

Whittenburg-Lea Rites Held

Miss Sonya Ann Lea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lea, 160DD Cherry lane, became the bride of Jimmy Dale Whittenburg, Portland, in a ceremony held August 18 at First Methodist church. The Rev. Gerald Nelson officiated at the double ring rites.

The bridegroom's parents are Mrs. O. L. Brusletten, Beaverton, and Vernon Whittenburg, Winchester.

Some 125 relatives and friends attended the four o'clock afternoon wedding. Baskets of fern, candles and pink carnations decorated the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Dale Whittenburg (Landis photo)

Miss Sonya Ann Lea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lea, Cherry lane, was married in double-ring rites at First Methodist church, to Jimmy Dale Whittenburg, Portland. The couple will live in Portland. (Landis photo)

Showers Honor Bride-Elect From Talent

Talent—Miss Linda Tompkins, whose marriage to Alben Raduski was planned for August 24, in West Main Church of Christ, has been honored at several pre-wedding events.

In mid-August Mrs. Robert Jacobs entertained at a personal shower in the bride-elect's honor. The event was held in the home of Mrs. Leo Jacobs, 2740 Ruth drive, Medford. The refreshment table was centered with a white cake decorated with pink hearts, a wedding bell and bride and groom figurines. Nine guests attended.

Miss Tompkins next was honored at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Jack Fowler at her home, 5747 South Pacific highway, Medford. Decorations were bells, balloons and streamers. After games the 10 guests were served refreshments.

Women of the staff at First Federal Savings and Loan association, Medford, where the bride-elect is employed, entertained August 21 at dinner and a shower in Rogue Valley Country club.

Attending were Miss Jeraldyn Jerome, Miss Rilla Kay Den Herder, Mrs. Douglas Harsh, Mrs. Blair Crosby, Mrs. John Myers, Mrs. John Tompkins, mother of the bride-elect, and the honored guest.

The bride-elect's parents live at 215 North Second street, Talent.

Mr. Raduski is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Gage, 104 New street, Talent.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lea chose a pale beige silk ensemble with green silk hat and bone white accessories. Her corsage was a green cymbidium orchid. Mrs. Brusletten wore a grey-green silk suit with matching accessories and spider chrysanthemum corsage.

A reception followed in the garden and at the poolside at the Lea's home. Mrs. Reese Alexander and Mrs. Stuart McQueen cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. John Welch, Portland, poured coffee and Mrs. Ronald G. Hawley, Grants Pass, and Mrs. Norman Malone, Beaverton, presided at the punch bowls. Bags of rice and bridegroom's cake were passed by Laurie McQueen and Robin Brusletten, Beaverton, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Nancy Adams, Hayward, Calif., was in charge of the guest book. Greeting guests were Miss Kay Bishop, Washougal, Wash., sorority sister of the bride.

The couple traveled to Victoria, British Columbia, on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a turquoise linen ensemble with bone and turquoise colored accessories. They will make their home at 5023 Northeast Hoyt street, Portland, after September 1.

The bride attended Medford High school and received her bachelor of science and master of arts degrees at Oregon State university. She is teacher of homemaking in the Reynolds school district. Mr. Whittenburg attended Beaverton High school, Portland State college and Oregon State university and is a pharmacist with Pay Less Drug Store. He was a member of the varsity basketball team at Portland State college.

The evening prior to the wedding the bride's parents were hosts at a rehearsal dinner held at North's Chuck Wagon restaurant.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at two showers. They were given by Miss Coralen Richardson, Portland, and Mrs. Stuart V. McQueen, Medford. The bridegroom-elect was honored at a bachelor party given by William Bailey, Beaverton, and Brian Williamson, Portland.

School Lunch Workshop Set Here Monday

The Medford schools will host the Annual School Lunch workshop for Jackson, Josephine and Klamath counties at Hoover Elementary school, 2323 Siskiyou boulevard, Monday, August 26.

Mrs. Virginia Wait, school lunch coordinator for the Medford schools, is general chairman assisted by members of the Medford School Food Service association.

Registration and coffee hour will be held from 8 to 9 a.m.

Dennis Patch, supervisor of the Oregon School Lunch program, and Miss Janet Buttrick, consultant for the Oregon School Lunch program, will attend. Time and motion studies and food demonstrations will highlight the morning session.

