

Montague Couple Married

Montague — Miss Maxine Freitas, Hornbrook, eldest daughter of Mrs. Louis Freitas and the late Mr. Freitas, became the bride of Raymond Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brooks, Montague, in a recent ceremony at the Family Fellowship church. The Rev. Marjorie Brown officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Frank Freitas, the bride wore a white afternoon frock with a bouffant skirt and a finger-tip length veil of lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Diane Houston, Hornbrook, wore a blue flowered dress and a white cape. The groom's best man was Steven Beebe and guests were seated by Richard Umbarger, cousin of the bridegroom and Arthur Freitas, cousin of the bride. Guests were registered by Mrs. Gerald Brooks.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Sunday school room. Mrs. Bowen cut and served the cake and Mrs. Gerald Brooks poured the punch.

Guests included the bride's mother and Mrs. Minnie Barnes, Yreka, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Jack McMasters and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Houston, Hornbrook; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Umbarger and son Richard, Bend, Ore.

Methodist Rites Held

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Bailey (Baker photo)

Miss Mary Sue Chittlock became the bride of Kenneth W. Bailey in a candlelight ceremony held Friday, August 16 at First Methodist church, Medford. The Rev. Gerald Nelson, associate pastor, performed the double ring rites at 8 o'clock in the evening. Some 175 relatives and friends attended the wedding and reception.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Chittlock, 189 Vashi Way, Medford and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer W. Bailey, 667 Fifth avenue, Gold Hill. Both families are long time residents of southern Oregon.

Arrangements of pink and white gladioli in white baskets decorated the church for the wedding. White satin bows were used at the pew ends. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Leslie Boardman, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta fashioned with a long-sleeved Basque bodice and Sabrina neckline embroidered with pearls and sequins. The bouffant skirt was styled with a wide band of tulle inset across the front and on the hem-line on both sides.

Appliques of lace centered with pearls and sequins trimmed the tulle band, and the back of the skirt was designed with a chapel train defined with a tiered v-shaped insert of lace and tulle in alternating bands. A crown of matching lace and pearls held her finger-tip veil of handrolled silk illusion. She carried white orchids and Stephanotis on a white Bible.

Wear Crystalline
The bride's attendants wore similar bell-shaped dresses fashioned of pink crystalline, and their matching headpieces of single roses held floating veils. The matron of honor, Mrs. James Conger, carried white gladioli with pink ribbons. Miss Marybeth Ramsey, bridesmaid, and Mrs. Bill Boye, brides matron, had matching bouquets of pink gladioli with white ribbons. The attendants' pearl necklaces were gifts of the bride.

Candlelighters were Miss Connie Hanscom, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Linda Faber. They wore matching ivory dresses.

Clifford Smith, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man. Other attendants were Bill Boye and Wayne Newnam, friends of the bridegroom.

Ushers were cousins of the bridegroom, Delmar Smith, Gary Evans, Fred L. Baker, and Roger Genaw.

A reception given by the bride's parents was held in the social room of the church following the wedding ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. Chittlock selected a turquoise organza dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose a white silk sheath patterned with blue and pink flowers, and wore blue and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Grandmother Present
Mrs. Nina Dusenberry, Gold Hill, grandmother of the bridegroom, was among the guests. Attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bailey, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, Portland, and long time friends of the bridegroom's family, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Miller, Tacoma, Wash.

Mrs. Clifford Smith, and Mrs. Leon Offenbocher cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Lois Farlow poured coffee and Mrs. Bert Burns and Mrs. Donald Gettling presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Guy Parker kept the guest book and the Misses Sharon, Marlene and Beverly Wright, cousins of the bridegroom, took charge of the gifts.

Following a wedding trip to the Oregon Coast the newlyweds are living on Route 1, Central Point. For traveling the bride wore a white knit suit and white hat with navy blue accessories.

Prior to her marriage the bride resided at 568 Fifth avenue, Gold Hill. She was graduated from Grants Pass high school, Grants Pass, and is a file clerk for Security Insurance Agency, Medford.

The bridegroom was graduated from Crater High school, Central Point. He served a three year tour of duty with the U.S. Army; he was a specialist fourth class and served two years as a fireman at Eilson Air Force base, Alaska. After returning from the service he has donated his time to serve as an active member of the Gold Hill Volunteer Fire department. He is employed as fireman at the Veterans Administration Domiciliary at White City.

The bride was honored at four showers before her wedding.

Renelda Griffith

Betrothal News Is Made Known

Prospect — Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Griffith, Star Route, Box 235, Prospect, announce the engagement of their daughter, Renelda Charlene, to Brian H. Boothby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boothby, also Prospect.

A winter wedding is planned by the couple.

The bride-elect is a 1963 graduate of Prospect High school and is employed at Harry and David's Bear Creek orchard as a key punch operator.

