Yanks Expand Bulge With Two Shutouts

By TIM MORIARTY
UPI Sports Writer

Talk about the rich getting richer.

The New York Yankees, who have opened a hefty 12½ game lead in bidding for their 14th pennant in 17 years, now are bragging about the hottest pitching staff in the majors.

Four different men have hurled shutouts for the Yankees in their last five games. Whitey Ford and Al Downing started the whitewash jobs against the Chicago White Sox last week end, then Jim Bouton and Ralph Terry blanked the Boston Red Sox in a doubleheader Tuesday night.

So in addition to spread-eagling the American league, the Yankees are closing in on a club record for most shutouts in a season. Manager Ralph Houk's current staff has 18 to its credit, only six short of the team standard set in 1951 by the likes of Vic Raschi, Ed Lopat and Allie Reynolds.

Bouton, a part-time jeweler, nearly carved a no-hit gem in the opener against the Red Sox. He settled for a two-hit, 5-0 victory. Terry spaced five hits in winning the nightcap, 3-0.

Nixon Busts

Pinch hitter Russ Nixon broke up Bouton's no-hit bid when he led off the Boston ninth with a line drive that almost hit the Yankee pitcher. Gary Geiger followed with another single but the chunky right - hander preserved the shutout when Chuck Schilling bounced into a double play and Carl Yastrzemski grounded out to end the game.

It was Bouton's 18th victory and fifth shutout of the season. In the second game, the Yankees scored all their runs in the eighth inning with the help of a two-run double by Yogi Berra to ease Terry to his 15th triumph.

The Chicago White Sox moved into a second place tie with the idle Minnesota Twins by ripping the Cleveland Indians, 6-1, the Detroit Tigers downed the Los Angeles Angels, 4-1, for their sixth straight triumph, and the Kansas City Athletics edged the Baltimore Orioles, 2-1, in 10 innings.

Mays Swats 400th Home Run Of Career To Touch Off Rally

By MARTIN LADER
UPI Sports Writer

It's going to take a big eraser to obliterate the names of Willie Mays and Warren Spahn from baseball history.

Together they present a composite picture of a perfect ballplayer. Individually, they are leaving an indelible heritage that will proclaim their fame for future generations.

Mays, one of the most exciting players ever to participate in the national pastime, reached a personal milestone Tuesday night when he hit the 400th home run of his major league career. Only four other men have reached that figure in National league history, and Mays is the first right-handed batter to do it.

The blow touched off a three-run third-inning rally for San Francisco and helped the Giants beat St. Louis, 7-2, and move into a second-place tie with the Cardinals.

17th For Spahn

Whereas Mays has the power, speed and versatility of the composite player, Spahn provides the necessary pitching ability. The 42-year-old southpaw, who learned how to win at an early age and still retains the habit, pitched scoreless ball over the final seven innings Tuesday night to provide the Milwaukee Braves with a 3-2 triumph over the Houston Colts.

It was Spahn's 17th victory of the season against five losses, and left him in excellent position to challenge Christy Mathewson's league record of 13 20-game seasons. It also marked Spahn's 344th lifetime success, just one short of Tim Keefe on the all-time list of winners.

The league-leading Los Angeles Dodgers scored three runs for the first time in seven games to down the Cincinnati Reds, 3-2, and take a 6½ game lead over the Giants and Cards. In other games, the Pittsburgh Pirates edged the New York Mets, 2-1 and Chicago downed Philadelphia, 4-3, in the only day contest.

LA Dodger Pitchers Getting Little Help

Los Angeles (UPI)—Dodger pitchers, getting little help lately from Dodger hitters, may have to prove the unusual thesis that the best offense is a good defense in order to bring the National league pennant to Los Angeles.

Young Pete Richert made his contribution to the theory by pitching one of his better games of the season Tuesday night in the Dodgers' 3-2 victory over the Cincinnati Reds despite the fact the Dodgers collected only five hits.

Professor Sandy Koufax has been working with Richert on his curve ball, said Dodger Manager Walter Alston. Alston lauded Richert's efforts over 8 2/3 innings in which the lefty, long plagued with wildness, issued only one walk.

Although booed heartily by some of the 28,070 Dodger Stadium customers, Alston removed Richert from the game with two outs and Frank Robinson, who had just singled, on first base. Ron Perranoski made his 52nd stroll of the season from bullpen to mound, and saved the win from Richert.

Alston said he took out Richert because the 23-year-old hurler, making his seventh start of the year, was tiring.