Miss Butterworth, as president of the Oregon School Food Service association, will review plans for the American School Food Service association meeting in Portland in August 1964.

Summer Visitor To Seattle

Mrs. Bruce B. Samson, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Moore Hamilton, and her brother, Robert Hamilton, 43 Rose avenue, for the past few weeks left Thursday for Seattle to join her husband, Lieutenant Samson, a reserve pilot in the Navy. He arrived in Seattle from a tour with the Navy in southern California.

Lieutenant Samson, who was graduated from the University of Oregon school of law in June, has accepted a position as a law clerk in the office of Federal Judge William East, in Portland.

Judge East will preside on the Federal bench in Phoenix, beginning September 3 for five weeks and the Samsons will leave for Phoenix this week. They will return to Portland to live at the close of the five-week session of court.

Gold Hill Visitor Leaves for Home

Gold Hill—Mrs. Karl Johnston, who had been a guest in the home of her sister, Mrs. George Dorman since June, left last week for her home in Des Moines, Iowa. Enroute east she planned to stop in El Monte, Calif., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burnett and family.

During her stay in southern Oregon, Mrs. Johnston also visited her nieces and their families, Mrs. Albert Gascon, Gold Hill and Mrs. Lloyd Dusenberry, Sams Valley.

Returns From Coast Trip

Prospect—Mrs. Zella Tullis has returned from a week's vacation trip to the coast. While away she was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Grenbommer, former Medford residents.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Davis, Loveland, Colo., are houseguests in the R. E. Conner home, 235 Gibson street. The women are sisters.

Group Home From Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Jewett, and daughters, Sandra and Shari, 6 South Groveland avenue, returned last week from a week's trip to Hawaii. They were guests at the Waikiki Surf hotel in Honolulu.

Among the activities in which they participated was a luau at the Hilton Hawaiian village.

Tours and cruises which the group made were to Mt. Tantalus; a perfume factory; Pearl Harbor and the Arizona monument; Ula Mau village, the Waikiki aquarium and zoo; a Kodak show which featured Hawaiian hula and Tahitian dancers, and a show at the International Market place.

The Jewetts also made a tour of the island of Oahu and watched the pineapple harvest.

Miss Shari Jewett stayed in Portland to spend some time with her sister who now resides there. She is a student at Portland State college and had just completed the summer session before making the trip.

Methodist Wedding Held

Ashland—News of interest in southern Oregon is the marriage of Miss Coralen Ann Richardson and Frank Howard Lagesen, which was an event of August 10 in Portland.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Richardson, Portland, and the bridegroom, a graduate of Medford High school, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Haakon M. Lagesen, 945 Harmony lane, Ashland.

The Rev. Stanley Andrews performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening in the Portland First Methodist church.

Mr. Richardson escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a brocade satin princess-styled gown with jacket and train. A headpiece of flowers and seed pearls held her elbow length veil and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis, roses and ivy, with a handkerchief, a gift of her aunt, Mrs. W. A. Davenport, Spokane.

Seven Attendants

Miss Gail Holsten, Seattle, a cousin of the bride, was the honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gary Curtis, Mrs. Robert Hormel and Mrs. Jerry Hendricks, all Portland, and Mrs. Fred Gast Jr., Eugene. Bridesmaids were Miss Sonya Lea, Medford, and Miss Monica Seitz, Portland.

Their turquoise blue silk linen frocks with white lace trimming were similar in style to the gown worn by the bride. Their pillbox hats matched their gowns and they carried bouquets of white roses and carnations.

Candlelighters were Randi Lou Sypher, a cousin of the bride, and Joan West, both Portland.

James Allan Cooksey, Yuma, Ariz., formerly of Medford, was best man. Ushers were Gary Schaffer, Medford; Fred Murschall, Grants Pass, and Mr. Hormel, Larry Stein, Jerry Stein, James Whittenburg, all Portland, and Derral Ross, also a former Medford resident now of Portland.

All white flowers including orchids, gladioli, roses and carnations, with ivy decorated the church.

The champagne reception was given by the bride's parents in the Pompeian room in the Congress hotel. About 350 guests had attended the wedding and some 300 were at the reception.

