

20th Victory Still Eludes Koufax, But Dodgers Win

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer
The first million is supposed to be the toughest but those first 20 aren't exactly a snap either.
Ask Sandy Koufax.
The frustrated Dodger

paw, still looking for the first 20-game season of his career, has come right down to the wire twice now only to wind up with a big handful of nothing.

Well, not exactly nothing. The Dodgers did come on to beat the Braves, 2-1, Sunday and fatten their National League lead to 8½ games over both the Cardinals and Giants, so Koufax wasn't complaining.

But it did hurt a bit to come within one and his 20th victory and his 11th shutout without achieving either.

Koufax had a three-hitter and a 1-0 lead until the ninth when Eddie Mathews doubled and then Gene Oliver doubled with two out to tie the score.

Manager Walt Alston decided to bring in Bob Miller at that point, and after Miller retired the side without further damage he picked up his ninth victory when Doug Camilli singled home the winning run in the bottom of the ninth with the bases full.

Koufax now has allowed only two runs in the last 18 2/3 innings, yet does not have a victory to show for it.

He held the Cardinals in one run last Wednesday and left that game with the score tied 1-1 after 10 innings. The Dodgers won it in the 16th, 2-1.

Houston beat St. Louis, 3-1, Cincinnati outlasted San Francisco, 8-7, Philadelphia downed Pittsburgh 4-2, in 11 innings and Chicago defeated New York, 3-1, in other NL games.

Pads Split In Bid for South Toga

By DAVE ROWE
UPI Sports Writer

Baseball fans are comparing the San Diego Padres with Silky Sullivan, the thoroughbred well known for charging from last place in the field to win many a race.

The Padres are making a determined bid to move into first place in the Southern division of the Pacific Coast League. On Aug. 4 manager Don Heffner's club was 7½ games out, but now has battled to within 4 games. They have won 14 of their last 20 games and are pointing for a spot in the best of seven playoffs, which begin in the Northern division city, Sept. 10. This was decided upon by the flip of a coin over the week end. Sept. 13 will be an off day for travel with the series continuing Sept. 14 in the Southern division city.

After six starting pitchers finished their assignments without relief, Jim Owens needed assistance in Sunday's second game of a twinbill with Tacoma. The Padres lost the game, 7-5 and the win broke an 11 game losing streak for the Giants. San Diego won the opener 3-2.

In other games, Dallas-Ft. Worth took a pair from Denver 6-2 and 2-0 to slip into second place, one-half game ahead of San Diego. Oklahoma City clung to its Southern Division lead with a 4-2 victory over Salt Lake City in 10 innings and Portland moved out of the basement in the Northern Division by whipping Seattle twice 5-2 and 3-2. Hawaii blanked Spokane 4-0.

Sammy Ellis notched his 10th win in the first game against Tacoma as the Padres tallied twice in the ninth to win. Bobby Klaus' third hit scored Tommy Helms with the deciding marker. Mel Queen had a solo homer in the fourth for the Padres.

Miller pitched to two batters and got credit for his ninth win against eight defeats. This was the second time Koufax failed in his attempt to win his 20th.

Writers, besieged by sports writers, said, "I'm sure Sandy would rather win 20 games."

Alston was so right — nothing succeeds like success. Cincinnati comes here tonight to engage the Dodgers in the start of a three-game series.

Jim O'Toole, 15-10, will start on the mound against Don Drysdale, 16-14.

Sunday Doug Camilli, the young catcher whose father Dolph was a hitter here when the Dodgers were in Brooklyn years ago, was the star. He hit a bases-loaded single in the bottom of the ninth to provide the winning run.

Giants, Cards In Vital Series
San Francisco — UPI — Juan Marichal, the great "stopper" of San Francisco's Giants, went out today with a chance to become the winningest pitcher in professional baseball this year.

Marichal will be after his 20th win as the Giants open a vital three-game series with the St. Louis Cardinals, the two teams were tied for second place in the National League standings, six and one-half games behind the front running Los Angeles Dodgers.

The Giants had a chance to go ahead of the Cards Sunday as they took a 5-1 lead over Cincinnati after three innings. But Billy Pierce blew after five innings and reliever Gaylord Perry tossed a home run ball to Frank Robinson with the bases loaded in the eighth to give the Reds an 8-7 victory.

"What can you say about a game like that?" asked manager Alvin Dark after the battle. "I'm still looking for a pitcher who can start and go the route."

State Pistol Shoot Slated
Salem — UPI — The annual Oregon outdoor pistol shooting championships will be held at the Four Corners Rod and Gun club near here next Saturday and Sunday.

The two-day competition is sanctioned by the Oregon Rifle and Pistol association and registered by the National Rifle association.

Ralston-McKinley Team Gains Crown
Chestnut Hill, Mass. — UPI — The United States may not take the Davis Cup away but at least the nation's tennis players can boast they again hold their own national doubles championship.

