Departmental sessions from pre-school through youth and general sessions covering these topics: Is visitation important to you? Use of visual aids in teaching, and Tools for your soul winning.

During the departmental sessions there will be a meeting with Miss Eloise Clarno, Portland, for pastors, superintendents and secretaries.

The Crusader youth group presented highlights of the Camp Crestview they had just attended the previous week. The Medford church participated along with eight other churches in the quiz contest that has been in effect during the year. Miss Gloria Rasmussen represented the district in the Miss Crestview contest.

Stewardship Services Continue At 1st Nazarene

"Things That Are God's" is the title of the third message on stewardship to be given Sunday morning by the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene of Medford.

The church, which is located at 520 North Holly st., is mid-way in a stewardship enrollment program. Laymen are in leadership and participating in each of the major services, speaking on the subject "Why I Tithed."

Jack Delmonte will give a tenor solo during the 11 a.m. service and Mrs. Rex Vowell will sing with him in a duet, as announced by Perry Christiansen, minister of music.

The pastor's message in the 7 p.m. service will be on the subject "Faith for the Future." Music will be furnished by the Evangelical choir and a teenage girls trio.

The annual Sunday school picnic will be held at Hawthorne park from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Labor Day. All the usual activities for such a gathering will take place with a potluck dinner at noon. The activities of the day are under the direction of each of the Sunday school departments with Leslie Young as general chairman.

Lester Dugan Named to Post

Lester M. Dugan, who serves the Medford-Central Point congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses as district minister, has been named assistant convention manager for the Everlasting Good News convention to be held at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., Sept. 1 to 8.

Dugan has been serving at convention headquarters since June 25 lining up the organization. A veteran organizer, Dugan will share the responsibility of supervising 20 departments geared to accommodate an estimated 70,000 delegates coming from 50 states and 24 foreign countries.

The Pasadena gathering will climax the series of assemblies which began in Milwaukee, Wis., June 30, and now progressing around the world to over 23 cities including London, Munich, Delhi, Seoul, and Honolulu.

At the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday at the Medford Church of the Brethren, 345 North Mary st., the Rev. William Wash has chosen as his sermon topic, "Work a Sacred Thing." He will use as his text, John 5:17.

There will be an all church picnic Sunday, sponsored by the Youth Fellowship at Tou-Velle park beginning at 1 p.m. Al and Terry Birman will be in charge of the games and recreation.

Dolores Pool will be the worship leader at the vespers service which will be held in the late afternoon.

THE REV. ROSE LIGHTBURNE Valley Speaker

Eugene Minister To Speak at Unity Sunday

The Rev. Rose Elaine Lightburne, Eugene, minister of the Unity church, will be guest speaker for the Unity church of Medford, Holly and Haven sts., at the 11:15 a.m. Sunday service. Her subject will be "Your Miracle Consciousness." The text is taken from John 14:10-20.

Miss Lightburne assisted the Rev. Ross Goodman, minister of the Unity church in Portland, before going to Eugene.

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of the local church, will be guest speaker for the Unity church of Eugene the same Sunday. She will be accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. John Bell, Ashland.

Miss Sandra Myers will be at the organ. Mrs. Richard A. Schuchard will sing "Voice in the Wilderness" by John Prindle Scott.

Church school begins at 9:45 a.m. with classes for all age groups.

The prayer ministry will meet Wednesday, Sept. 4, at 11 a.m. in the Unity church.

Associate Pastor To Give Sermon

The Rev. Norman Northrup, associate minister, will present the sermons at the First Christian church Sunday morning. Following a Labor Day theme he will speak on "Let Jesus Step Into Your Work."

A mixed quartet composed of Mrs. Eleanor Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Marmie Olson, and Robert D. Church will sing "How Great Thou Art" at both the services.

Mrs. Paul Andrews and Mrs. Ruby Hicks will host the coffee hour following the second service.

The three youth fellowships will meet at 6 p.m. Sunday for recreation followed by a devotional period. Many of the youth and their sponsors will go to Little River Christian camp near Glide, Ore. Monday to help close the camp for the winter. The annual meeting of the Southern Oregon Association of Christian Churches, owners of the camp, will be held Monday afternoon.

All functional departments of the church will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Choir rehearsals will begin Wednesday after a month's vacation; the carillon choir at 7 p.m. and the chancel choir at 8 p.m. The junior choir will rehearse Saturday at 10 a.m. Mrs. Ray Leeson is the director for all the church choirs.

Rally Day Plans Listed for GH

Gold Hill-Plans for a Rally day on Sunday, Sept. 29 are being arranged by the Gold Hill Christian church Sunday school classes. Each class will have an individual part. After church on that date a wienner roast will be held, putting to use the new barbecue pit completed Aug. 27 by Dewey V. Jeffrey, minister and Lee Currey.

The barbecue pit will be used for cookouts and was built primarily with the idea that the young folks could combine this facility with their activities at the church.

The second in a series of flame-graphics will be presented during Sunday school. There are 13 in the series on the topic entitled "Christ First."

About 100 members of the Junior Sunday school class held a party at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Leonard Andrews Aug. 19. The group roasted wienners in the outdoor fireplace.

Women Conduct Wilderville Service

Wilderville-The Wilderville Community Church services were given by the women of Wilderville last Sunday as the Rev. Austin McGhee is on vacation. Miss Ritchie Douglas gave a talk on social concerns. Mrs. Darwin Ingalls gave the service, and Mrs. Edward Koenig read from the Bible.

Management, Labor and Church To Be Discussed

In observance of Labor Day, members of the panel for Ministers' Roundtable will discuss the subject: "The Institutions of Labor, Management and the Church in Creative Relationship."

The program is telecast at 11 a.m. by station KMED-TV on Saturday. The program will also be heard on Sunday at 8:05 a.m. over radio station KMED.