Trina and Douglas Herman, El Paso, Tex., niece and nephew of the bridegroom, and Donald Laventhal, New York City, a cousin of the bride, passed pieces of the graduated last spring from the same college, is a junior accountant with the Yergen and Meyer Certified Public Accountant firm.

Methodist Wedding Held

The couple made their wedding trip to Canada. They will live in Portland.

Several pre-wedding events were given in honor of the bride-elect and included events in Grants Pass, Eugene and Portland.

The rehearsal dinner, given by the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Haakon Lagesen, Ashland, was held in the Washington hotel, Portland, the evening prior to the wedding.

The bride was graduated from Portland State college in 1963 and is employed as a teacher by the Portland Public school system. The bridegroom, who also was

Spent Week

Hornbrook—Mr. and Mrs. James Gaut and their granddaughter, Carol Jean Bowen, all Fallon, Nev., spent last week here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wayne. Overnight guests at the Wayne home on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Wally Pakindeny and son, Paul, Riverside, Calif.

Spent Week

Hornbrook—Mr. and Mrs. James Gaut and their granddaughter, Carol Jean Bowen, all Fallon, Nev., spent last week here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wayne. Overnight guests at the Wayne home on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Wally Pakindeny and son, Paul, Riverside, Calif.

aileen.

Comfortable and Casual by Aileen

The perfect duo—for leisure wear in cotton knits by Aileen. This V-neck, long sleeve top with ribbed welt trimming on the cuffs and around the neck line combined with the belted easy skirt, give you an unbeatable pair.

Parker WOODS

Specialty Shop

220 East Main

California Ceremony Held

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wittke, whose marriage in Carmel, Calif., was an event of mid-summer, are living at 9900 Monroe avenue extension, Aptos, Calif. The bride is the former Miss Elizabeth Gail Lockwood, Santa Barbara, Calif., a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert James Lockwood, 423 Highland drive, Medford, who went south for the wedding ceremony.

The bridegroom is a son of Dr. Anna Turner, Santa Barbara, Calif.

The bride attended Medford High school and San Diego State college. The bridegroom received his education in German and Belgian schools and now is an electronics technician with the Sylvania Electronics firm in Santa Cruz.

Dr. K. Fillmore Grey performed the 3 o'clock afternoon rites July 12 in the Carmel Methodist church.

Mr. Lockwood gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride's long satin gown over taffeta was designed with a basque bodice and A-line skirt. The back was accented with a bow which held a panel of hemline length. Her silk illusion veil fell from a tiara of starched lace trimmed with dewdrop pearls and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis. Her only ornament was a diamond pendant which had belonged to her maternal grandmother, the late Mrs. E. G. Sawyer of Medford.

Mrs. Leonard Gleasing, Carmel, the honor attendant, wore a white silk sheath dress with a crushed red silk belt

Women Return From Canada

Mrs. L. A. Brennessoltz, Madrona lane, and Mrs. Ralph Krows, 312 South Ivy street, returned last week after being away for over two weeks on a tour in Canada.

They were accompanied from here by Mrs. A. J. Moncrieff, Seattle, who had been in Medford as a houseguest of Mrs. Krows. In Hood River they joined Mrs. Irene Wilson, a sister of Mrs. Brennessoltz, and the four continued on the trip.

The travelers stopped at Banff, Lake Louise, Jasper National park and Calgary, Alberta. They returned by way of Glacier National park.

Family To Visit From England

Talent—Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Conner, 235 Gibson street, have received the news that their son-in-law and daughter, Sgt. and Mrs. Harold Brown and children, Marlene, Virginia, Richard, Clifford and Bernice, are to arrive Wednesday from England.

They have lived in England for the past three and one-half years while Sergeant Brown was stationed there.

WEDDING...

- Announcements
- Napkins
- Imprinted Wedding
- Punch Bowl Rentals

at

Swem's

217 E. Main St. —Medford

Orange Blossom

Lawrence's

Southern Oregon's Diamond Center

21 N. CENTRAL Ek. 1908

Convenient Terms if Desired

Town & Country's Smarties

major in A+ Fashion!

When you select a "T & C" shoe you are buying one of the finest... for fit... styling and wear they are tops... and found only at Woods!

COLLEEN $8.99

Parker Woods

Specialty Shop

220 East Main

FREE PARKING

• Park & Shop free in any P & S lot while shopping at Woods.