Ewbank Faces Task of Rebuilding New York Jets

Editor's note: This is another in a series of dispatches sizing up the prospects of pro football teams for the 1963 season.

By NORMAN MILLER UPI Sports Writer. New York (UPI) — This is the season in which Web Ewbank's reputation as a pro football coaching genius will be tested to the limit.

Energetic Ewbank, who five years ago guided the Baltimore Colts to the first of two straight National Football league championships, faces the monumental task of making a respectable team of the New York Jets in the American league. The Jets have lost all three of their exhibition games so far.

For three seasons as the New York Titans under the ownership of controversial Harry Wismer, this club experienced a chaotic existence. There was constant bickering between Wismer and his coaches. Players said they had no play-books diagramming their assignments. And there were weeks when they were not sure whether their paychecks would come through on time.

Last year's team, coached by Bulldog Turner, compiled a 5-9 record and wound up last in the Eastern division. What's more, the old Wismer regime did not sign a single college draftee before selling the franchise to a syndicate headed by Sonny Werblin.

Ewbank, signed to a five-year contract as coach and general manager, hired a new staff of assistants; changed the nickname to "Jets" and the uniform colors to green and white; and has set out to create a new image that might make AFL fans forget about the woebegone Titans.

That, however, will take some doing, and realistic 55-year-old Ewbank has no illusions about what's in store for him and his Jets.

"Because of our lack of draft choices, we are three years behind the other clubs in the league," Ewbank stresses.

The Jets do have a few assets. There's Bill Mathis, 1961 All-AFL fullback who appears recovered from last year's injuries; Dick Christy, the league's ninth-ranked rusher.

Twenty-three golfers from Oregon and the Seattle area competed in the sectional qualifying.

Hedlund shot 72-75-147, Fischer fired 75-72-147 and Mueller, a former Portlander who is attending a convention in the city, had 74-74-148 at Riverside Golf and Country club.

Winners were: A group, Mrs. Charles Allen and Mrs. Charles McCuan; B group, Mrs. Fred Conrad; C group, Mrs. Charles McAdams; D group, Mrs. Fitzhugh Brewer.

Nine hole medal play winner was Mrs. William Tether with Mrs. Williams Williams runner-up. Because of the Southern Oregon golf tournament, there will be no ladies' day on Thursday, Aug. 29. Pairings below are for Sept. 5 when the play will be blind hole for both the nine and 18-hole groups.

After signing up for a starting time, ladies of the 18-hole division are asked to contact others in their four-some.

On Saturday, Aug. 31, the ladies will host the annual champagne luncheon in the Starlite room at 1 p.m. at the country club. Any WGA member not contacted by phone is to call the club for a luncheon reservation.

Ladies wishing information may telephone Mrs. James Cowning, 773-2974.

Southern Oregon Links Tourney Opens at Medford's RVCC Course

Qualifying for the Southern Oregon Golf tourney at Rogue Valley Country club both goes its heaviest and concludes on Wednesday with the appearance of visiting entrants on the Medford layout.

Tomorrow evening some 432 contestants will be paired for matches in Oregon's biggest links event. Matches open on Thursday morning, Men's, Thursday and senior men's championships will be decided on Monday, Sept. 2, Labor day.

Champions of 1962 defending will be Mis Pam Stacey, Medford, in the women's tourney, and Laurence Butler, Ashland, in the senior men's division.

Today was the qualifying day for Rogue Valley men and women who aimed to make championship flights. Non-championship flight qualification for local players concluded yesterday.

The Southern Oregon is known for its fun and social features, as well as for some topnotch golf. It is a holiday period tourney. And, already the country club has taken on a festive atmosphere as participants practice as well as qualify.

Tournament officials have pointed out, as they do every year, that residents of the valley may help make the tourney a success by joining the galleries of spectators and watching the golfers play. There is no charge to galleries.
