Tickets Are Still Available for Four Festival Plays

Ashland - Tickets are still available for four of the remaining performances at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival in Ashland.

General Manager William Patton reports that a good selection of seats remain for the Sunday, Sept. 1, staging of "Henry V" and an excellent range of reservations is yet possible for the "Romeo and Juliet" of Tuesday, Sept. 3; "Love's Labour's Lost," Wednesday, Sept. 4; and "Henry V," Thursday, Sept. 5.

Although the other remaining nights have been sold out, standing room goes on sale each evening at 6 p.m. at the central box office, priced at $1.20. So far this season, the standing room capacily has not been sold out. This year's Festival continues nightly through Sept. 7—the latest closing date in the Festival's history. Persons who have been unable to visit Ashland during the earlier part of the season will still be able to see all of the current productions except "Merry Wives of Windsor." Festival officials suggest that reservations be made immediately, either by contacting the central box office in Ashland or any one of the branch agencies in Oregon or northern California. Mail orders may not be received in time for processing.

MAKES GOOD PROGRESS

Washington - (UPI) - Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.) is expected to be released from Doctors hospital within a week or 10 days following brain surgery Saturday. The operation on the 51-year-old Californian was needed to correct circulatory trouble that affected his right arm and leg. His office said Wednesday his recovery "continues to be excellent."

Continuing the Festival's extended list of daytime activities is marionettist Peter Arnett, performing daily except Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the YMCA. In rotation are Arnett's translations of "Dr. Faustus," "Medea," and "Les Fourberies de Scapin." Tickets are available in this area at Mann's Department store, or at the Festival box office.

BLM Calls for Bids On Clearing Trail

Portland - The Portland office of the bureau of land management has announced a call for bids to clear 8.5 miles of fire trails in Curry and Douglas counties.

Bidders are asked to furnish all equipment, supplies, labor, supervision, services and transportation, and perform all work incidental to clearing of three separate fire trails in the Medford district. The work is set aside for small business concerns only.

Opening of the bids will be held at 2 p.m. Sept. 12 in the BLM field administrative office, room 720, 1002 Holladay st., Portland.

Detailed information may be obtained from the bureau at the district manager in Medford.