Young Dennis Ralston and Chuck McKinley before a record Longwood Cricket club gallery recaptured the title Sunday from Mexicans Rafael Osuna and Antonio Palafox. All four, together with a host of others, moved on to Forest Hills, N.Y., where the U.S. national championships get rolling on Wednesday.

Tigers Promoting Charlie Dresen For Pilot of Year

By MILTON RICHMAN

header sweep of the Kansas City Athletics.

Rocky Colavito, Norm Cash and Kaline each hit homers and drove in three runs apiece in the opener as reliever Terry Fox notched his sixth victory. Dick McAuliffe then belted a three-run homer in the sixth inning of the nightcap to help Jim Bunning gain his 10th triumph.

The Yankees blanked the White Sox, 4-0, in the first of their two games but lost the 12-inning nightcap, 2-1; the Red Sox beat the Indians, 8-3, but Cleveland took the 15-inning nightcap, 2-1; the Twins toppled the Orioles, 5-3, in 10 innings, and the Senators defeated the Angels, 4-1.

There was some snickering in the audience over that statement although anyone checking the standings today will find the Tigers only a half-game out of the first division.

"We heard a lot of stories about Charlie before he took over and none of them proved to be true," says Al Kaline. "He's really done a terrific job."

Dresen has at that. The Tigers were limping along at a sickly .400 clip the day he became their manager. They have won 37 and lost 30 for a more impressive .552 percentage since he took over the head chair.

Winners in eight of their last nine games, the Tigers extended their latest winning streak to five games Sunday with an 11-5 and 4-3 double-

Omaha Nine Victor Over Roseburg

Keene, N. H. — UPI — Omaha, Neb., trounced Roseburg, Ore. 23-9 Sunday night in the second game of a week-long American Legion Little World Series.

Long Beach, Calif., defeated Somerville, Mass., 4-2, in the opener of the double-elimination tournament.

Omaha jumped out to an early lead on Charles Shimerdla's grand slam homer in the first inning and took advantage of 12 Roseburg errors to coast to victory.

Ken Fila got credit for the victory, striking out 13 and allowing seven hits in the seven innings he worked. Ran Cool picked up the loss.

Jim Beamer slammed two three-run homers for Roseburg and ended up with seven runs batted in. Rich Bacek also hit a homer for Omaha.

West Edges East Eleven 6-0 In Shrine Fray at Pendleton

Pendleton—UPI—West used a third-period touchdown to defeat East 6-0 in the 12th annual Shrine A-2 and B all-star football game before an estimated 8,000 persons here Saturday night.

The victory gave West a 7-4 edge in the series. There has been one tie.

West's touchdown came when halfback George Prummer of Toledo took a direct snap from center and passed 12 yards to quarterback Tom Jernstedt of Yamhill-Carlton.

East came close to scoring in the dying seconds of the game on a 54-yard drive. Time ran out with the ball on the West four-yard line.

Passing of Greg Hartman of Central almost got the score. He hurried one to Charles Pomeroy of Eagle Point and four to Ron Wagner of Enterprise in the bid but an 11-yard loss hurt the drive.

West Stopped
West reached the East two-yard line in the second quarter, was thrown back to the four and stopped by a Hartman pass interception.

Jernstedt was named the most valuable player in the contest.

Prummer and Rance Sopko of Seaside were named the outstanding back and lineman, respectively, for the winning team. Quarterback Hartman and Gary Neal, both of Central, were chosen for the same honors for the losers.

East rolled up an 8-5 edge in first downs and a 156-116 advantage in total yards.

Phoenix Beats Lind Florists

Stratford, Conn. — UPI — Portland's Ery Lind Florists absorbed their first loss in the Women's World Series of Softball Sunday as the Phoenix Ramblers scored a 1-0 victory.

Marlene Piper, Florists, and Dottie Harris, Ramblers, were in a tight pitching duel until the ninth inning when Phoenix put a walk, a sacrifice, and Thelma King's double together for the only score of the game.

The Florists meet the winner of today's Detroit-Nashville game Tuesday night.

Pro Bowlers Okeh Portland

Portland—UPI—The Professional Bowler's association have approved holding its $50,000 Tournament of Champions at the Pacific International Livestock arena June 3-7, 1968.

Approval was announced at the annual convention of the Oregon State Bowling Proprietors' association.

Contracts are scheduled to be signed in Los Angeles as soon as final plans are completed. Selection of the P-I site is based on the condition that a bowling equipment manufacturer can install 20 lanes successfully in the building.

It would be the first time the tournament has been held in anything other than an established bowling house.

"In other action at the meeting last week, Bob Schwartz of the Salem Statesman was awarded the "Mr. Bowling" trophy, presented to the sportswriter who did the most to promote bowling in 1963.
