there will be an all-church patio supper with the Delbert Troxell family as guests. Following the supper they will show pictures and talk of their work in Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Troxell went to Japan in 1963 as missionaries. For the first five years they worked in rural areas near Rifu. Here, in addition to their regular church ministry, they helped develop model farms, conducted youth training centers and taught the women such things as cooking and canning. For the past five years they have been stationed at Gose in the Nara Ken prefecture where they work with the ministers and churches in the field of evangelism under the direction of the Kyodan, the United Church of Christ in Japan.

They will live in Eugene for a year while they are on furlough. Mr. Troxell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Troxell, 1833 South Peach st.

The Chi Rho Fellowship will meet briefly at 5:45 p.m. Sunday prior to the patio supper.
