

Mr. and Mrs. David John Gaines

Grandfather Performs Nazarene Church Rites

Mr. and Mrs. David John Gaines, whose marriage was a recent event in First Church of the Nazarene, spent their honeymoon at Diamond Lake and now are living at Prospect.

The bride, the former Miss Susan Kay Krieger, is a daughter of Mrs. Leroy Krieger, 328 North Oakdale avenue, and the late Mr. Krieger.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Gaines, 2191 Kings highway.

The ceremony was performed August 16 at 8:30 o'clock in the evening by the bridegroom's grandfather, the Rev. James Dole. The bridegroom's parents and a brother and his wife had been married in the same church.

Jack Krieger, an uncle of the bride, traveled from Cheyenne, Wyo., to give her in marriage.

Empire Gown
The bride's floor length gown was of satin designed with empire waistline. A satin half collar with matching ruffles accented the neck of the gown. Her nylon tulle sleeves length and was held by a crown of matching material with clusters of pearls. The bridal bouquet was a white orchid with pink carnations and roses carried on a white ribbon.

Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don Cole and daughter, Patty, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dole, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom; their son, Keith, and Miss Joan Justice, all of Seattle, Calif.; Neal Clement, Inglewood, Calif., and Mrs. Lela Best and daughter, Karen, and Janet, Mrs. John Griffith and daughter, Renaida, and Rex Boothby, all of Prospect.

Two showers honored the bride-elect during the month preceding her marriage. One was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell, 847 Gilman road. About 40 guests attended. The other event was in the home of Mrs. Dale Fornbrook, 1833 Stratford way.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Medford High school. The bridegroom is employed by the Trail Creek Lumber company at Trail.

For the wedding trip the bride wore a light blue linen suit with white accessories and a white orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated the church and pew ends were marked with white bows.

About 100 guests attended the ceremony and the reception held in the church annex.

Mrs. Larry Sweet served the punch and Mrs. Roy Deutchman, a cousin of the bridegroom, poured the coffee. Mrs. Dale Fornbrook, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Norman Wilson cut the cake. Assisting the hostesses were Miss Kathy Shroyer, Hayward, Calif., a cousin of the bride, Miss Elaine Johnson, Central Point, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Mrs. William Staten, Miss Linda Taylor had charge of the guest book.

Pink and white gladioli decorated the reception table.

For her daughter's wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a gallant blue brocade sheath dress with matching hat and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a blue brocade and chiffon frock. Both had corsages of white carnations and pink roses.

Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Don Cole and daughter, Patty, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dole, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom; their son, Keith, and Miss Joan Justice, all of Seattle, Calif.; Neal Clement, Inglewood, Calif., and Mrs. Lela Best and daughter, Karen, and Janet, Mrs. John Griffith and daughter, Renaida, and Rex Boothby, all of Prospect.

Two showers honored the bride-elect during the month preceding her marriage. One was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell, 847 Gilman road. About 40 guests attended. The other event was in the home of Mrs. Dale Fornbrook, 1833 Stratford way.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Medford High school. The bridegroom is employed by the Trail Creek Lumber company at Trail.

For the wedding trip the bride wore a light blue linen suit with white accessories and a white orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

A reception held in the garden of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Durham, 134 Church street, August 27, celebrated the golden wedding anniversary of the couple. The Durham's sons and daughter and grandchildren began assembling several days before the celebration and a family reunion preceded the party for relatives and friends. (Locke photo)

Albert Durhams Observe Fiftieth Anniversary

Ashland—In a home wedding ceremony August 27, 1913 in Buffalo, Okla., Esta Cline became the bride of Albert L. Durham. Fifty years later in the garden of their Ashland home at 134 Church street they were guests of honor at an evening reception given by their children and grandchildren and attended by more than 100 friends.

All four of Mr. and Mrs. Durham's sons and their one daughter came home for the golden wedding anniversary and together with their families were hosts for the celebration. The reunion began more than a week before the August 27 date as four generations gathered in the home where the Durhams family has lived for almost 40 years. Some of the cousins were meeting for the first time and all were renewing old memories.

Acting as hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Durham, Vancouver, B.C.; Warrant Officer Meredith Durham who flew from Eglin Air Force Base in Florida; T/Sgt. Glenn Durham and Mrs. Durham, Fairchild Air Force Base, Spokane, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham, Phoenix, Ore., and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Apenes, Washington, D.C.

Grandchildren assisting at the reception were Stephen and Lela Durham, Spokane; Carl and Esta Apenes, Washington, D.C.; Diana and Connie Durham, Phoenix, and Mrs. Edward Perry of Lompoc with her husband and three children. A nephew of Mrs. Durham, Bob Cogis, was unable to arrive for the reception but with his wife and their son Gary drove to Ashland the following day en route to Albuquerque, N.M.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

Mr. and Mrs. Marian Shanks, married recently in Ashland, are making their home in Berkeley, Calif. Both will attend San Francisco State college this fall.

Pair Married In California

Montague—Mr. and Mrs. Marian Shanks are at home in Berkeley, Calif., following a honeymoon in Carmel and the Big Sur country. The bride is the former Miss Julie Townley, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Townley, ranchers in the Little Sierrita area.

The ceremony took place recently in the new Presbyterian church in Ashland, with the Rev. B. J. Holland officiating. Miss Townley attended school in Little Shasta, was graduated from Yreka High school and is at present a senior at San Francisco State college.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Shanks, Concord, Calif., is also studying at San Francisco, where he is preparing for a teaching career.

Auxiliary Plans Session Thursday
Crater Lake auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Sewing club will hold a noon potluck dinner Thursday, September 5, at the home of Mrs. Russel Zundel, Route 3, Box 122A, on Foothills road.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.

August 27 marked a triple celebration in the Durham family being also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Apenes and the thirtieth of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Durham.

Happy Camp PTA Will Open Fall Season This Week
Happy Camp—An explanation of two new classes to be taught for the first time in this area will be the main topic of discussion at the first fall meeting of the Happy Camp Parent Teacher association September 10 in the Grammar school multi-purpose room.

After a brief business meeting and introduction of this year's faculty, John Sugden, principal of the grade school, will speak on the new classes, the mixed class for fourth, fifth and sixth grade students and the class for retarded children.

Questions from those who attend will be invited. As a grand finale, Mrs. Hazel Davis will show a film she has composed of activities of the eighth grade during the past year.

A display of oldtime textbooks and those used today will be shown.

From sunset until after dark guests called to offer congratulations to the couple and to visit with the "clan." The arbor and lawn were lighted by Japanese lanterns and refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with a gold and white flower and fruit arrangement and tall gold candles. An elaborate cake in the shape of entwined hearts and wedding ring was the work of Mrs. Glenn Durham. Mrs.

Carl Froman assisted with the serving and the grandchildren were in charge of the guest book.

A chest filled with 50 golden coins was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Durham's children as was the white orchid which Mrs. Durham wore on her rose flowered voile dress. Also in the prevailing theme were plants and bouquets of flowers and congratulatory cards sent by friends and relatives.