Her fiance is a 1962 graduate of the same school and is a partner in the Prospect Richfield Service station.

Mothers Plan Dinner Session

The September meeting of the Mothers of Twins club will be a no-host dinner Thursday, September 5, at 8 p.m. at Ping's restaurant.

All mothers of twins are invited to attend. Information may be obtained by telephoning Mrs. Robert Lance, 664-3235.

Rhodes-Wilcox Ceremony Held in Friends Church

Central Point — Mr. and Mrs. Calvin R. Rhodes will make their home at Fort Bragg, N.C., following their marriage at Medford Friends church August 23.

The bride is the former Carol Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wilcox Jr., Route 1, box 526, Central Point. Mr. Rhodes is a son of Estella Rhodes, Central Point.

The Rev. Bruce Rhodes of the Trinity Baptist church officiated at the eight o'clock evening rites attended by 150 relatives and friends. White gladioli and gold chrysanthemums decorated the church. Maynard Hadley was soloist and Kenneth Raymond played the organ wedding music.

Wears Eglin
The bride wore a floor length gown of white satin fashioned with fitted bodice, scoop neckline and long sleeves. The slim skirt and two-pane train were accented with appliques of French embroidered roses. Her elbow length veil was held by a pill-box hat of matching satin and she carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums and a white orchid. Mr. Wilcox escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Miss Beth Wilcox was honor attendant for her sister and sang one song as the couple stood at the altar. Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Morlow, Medford, Miss Sharon Pfaff and Miss Joy Wilcox, another sister. They wore floor length gowns of crystalline and carried cascade bouquets of spider chrysanthemums. The honor attendant's gown was in gold and green and her flowers were gold colored. Two of the bridesmaids wore gold and one wore green, each carrying flowers of the other color.

Candlelighters were Peg and Lynn Alexander, Portland, cousins of the bride. They wore gold and green floral printed frocks of crystalline.

Philip Rhodes served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Buford Rhodes, David Wilcox, Joe Wilcox, Larry Olson and Garry Oldson.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony.

The newlywed couple left for Fort Bragg, N.C., the bride wearing for traveling a brown Italian silk suit with olive green accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended Crater High school and was employed as a secretary. The bridegroom, a private first class in the U. S. Army's special forces, also attended Crater High school. The couple plans to remain in the East until April.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin E. Rhodes, (Anders photo)

Swim Party Opens Fall Schedule for Chapter

A "winners" and "losers" swim party opened the fall sessions for Alpha Beta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi society. The event held August 27 was at the home of Mrs. Harris Ross, 2432 Edgemont drive.

A buffet dinner prepared by Mrs. Carol Waltermire was served to the winners, those members with perfect attendance records for the last year, by the losers.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Richard Card, president, of the second annual Yellow Rose ball September 7 in the Rogue Valley Country club.

Committee heads were announced during the meeting. Membership and pledge committee is headed by Mrs. Waltermire, chairman with Mrs. Lou Cranston, social.

Mrs. Ross, chairman, Mrs. Roy Foster and Mrs. Frank Grimes, program, Mrs. Norman Lankford, chairman, Mrs. Larry Anderson, ways and means, Mrs. Richard Schieferstein, chairman, Mrs. John Fowles and Mrs. Edwin Jones, calling, Mrs. James Teets, chairman, Mrs. Jack Goodman; welfare and service, Mrs. Eldon Johnson, chairman, Mrs. Michael Alexco, Mrs. Dennis Garcelon; publicity and a scrapbook, Mrs. Clinton Neely, and sunshine, Mrs. Richard Wager.

Ceremony At Church Weds Pair

Talent — Miss Audrey Fay Cutburth and Donald Carl McMillen were wed in 8 o'clock evening rites Wed August 24 in the Talent Methodist church. The Rev. Violet Bolliger performed the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Cutburth, 201 East Main street, Talent, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl McMillen, 3705 Table Rock road, Central Point.

Mrs. Cletus Moore, a sister of the bride, was her only attendant. Everett E. Culver, an uncle, gave her in marriage. She wore a blue-green linen sheath dress with white accessories and Mrs. Moore was dressed in a coral shift frock. Her accessories were white.

Willie Ray Moore, a brother-in-law of the bride was best man.

Miss Jan Stone was soloist and Mrs. W. M. Stone was organist. About 30 guests were at the wedding ceremony and some 20 were guests at the reception held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Ray Moore.

The bride attended Phoenix High school and the bridegroom attended Central Point schools and the Eagle Point High school. He is employed by Steve Wilson Lumber company.

They will live at 715 1/2 West Jackson street, Medford.

Pre-wedding events included a bridal shower given August 21 in the home of the bride's parents. Hostesses were Mrs. John Cletus and Mrs. Ray Moore. About 20 guests attended.

