

Members of the Exemplar chapter, Xi Beta Kappa, of the Beta Sigma Phi society, are making plans for their second annual Yellow Rose ball to be held this year September 7 in Rogue Valley Country club. Dancing is scheduled for the semi-formal event from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. The Bob Anderson trio will furnish the music. Pictured while working on decorations are, left to right, Mrs. Ernest Flakus, co-chairman of the decorating committee; Mrs. Thomas Shoop, chairman of that committee and Mrs. Richard Knoll, general chairman for the ball. The yellow rose is the flower for the society.

Garden Show Set

Prospect—"Art With Flowers" will be the theme for Prospect Garden club flower show scheduled for Thursday, August 29 from 1 to 8 p.m. A silver tea will be held in connection.

A ceramic exhibit by Marge's Ceramic shop, Medford, and a U.S. Forest service display from Prospect Ranger station will be featured.

All persons interested in entering flower exhibits are invited to do so.

To Europe
Grants Pass - Mrs. Ethel Sinott, 120 Gordon way, will sail August 28 aboard the Queen Elizabeth for a tour of Europe. Among other places, Mrs. Sinott plans to visit England, Ireland and Bavaria.

Couple Moves
Prospect - Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Firestone have moved to Prospect from Gold Hill and are living at Dewey Hills trailer court. They are parents of Mrs. Sidney Peterson.

Portland Woman Visits Ashland

Ashland - Mrs. Frances Hardy, 107 Granite street, has as houseguest this week Mrs. Helen McCallen, Portland, formerly a resident of Ashland. She arrived a few days after Mrs. Hardy had returned from a six-weeks trip to Hawaii with her daughter, Mrs. William King, Seattle.

Mrs. Hardy and Mrs. King traveled by German freighter and airplane and during their stay were entertained by Mrs. King's son, Stanley Cook, who has been stationed at a submarine base on the islands for the past four years. They visited many remote points of interest.
