Fall Schedule for Senior Center Being Compiled

Pictures of Poland will be shown Monday, August 26, at the 1 p.m. meeting of the Armchair Travelers group at the Senior Activity center, 601 East Jackson street.

This showing will be the last of a series of three on Communist countries taken by Nat Etzel, Eagle Point High school agriculture instructor. The pictures will include both cities and farms. Last week's program was pictures of Hungary.

The Monday program of showing slides taken by valley travelers has been a weekly event since January, 1959. Dr. Frank Roberts is in charge of the program which is open to any person over 50. His committee, Mrs. Karl Knutson and Mrs. Judd Greenman, find the travelers who have pictures they would like to show and the men in the audience help arrange the room's furniture.

Oil Painting
Tuesday, August 27, the oil painting class will meet for the last summer session. Prospective members for the fall class, which will start next month, are invited to register at the center Tuesday and visit the class to find out what equipment is needed. The schedule for the fall and winter classes is now being completed and suggestions for new activities will be welcomed by the committee.

Miss Alicia Carter has consented to teach Spanish this fall. The day of the class has not been decided, but registrations may be made by telephoning or stopping at the center during the four afternoons it is open each week. Frank Gray, host for the class, or Mrs. Edith Brandenburg will also take registrations.

Center Orchestra
The center orchestra will continue its Thursday afternoon practice which they have held since the group was organized in 1959.

Any song leader who is willing to conduct a Sunday afternoon sing session for the Singing Seniors, should contact Mrs. Fred Rankin, Center committee chairman. The group did not meet during the summer.

The Saturday Bridge group will continue its Saturday meetings from 1 to 4 p.m., according to L. C. Davis, leader, and Mrs. Fred Middlebush, hostess.

The Center committee hopes to offer square dancing, copper tooling, knitting, clay sculpture, and woodcarving this fall in addition to the other classes scheduled. The Center committee reported that use of the center by seniors from Ashland, Phoenix, and Talent has increased steadily during the last year.
