Carole Lee Newland Bride of John Hanson

A number of Medford residents were in Eugene to attend the August 11 ceremony which wedded Miss Carole Lee Newland and John Edward Hanson. The Rev. William Rees, of St. Matthews Episcopal Mission, officiated for the rites held in St. Mary's Episcopal church in the Willamette valley city.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Newland, Eugene, former Medford residents. Mr. Newland was head track coach for Medford High school and now is vice principal in North Eugene High school, and assistant track coach.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hanson, Tacoma, Wash., who also attended the ceremony.

The bride's gown of peau de soie was styled with an Alencon lace bodice, and a chapel train. She carried a bouquet of blue gardenias with stephanotis and ivy. Her elbow length veil was held by a small crown.

Mrs. Gary Buell, Springfield, the matron of honor, also wore a peau de soie gown in peacock blue shade and her matching headress with short veil was accented by a green Dior rose. Her flowers were blue and white daisies with ivy which she carried in a golden basket.

The bride's sister, Miss Candy Newland, and Miss Mary Donnelly, Portland, were the bridesmaids. Their gowns and flowers matched those of the matron of honor.

Dana Bairey, Honolulu, Hawaii, a niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl, and John Scott Vaughn, Medford, a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Donald Burdick, Los Angeles, was the best man. Ushers were Michael Vawter, Portland, and Robert V. Newland, a brother of the bride.

Mrs. Jack Vaughn, Medford, an aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Philip Boyer, served the wedding cake at the reception, held in the parish hall.

Mrs. W. J. Bowerman, former Medford resident, and Miss Alette Appel poured the punch. Assisting were the Misses Penny and Ann Rix, Miss Mary Girton, Portland, registered the guests.

The couple traveled to Canada for their wedding trip, and planned to visit Vancouver, Victoria, Banff and Lake Louise. They are to return September 1 to live at 2164 West Seventeenth avenue, Eugene. The bridegroom is working towards his doctorate degree at the University of Oregon where he is assistant dean of men. The bride also will continue university work. She attended Medford schools.

Among guests from out of town were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Vaughn, Portland, and her grandmother, Mrs. C. W. Newland, Medford. Also from Medford were Jack and Gary Vaughn.

Sacred Heart Catholic Church Scene of Rites

Ashland — Among summer weddings was that of Miss Mary Kathryn Dugan and David Alan Goodwin which was held August 17 in the Medford Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. William McLeod celebrated the nuptial mass and officiated for the 10:30 o'clock marriage rites.

The bride, a lifelong resident of the valley, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Patrick Dugan, 1100 West Valley View road, Ashland. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. G. O. Vilott, Ajo, Ariz., and Donald Goodwin, Prescott, Ariz.

Mr. Dugan escorted his daughter to the altar.

The bride's sheath-style gown of taffeta was street length and designed with a matching overskirt. The bodice, made with a scoop neckline, was trimmed with sequins. A white velvet band with front bow held her shoulder length veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and roses.

Four Attend Bride

Mrs. Philip Austin, Burney, Calif., a cousin of the bride, was the honor attendant. Another cousin, Mrs. Donald Rust, Sacramento, Calif., was bridesmaid. Carolyn Clark was junior bridesmaid and Catherine Clark was flower girl. Both are from Medford and are cousins of the bride.

All wore matching pastel cotton street length frocks with full skirts. Mrs. Austin in yellow, Mrs. Rust and Catherine Clark in pink, and Miss Niederberger and Carolyn Clark in blue. The attendants carried nosegay bouquets with flowers which matched their dresses.

Mrs. Rust is the former Miss Marilyn Whitman, and her sister, Mrs. Austin, is the former Miss Josephine Whitman, both formerly of Medford. Their weddings were events of this summer in the same church. The three, Miss Dugan, Mrs. Rust and Mrs. Austin, have served in the bridal groups for each other.

Patrick Dugan, Ashland, a brother of the bride, was best man. Mr. Austin and David Crevier, Medford, seated the guests. Groomsman were Mr. Rust, and Timothy Dugan, Portland, brother of the bride.

Blue chrysanthemums with white carnations and gladioli decorated the church.

Bruno Pellegrini was organist.

Reception at Hall

Some 125 guests attended the ceremony and the reception held later by the bride's parents at the Knights of Columbus hall.

Mrs. Carl Howarth, St. Helens, Ore., aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake; Mrs. Timothy Dugan poured the coffee, while Mrs. Jack Birmingham, El Cerrito, Calif., and Mrs. M. C. Devaney, San Francisco, an aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl.

For her daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. Dugan wore a pastel pink brocade dress with jacket and the bridegroom's mother chose a frock of turquoise blue lace, with jacket. Both wore pink carnation corsages.

Among the guests from out of town were the bridegroom's father, D. A. Goodwin, and Mrs. Goodwin, Prescott, Ariz.; Mr. Devaney, San Francisco; Mrs. Timothy Dugan, Portland; Mr. Birmingham, El Cerrito; and Mrs. William Nicol, Corvallis.

The bride attended St. Mary's school, Medford, and the University of Portland. She has been a teacher of vocal and instrumental music at Mt. Angel Public schools, Mt. Angel, Ore.

From Chicago

Talent—Mrs. Garnet Adams, 231 Gibson street, has returned from a six-week trip to Chicago, Ill. En route she joined a brother, Leland Rice, at Las Vegas, Nev., and in Chicago the two were guests of their father, Willard Rice. This was their first reunion of the group in 18 years.

Eugene Rites Of Interest In Ashland

Ashland — More than 250 guests attended the wedding and reception that followed in Santa Clara Church of Christ, Eugene, when Miss Dee Ann Hazzard became the bride of Richard L. Halaas at an evening ceremony August 17.

The bride, who is a student at Ozark Bible college, Joplin, Mo., is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hazzard, Eugene. Her husband, whose parents are Mrs. R. L. Talbot, Crescent City, Calif., and Ray Halaas, Ashland, is studying for the ministry in the same school.

The Rev. James M. Cautley officiated, reading the service before an altar background of pink and white gladioli and snapdragons. Organ and vocal music preceded the rites.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of silk organza with applique overskirt, semi-scoop neckline and short sleeves. Her shoulder length illusion net veil fell from a pearlized floral spray and she carried a bouquet of carnations, stephanotis and pink rosebuds.

In the wedding party were the bride's sister, Miss Marcia Hazzard, serving as maid of honor, and bridesmaids Miss Linda Hofeldt, Miss Judy Dickinson and Miss Karen Eusted, Susan Sedegren was flower girl and David Eusted was ring bearer.

Best man was Charles A. Miller and ushers were John Goodman, Bruce Hill and Harold Palmer II.

Gowns of the bridal attendants were fashioned alike of taffeta with organza overskirts. The maid of honor wore fuchsia and the bridesmaids were dressed in pale pink. All carried bouquets of pink and white roses and carnations. Their headpieces and pumps were in matching tones.

For their wedding trip to Joplin the bride chose a beige jacket ensemble with which she wore bronze accessories and the corsage from her bouquet.
