Nine Regulars Return For Phoenix Football

Phoenix — "If we can adequately fill two or three spots in the line, we think we should have a fine team," reports Coach Jack Woodward of the Phoenix High School Pirate football aggregation.

quarter; Dorman, halfback, and Campbell, fullback. While the three are just one-year lettermen, they are on the varsity for the third year. Assistants Named Woodward listed 25 lettermen among 44 sophomores, juniors and seniors who have checked out suits. He pointed out, however, that the total number of monogram men is misleading since the majority of the gridgers won letters by logging playing time against some of the weaker teams on the Pirate schedule last fall. They did not play much against the strong teams.

Hap Consruck, Dick Swinney and Delmar Broek are assisting longtime Phoenix mentor Woodward. Consruck, starting his 10th season here, works with both backs and linemen and specializes in working with the kickers and the kicking game.

However, Woodward does have nine starters back from the squad which was a state semifinalist in 1962.

Brood, one of the finest backfield men in Phoenix high history, is working with the junior varsity and freshmen.

They are Greg Esp, end; Dave Westfall, Ken Tycksen and Ron Patterson, guards; Paul Diederich, linebacker; Williams, Consruck, Brennan and Granby. All but Diederich and Patterson were both ways players. Williams, Westfall and Granby are three-year vets and Brennan, Esp, Consruck and Tycksen, two-year lettermen.

Freshmen practice does not begin officially until Tuesday, Sept. 3, but some 15 of these boys have obtained gear and are drilling with the varsity.

Woodward said that he and his coaches think that with Williams and Granby "we have two of the finest players we have ever had." Granby was an end as a sophomore and played some fullback along with end last year.

McGarity, Fenton and Patterson are vying for guard and tackle spots on the offensive first string. Diederich is at center. Smith and Mike Scoupin are vying for an end berth. The veteran backfield is backed by Hawkins.

Salt Lake Bees May Not Play Next Year

Salt Lake City — (UPI) — The Salt Lake Bees, beset by poor attendance and bad weather, threatened Saturday to pull out of the Pacific Coast league unless the present major-minor league working agreement is improved.

Official notification that the Bees would not operate next year was made in a letter to league President Dewey Soriano in Seattle. Contents of the letter were made public here.

The letter carried the signatures of Mrs. Walter Coakley, president of the Salt Lake City Baseball Corp., and general manager Herman Franks.

It said the Bees cannot continue to operate under the present system of major-minor working agreements. The team presently has a deficit of $30,000.

"A complete analysis of the simple basic economic facts involved leads to the inescapable conclusion that the working agreement extended presently by the major league clubs constitutes an unfair subsidy to the expense of the minor league clubs," the letter said.

Franks pointed out that the problem with triple-A baseball was a universal one. "I'd say that at least 15 of the 20 clubs in triple-A this year will end up in the red," he said.

Amateur Team Selected for Hudson Match

Portland — (UPI) — The amateur team that will face a team from Northwest professionals in the 15th Hudson Cup golf matches Sept. 28-29 at Astoria was announced Saturday by non-playing captain Francis Heitkemper.

Keene, N.H. — (UPI) — Long Beach, Calif., handed Memphis, Tenn., its first defeat of the year, 12-3, Friday night in the American Legion Little World Series.

Earlier, Greensboro, N.C., and Somerville, Mass., were ousted in the double-elimination series, reducing the field to four teams.

Memphis met Omaha today to decide which of the two teams remains in contention. Each has two wins and one loss.

Undefeated Long Beach played Evansville, which has a 2-1 series record, last night. The final is scheduled for today.

Fans Feel Coach Davis Has Built Raider Club That Can Hold Its Own

(Editor's note: This is another in a series of dispatches sizing up the prospects of pro football teams for the 1963 season.)

And there may be a new hero in the club by the name of Mike Mercer, a kicking specialist. Mercer was picked up as a free agent after being dropped by two National League clubs. In his one game last week against the New York Jets, he kicked five field goals from distances of 15, 27, 28, 16 and 40 yards, and he made all four of his conversion attempts.

And who or lose, the fans firmly believe that coach A.J. Davis has conducted a club that can hold its own with any team in the league.

The Raiders won three of their first four exhibition games with a rebuilt club that has shown signs of having championship potential.

Davis came to the Raiders from the Chargers, where he was a bright young assistant last season. His appointment was that he hoped to build a defense that would cut down some of the high scores in the American league.

Does Good Job So far, he has done a good job of that. His secondary has intercepted 12 passes and the scores generally have been a bit lower than in the past.

But the offense has been outstanding, too. Quarterbacks Cotton Davidson and Tom Flores have teamed to give the Raiders excellent direction. Between them they have completed 78 passes out of 158 tries for 1,161 yards.

The offensive line, says Davis, is good one. The anchor man is Jim Otto, the 240-pound star who has been in league every season he has been in the loop.

"We don't have enough talented athletes sprinkled in the lineup to make us a contender," says Davis. "But when we get to the draft next winter, maybe we can come away with the help we need."

Animals everywhere — a n i m a l s e v e r y w h e r e — should be protected.

With this slogan, the International Society for the Protection of Animals has challenged humanitarians of the world. At I.S.P.A.'s meeting held in Wiesbaden, Germany, in May, 1963, representatives were present from nearly 30 nations from Europe, America, Africa and Asia.

The former Kentucky All-American booted five field goals as the Steelers whipped Detroit Lions, 27-7, in a tuncup game before 23,781 fans Friday night at Detroit.

Glen Glass set up Pittsburgh's only touchdown—a one-yard plunge by John Henry Johnson—when he intercepted an Earl Morrall pass on the Lion 27 in the second period and ran it back to the nine-yard line. Morrall saved the Lions from a shutout by losing a 30-yard passing pass to Gail Coghill in the final period.

Dr. Albert Schweitzer writes: "When the cries of thirsty beasts from our railway cars die out unheard, when so much brutality prevails in our slaughter houses, when animals in laboratories suffer incredibly from merciless men or are turned over to the cruel play of children, we all bear the guilt for it. No one of us may permit any preventable pain to be inflicted, even though the responsibility for that pain is not ours. No one may shut his eyes and think that pain, which therefore is not visible to him, is non-existent."