Fred Morlan, executive secretary of the Industry Council of Southern Oregon, will represent management. Representing organized labor will be Kenneth Phillips, business manager of Electrical Workers Union, Local 59.

The Rev. Charles R. McDonald, pastor of St. Luke's Methodist church, will serve as moderator. The Rev. Clifford Young, of Eastwood Baptist church will be the second ministerial member of the panel. They will have as their guests representatives from both organized labor and management.

What kind of a creative relationship can labor and management have with the church? What is the role of each during periods of labor unrest? What kind of a relationship can the church have with labor and management both during tranquility and unrest? These are but a few of the questions that will be discussed.

The public is invited to submit questions for future programs on Ministers' Roundtable. They may be sent to Ministers' Roundtable, Station KMED, Medford.

Classes and activities are scheduled for all age groups throughout the three-day session. Nursery will be provided for two and three year olds.

A Labor Day breakfast will be cooked and served by the Bend branch at Shevlin County park on Monday, followed by a prayer and fellowship, concluding the services for the institute.

Pastor A. P. Ritz of the Medford Seventh-Day Adventist church will join other Adventist ministers, doctors and dentists in a week end workers meeting held at Big Lake Youth camp near Sisters, Ore. Saturday and Sunday.

Ed Sanders, who recently moved to the valley to teach the seventh and eighth grades at Rogue River academy, will be guest speaker at the Medford church for the 11 a.m. service Sunday.

A number of Valley Seventh-day Adventist young people will leave next week to attend denominational academics.

Among those who will enroll at Milo academy will be Judy Belz, Caroline Bigger, Kathy and Jeanne Koenig, Karen Ritz, Sharon Snyder, Joyce Surprise, Gene Yost and Gerald Woods.

Attending Laurelwood academy at Gaston, Ore. will be Rosalyn and Ronald Dewey, Sandra Kitchen and Carol Jarvis.

Congregational Service Noted

"The Rule of Practical Sympathy" is the title of the sermon that the Rev. Robert W. Tull will preach as the Congregational church meets for worship on Sunday.

The service will be at 10 a.m. at Hoover Grade school on Siskiyou Blvd. The school is the temporary meeting place of the church while plans are being made for the construction of a new church and educational unit at the corner of East Jackson st. and Berkeley Way.

During the worship hour, child care will be provided for children up through fourth grade.

Wednesday at 8 p.m. the Christian Education committee will meet at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Porter B. Lombard, 1115 East Main st.

Christian Science Bible Lesson Set

A Bible lesson on "Christ Jesus" will be read at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windsor ave., Sunday at 11 a.m.

The text will include John 3:16 and related readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be given during the service.

Youth people up to the age of 20 are invited to attend Sunday school. All are invited to the services.

RLDS Institute Scheduled In Bend This Week

The Medford branch of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Tenth and Ivy sts., will not hold services Sunday in order to allow members to attend the annual RLDS Southern Oregon District Bend Institute. Pastor Harley Davidson stated that there will be church school at 9:45 a.m. at the local church.

Registration for the institute will start Saturday, Aug. 31, at the Allen School building, Bend. Camping facilities are available near Bend at Shevlin County park or Tumalo State park. For housing, contact Elder Milton Petrie, 1533 West Eighth st., Bend.

The theme for this year's institute, as reported by District President High Priest Noel King, Eugene, will be: "Strengthened With Might by His Spirit," taken from Ephesians 3:14-6. Guest ministers will be Evangelist Mark Yeoman and Missionary Elder Donald Balsiger.

Classes and activities are scheduled for all age groups throughout the three-day session. Nursery will be provided for two and three year olds.

A Labor Day breakfast will be cooked and served by the Bend branch at Shevlin County park on Monday, followed by a prayer and fellowship, concluding the services for the institute.

Pastor Bruce Rogers will continue a series of messages on "Little Known Bible People" at the 11 a.m. worship service of Trinity Baptist church. The subject for Sunday will be, "The Servant Who Looked Up." Miss Cecilia Wilson will play a violin solo at this service. She will be accompanied by Miss Sally Goodman.

Youth and Adult discussion groups will be held at 8 p.m. The adults will continue their discussions from I Corinthians, "The Church - God's Workshop." The subject for Sunday's discussion will be: "A Warning In God's Workshop - How Can the Church Maintain a Witness for Christ in a Morally Warped World?" The Scripture portion will be I Corinthians 5.

Sunday school classes for all ages meet at 10 a.m. Trinity Baptist church is located at Griffin Creek and South Stage rds.

East Side Lists Coming Activities

Mr. Jean M. Shelley, minister, will speak at the 10:45 a.m. service Sunday at East Side Church of Christ, 132 Vancouver ave., on "The Growth of a Christian in Love."

The minister reminded persons who are interested in joining the church that charter membership will close Sept. 8.

At the 7 p.m. worship hour Sunday the sermon will be preceded by an evangelistic song service.

The adult class during the Bible school at 9:45 a.m. will study the tabernacle Sunday.

Eastwood Baptist Events Announced

Sunday at Eastwood Baptist church the pastor, the Rev. Clifford J. Young, will return to his pulpit to speak on: "The Question About Divorce," using Mark 10:1-12 as his scriptural background. Holy communion will be observed. The choir will sing.

At the 7:30 p.m. service, the pastor will speak on: "The Blessing of Children," using Mark 10:13-17 as his scriptural passage.

September events for the church include a proposed Spiritual renewal seminar, an evangelism clinic, and a series of stewardship meetings.

ON SERVICE

Worship service at Ascension Lutheran church, 2617 East Barnett rd., will be at 10 a.m. Sunday. Holy communion will be celebrated. Miss Sue House will sing "Bless This House" accompanied by Jim Klef.