Jerry Yosts To Leave Soon For California

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Yost will leave the Rogue valley September 18 for Angwin, Calif., where he will resume studies at Pacific Union college after spending the summer in Medford.

The couple were married in late June in Roseburg Seventh-day Adventist church. Mrs. Yost, the former Bernadine Paulson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Paulson, of that city and Mr. Yost's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Yost, 1603 Jasmine avenue, Medford. The newlyweds have been living at 2052 Summit avenue.

Elder Duane Corwin, evangelist from Medford, officiated at the evening rites.

The bride wore a white sheath gown of silk organza with full overskirt. Her elbow length veil was held by a tiara of flowers.

Her attendants were Mrs. JoAnn McBroom, Loma Linda, Calif., Miss Beverly Paulson, Miss Nadine McCoy and Miss Elizabeth Bright.

Best man was Gerald Haeger and groomsmen were Gene Yost, brother of the bridegroom and Leonard Yost and Rudy Yost, cousins of the bridegroom. Seating the guests were Burrell Paulson, the bride's brother, Monte Swanburg, Charles Brainard, and Douglas Lockwood.

A reception followed at the YMCA reception hall.

Among the out of town guests attending were Ira Mooney, Rest Haven, British Columbia, great uncle of the bridegroom; and from Medford were Mrs. Bertha Trovillo and Mrs. Maud Yost, grandmothers of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Yost and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Fellows and family; Mrs. Forrest Bigger and family; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nations, Mrs. Brainard, Mr. and Mrs. Almon Archer and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cusic, Harold Hanson, Harvey Corwin, Michael Burrill and Mrs. Helen Bissegger, great aunt of the bridegroom.

Guests Visit Sharyon Home

Ashland — Week end guests at the home of Mrs. Angela Sharyon, 31 Gresham street, are her son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sharyon and five children, who are returning to Modesto, Calif., after vacationing for two months in New Hampshire at the summer home of Mrs. Sharyon's mother.

Miss Marcia Ackerman

Ackermans Tell Betrothal News

Eagle Point — Mr. and Mrs. Dale S. Ackerman, Route 1, Box 20, Eagle Point, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marcia Marcia, to William Claude Chase, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Chase, 5293 Table Rock road.

The wedding has been set for October 26.

Miss Ackerman was graduated from Eagle Point High school, and Mr. Chase from Crater High school.

Club Gives Novel Party

Medford Junior Women's club of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs entertained their husbands at a novel costume party, Saturday, August 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Grigsby Jr. Theme for the party was "Junior Hillbillies." Decorations were in the country style.

A social hour preceded the barbecue dinner. Dancing and folk singing accompanied the remainder of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Van Sickle, Portland, were guests. Mrs. William Clegg was chairman and assisting her were Mrs. Grigsby, Mrs. Keith Schulz, Mrs. William Sweet, Mrs. E. W. Ingram, Mrs. A. H. Schmechel and Mrs. F. D. Nelson.

Members are busy working on the social and appointment calendars which will be ready for sale by October 1. The chairman invites those interested to contact club members if they have information to be included on the calendar. General chairman is Mrs. William Sweet, 772-9862, and the inside pages chairman is Mrs. Nelson, 773-3577.

The first meeting of the fall will be September 11, at the home of Mrs. Walter Higgins, 2200 Oakwood drive. Assisting her will be Mrs. Clegg and Mrs. Reginald Dyer.

To say "with Love..."

... say it with REED & BARTON Sterling

The Star - The Lark

In Reed and Barton sterling bring a new concept and form to solid silver that lends grace and elegance to modern design. The slender, sweeping lines - the subtle arcs and shimmering facets - the nuances of light and shadow - all crystallize the finest qualities of our contemporary art.

Six-piece place settings $48.75 Federal tax included

Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced

MEDFORD, OREGON Registered Jeweler American Gem Society Phone 773-6206 209 E. Main

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howard Lanesen, whose wedding was an event of August 10 in Portland, are making their home there following a wedding trip to Canada. The bride is the former Miss Coraline Ann Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Richardson of that city. Mr. Lagesen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Haakon M. Lagesen, 845 Harmony Lane, Ashland. The bride is a teacher in the Portland Public school system; the bridegroom is a Junior accountant with the Yergen and Meyer Certified Public Accountant firm. (Bruce Lusader photo)

JUST ARRIVED!

Where you find the clothes you love to live in

A FABULOUS Camel Hair COSTUME BY Gilbert ORIGINALS

Three-piece costume suit, crisply contoured for your leaner, longer look... accented boldly in black... and of course, impeccably tailored in every finer detail.

Ours Exclusively

jean hart's

617 East Main Phone 772-8992

A wonderful way to start your new wardrobe for the fall season.