

Dodgers Winners 5-3 To Take Series From SF 3 Games To 1

By MARTIN LADER
UPI Sports Writer

Like all good troopers, the Los Angeles Dodgers know when to change their act.

The Dodgers provided one of the biggest sports thrills of 1962 when they dispatched a healthy first place lead in the final week of the season and then blew the playoffs to the San Francisco Giants.

The performance received heavy nationwide publicity and was good for the box office. But a happier ending was being demanded by the Los Angeles customers this year.

And it looks like they're going to get it.

The Dodgers trapped the Giants in a deadly bear hug before an appreciative audience during the week end and shook most of the remaining life out of the defending champions. They completed the job Sunday with a 5-3 decision to win the big series, three games to one, and knock San Francisco back to third place, 7 1/2 games off the pace.

Moon Raps Double

A two-run double by pinch-hitter Wally Moon in the eighth inning was the crucial blow to the Dodgers, who went into the frame trailing, 3-2. Moon carried the final run across on Ron Fairly's pinch-hit single.

Veteran Johnny Podres, making his first relief appearance since 1961, turned back the Giants in the ninth inning after he had touched young Dick Calmus for two singles. Calmus gained credit for his third victory in four decisions.

Harvey Kuenn had sent the Giants ahead in the seventh with a home run, but starter Billy O'Dell and relievers Don Larsen and Billy Hoelt were unable to hold the lead in the eighth. Larsen was charged with the loss.

The game drew a crowd of 54,263 for a four-game total of 218,948.

Cards Stop Phils

In other contests, the second place St. Louis Cardinals remained six games behind Los Angeles by beating the Philadelphia Phillies, 7-3; the Pittsburgh Pirates tripped the Cincinnati Reds, 6-4; the New York Mets outlasted the Milwaukee Braves, 6-4, in 16 innings; and the Chicago Cubs nipped the Houston Colts, 4-3.

Curt Simmons threw a six-hitter for the Cards and helped his own cause with a triple and a steal of home. It was the 12th time Simmons has beaten the Phils against two reversals since they traded him. Ken Boyer hit his 20th homer for the Cards in the fifth inning.

A grand slam home run by Bill Virdon with two out in the ninth inning carried reliever Earl Francis to his fourth triumph for the Pirates. Leo Cardenas hit a three-run homer for the Reds in the second inning.

Tim Harkness slammed a two-run circuit in the 16th inning to end a four-hour and 33-minute marathon at New York. Larry Bearnarth, who pitched scoreless ball for the last seven innings, won his third game against six losses. Bob Tiefenauer was the hard-luck loser for the Braves.

Ron Santo's ninth-inning double drove in the decisive run for Chicago and provided Lindy McDaniel with his 10th victory in 15 decisions. John

Tom Tresh Knocks Switch Hit Homers To Spark Yankees

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Mike's kid has turned out to be quite a man.

Mike's kid is 24-year-old Tom Tresh, son of former Chicago White Sox catcher Mike Tresh, who was a "plugger" for 12 years in the big leagues and always paid his way into the World Series.

Old Mike had the great thrill in 1962 of seeing his boy win a job with the New York Yankees, win American league rookie-of-the-year honors and star in the World Series.

And this year he's having the even bigger thrill of seeing Tom solidify his position as a big leaguer by filling the seven-league boots of no less a star than Mickey Mantle, $100,000-a-year slugger of the perennial world champions.

It's a cakewalk for the Yankees again this year, of course, and few players can claim greater credit than Tresh, who switched from shortstop, where he earned his spurs as a rookie last season, to center field, where he followed in the footsteps of Mantle, Joe DiMaggio and Earl Combs.

Hits Two Homers

Tresh borrowed a page from Mantle's book of heroics Sunday when he hit two homers — one right-handed and one left-handed — to lead the Yankees to a 5-4 victory over the Baltimore Orioles. Tom's second homer of the game came off Dick Hall in the eighth inning and gave relief pitcher Tom Metcalf his first major league triumph. The blow followed a two-run homer by pinch-hitting Mantle that cut the score to 4-3.

The game enabled the Yankees to retain their 12-game margin over the Chicago White Sox, who topped the Minnesota Twins, 8-3.

The Cleveland Indians swept a doubleheader from the Detroit Tigers, 6-3 and 3-1. The Boston Red Sox shaded the Washington Senators, 4-3, in 10 innings and the Kansas City Athletics downed the Los Angeles Angels 7-6, in other American League games.

Landis Heads Sox

Jim Landis led an 11-hit attack with a double and a three-run homer as the White Sox dealt the Twins a second straight loss and presented Hoyt Wilhelm with his fourth win of the season. Earl Battey homered for the Twins, whose Bill Dailey dropped his third decision.

Dick Donovan won his 11th game and Pedro Ramos his seventh in the Indians' sweep of the Tigers. Mike De La Hoz hit a grand slam homer in the first inning to spark the Indians to their first game triumph and Woodie Held had a double and a homer to lead the Tribe's 10-hit attack in the nightcap.

Relief ace Dick Radatz posted his 14th win of the season and completed the circuit of beating every team in the league at least once when Eddie Bressoud snapped a 3-3 tie

Tacoma's Thomas Hurls No-Hitter

Like the San Francisco Giants expect to rebuild their pitching staff next year, they could do well in giving young Gerry Thomas a long, hard look.

The 24-year-old righthander from Sycamore, Ill., pitched the Pacific Coast league's third no-hit, no-run game of the season Sunday, stopping the Denver Bears, 1-0, for Tacoma in the second game of a doubleheader.

Thomas, on the parent San Francisco club's roster last spring, and Denver's Dennis Ribant battled head-to-head from the start. The Giants gave Thomas, a sturdy, 6-3, 220-pound righthander all the support he needed in the second inning when they scored the game's only run. A double by Bobby Amalfitano, an infield hit by Joe Amalfitano and a sacrifice fly by Gil Sparks produced the run.

Thomas, in boosting his record to 15-12, struck out five batters in the seven-inning game and walked two. But one of the two was thrown out on an attempted steal.

The victory gave the Giants a sweep. In the opener, Amalfitano slapped a three-run homer as Tacoma gained a 12-5 victory.

Indians Clinch Title

With the northern division race already settled in favor of the Spokane Indians, the only interest left is the three-way battle for the southern division title between Oklahoma City, San Diego and Dallas-Ft. Worth. Oklahoma City currently leads the race, two games in front of San Diego and three over Dallas-Ft. Worth.

Spokane clinched the northern title on Saturday and will meet the winner of the southern title in a best-of-seven series starting on Sept. 10 to decide the league championship.

San Diego took two from Seattle Sunday, 2-1 and 9-3; Oklahoma City edged Hawaii, 5-4; Spokane shaded Portland, 4-2, and Dallas-Ft. Worth split with Salt Lake City, winning the opener, 5-4, and dropping the nightcap, 8-1.

Long Beach Legion Ball Champion

Keene, N.H. —(UPI)— Long Beach, Calif., staged off a ninth inning rally to defeat Memphis, Tenn., 5-4, in the final game of the American Legion Little World Series Sunday.

The victory gave the champions a 5-0 series record and an overall season mark of 29-4. Memphis, which came into the series undefeated, wound up the series 3-2 for a season record of 35-2.

The Roseburg, Ore., entry in the series lost its first two games.

Ramblers Gain Softball Finals

Portland —(UPI)— The McKee Ramblers of Beaverton can defend their Northwest regional men's softball championship tonight.

The Ramblers, undefeated in the nine-team, double-elimination tournament, meet the winner of a losers' bracket game today between the once-beaten Salem Vandervort Builders and Seattle's Kansas TV City.

If McKee is beaten in the game, a second contest will follow immediately.

The Ramblers defeated the Builders 1-0 Saturday and topped TV City 2-0 Sunday.

LA Dodgers Go Against Colts In Doublebill

By JOE ST. AMANT

Los Angeles —(UPI)— The Los Angeles Dodgers have their back today but there's no rest for the league leaders.

With only 28 games to play, the Dodgers are a shoo-in for the pennant even if they play only 500 ball.

The magic number for the Dodgers is 22 — any combination of wins and losses totaling that amount will give them the flag.

The concluded four game series with the Giants was a huge financial success — for both teams.

Over 2,000,000

Each of the games drew more than 54,000 fans. The crowd Sunday was 54,263. Attendance for the series was 218,948. The Dodgers went over the two-million mark for the fourth time since they emigrated from Brooklyn in 1958. Season's home attendance is 2,131,648.

Alston named Sandy Koufax, 20-5, to start the first game of a Labor Day doubleheader against the Houston Colts this afternoon.

In the second game, he was undecided between Calmus and Podres.

The Colts sent word they would use Dick Farrell, 10-11, a former Dodger and always a tough one for them, and Chris Zachary, 0-1.

The Giants' loss to the Dodgers Sunday left the San Francisco players a bit glum, but manager Alvin Dark said, "The season isn't over — we'll keep trying. The Dodgers just 'out-bullpened' us."

Archer Blower Defeats Studs

Portland —(UPI)— Archer Blower of Portland edged the Seattle Cheney Studs 3-2 in the first game of a best-of-three series for the American Amateur Baseball Congress Northwest regional tournament championship Sunday night.

The Portland team, defending national AAAC champion, and the Cheney Studs met again tonight to decide the representative of the region in the national tourney at Battle Creek, Mich., this month.

Gordon Rise allowed eight hits in pitching Archer Blower to his victory. Dave Razwick was the losing pitcher.

METS RECALL PLAYERS

New York —(UPI)— The New York Mets have ordered six players from the Buffalo Bisons to report for the clearing house of the National League season. They include pitchers Greg Anderson and Steve Dill; catcher Chris Casanova; first baseman Ed Kraeppe; infielder Pumpsie Green and outfielder Dick Smith.

HOLDS DOUBLE DRILLS

University Park, Pa. —(UPI)— Coach Rip Engle, disappointed in the physical condition of the 61 candidates who reported for the Penn State football team, initiated a series of two-a-day workouts today.

Crater Comets Go Back To Hard Work Tonight

Central Point —(UPI)— We might surprise a few people," Head Coach Keith Johnson remarked after a week of football drills at Crater High school.

The Comets go back to hard work this evening after having yesterday off. Players went through intense activity for 30 minutes of their drill on Friday. Saturday evening Johnson had just a dozen or so of his specialists on hand.

Workouts have been "kinda slow," said Johnson, "but we're plugging along."

The mentor said that "we're pushing offense this week." The aim is to get the line and the backs to work together. Offensive blocking had much attention in last week's drills. Work was mostly in groups. Now, the objective is to put those lessons into team effort.

Push Conditioning

"We are really pushing for the conditioning," Johnson further stated. He reported that turnouts have been real good, running from 50 to 55 players. The squad has been split with some 30 working as the varsity and the others as jayvees.

An intrasquad scrimmage is billed for next Saturday at 8 p. m.

Backs Darryl Summerfield and Vern Swanson "are doing the good job which we anticipated," according to the coach. End Bob Turner and guard Ross Burd are working well in drills. Burd, a good blocker, makes a good line combine with

Bears Cinch Second Half NW Flag

By United Press International

The Yakima Bears Sunday night clinched the second half championship in the Northwest league by trimming Wenatchee 8-5 in the first game of a baseball doubleheader.

Wenatchee won the nightcap 6-5 but the first game was the big one for the Bears.

Yakima earned the right to tangle with Lewiston, the first half champion, in a best-of-five series for the league title. The playoff series opens Tuesday night at Lewiston and the first two games will be played there. The remainder of the series will be played at Yakima.

Regular season play ends tonight with a full slate of doubleheaders.

In other action Sunday night, Salem topped Eugene 4-2 and 12-8 and Lewiston divided a pair with Tri-City. The Broncos won the opener 4-3 but the Angels took the second contest 6-5.

Winning pitcher Hud Gelein and Rafael Gomez homered for the Bears to lead the way in the game that locked up the title. Phil Borders homered with two-on in the seventh inning to give Wenatchee its win in the second game.

A three-run round tripper by catcher Gordon MacKenzie provided Lewiston with its win in the opener and Tri-City grabbed off the nightcap by exploding for five runs in the first inning.

Terry Barber and Dick Kaimes each went the route on the mound for Salem to pace the Dodgers to their wins.

Chargers Show Best Pre-League Record

United Press International

Rose Bowl hero Ron Vonderkelen made his first start for the Vikings and had a rough time, completing only 4 of 13 passes for 24 yards. Opposing quarterback Sonny Jurgenson clicked on 18 of 48 aerials for 279 yards and three touchdowns.

Jim Brown, held to a mere 28 yards in the first half, gained 77 in the second and plunged for one touchdown in leading the Browns to victory while Charley Johnson's two touchdowns fired the Cardinals to their come-from-behind triumph over the Bears.

The New York Giants and the Green Bay Packers, defending champions of the NFL, wind up the holiday action when they tangle at Milwaukee today in a replay of their 1962 playoff game.

Baker in Action Three Quarters

Los Angeles —(UPI)— Quarterback Terry Baker played three quarters of the game Saturday night as his Los Angeles Rams dropped a 23-14 decision to the Cleveland Browns before 45,623 fans.

Baker threw a 31-yard touchdown pass to end Jim Phillips, completed 6 of 14 attempts for 99 yards and had one pass intercepted. Roman Gabriel, who took over at quarterback for the Rams in the final period had 7 of 13 passes for 85 yards. Gabriel scored a touchdown on a 2-yard run.

SOUTHERN 500 RUN

Darling, S. C. —(UPI)— Forty-one drivers shoot for nearly $100,000 in prize money in the 14th annual running of the Southern 500, granddaddy of stock car races. Freddie Lorenzen of Elmhorst, Ill., sat on the pole position in a 1963 Ford, shooting for a victory that would push his winnings for the year past $100,000.

Giants Tussle Chicago Cubs

San Francisco —(UPI)— The San Francisco Giants, their hopes to overhaul the front-running Los Angeles Dodgers all but dashed during the week end, met the Chicago Cubs in a holiday doubleheader at Candlestick Park today.

With first place in the National league race all but out of reach for the Giants, they took dead aim on the runnerup spot today. The Giants lost to the Dodgers, 5-3, Sunday to fall 7 1/2 games off the pace. The second-place St. Louis Cardinals, meanwhile, downed the Philadelphia Phillies, 7-3, to remain six games behind the Dodgers.

Bob Bolin (8-4) and Jack Fisher (6-9) were San Francisco manager Al Dark's pitching selections for today's twinbill. The Cubs were expected to counter with Dick Ellsworth (19-7) and Paul Toth (5-9).

Prothro Greets 51 OSU Gridders

Corvallis —(UPI)— Coach Tommy Prothro greeted a squad of 51 players on a special bus which arrived in Corvallis yesterday from the University of Oregon.

Prothro's returnees included junior Gordon Queen, who is rated as the top candidate to replace graduated All-American and Heisman Trophy-winner Terry Baker as quarterback for the Beavers.
