

1957 Award of Merit Winner

CHURCH NEWS

National Religious Publicity Council

Methodist Minister Returns to Pulpit

Dr. George Roseberry will return to the pulpit at First Methodist church Sunday at both morning worship services. He will preach on "The Mission of the Church."

Miss Julie Gandt, soloist, will sing "My Heart Ever Faithful" by Bach at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services. The youth choir will sing "The Christian Battle" at 9:30 a.m. and the chancel choir will sing "Praise Ye The Lord" by Saint-Saens at 11 a.m. Gary Lovre will direct both choirs.

The Senior High Methodist Youth Fellowship is sponsoring an all-church waffle breakfast Sunday from 8 to 9:15 a.m. Everyone is invited to attend and have breakfast before Sunday school or the 9:30 a.m. worship service. Tickets will be sold at the door or may be purchased from an MYF'er or at the church office.

At 7:30 p.m. the commission on membership and evangelism will sponsor a colored movie on "The Life of John Wesley."

Peter Sage and Larry Duysen have charge of devotions for the Junior High MYF at 6:30 p.m. Bob Allen has the program for the Senior High MYF at 6:30 p.m. Both groups will join in viewing the film.

The board of trustees will meet Tuesday at 7 a.m. at the Town House cafe for breakfast.

The Shipmates class will have as their guests the members of the Homemakers' class on Friday at a potluck dinner in Wesley hall.

The Senior High MYF group will go to Eugene Friday afternoon and Saturday for the Fall District Assembly of the Eugene and Salem Districts Methodist Youth Fellowships.

EVANGELIST TOM FAIR Series Speaker

Evangelistic Meetings Scheduled at 1st Baptist

Evangelist Tom Fair, Portland, will begin a series of evangelistic meetings at the First Baptist church Sunday and continuing through Sept. 20. Besides the Sunday services there will be meetings every evening except Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

Evangelist Fair was born in Tennessee and was once a radio and stage entertainer with a name band and radio program of his own. He was also a logger and sawmill superintendent in the mid-Willamette area of Oregon for several years and then an eastern Oregon rancher. He plays the guitar and sings in his services. Tom and his wife, Eva, were converted to Christ in the First Baptist church, Bend, following the death of their young son in an accident.

During the past year he has held meetings in nine states, the Philippine Islands and Japan. This is the third time he has held meetings in the First Baptist church here. Mrs. Fair plays the organ for the services.

Sunday at 11 a.m. the chapel choir will sing for the service as well as the girl's trio. At the 7:30 p.m. service music will include a trumpet trio, Mrs. Carol Morris will play the violin and the Rev. Byron Evans will sing. There will be musical numbers each evening. All regular activities of the church are cancelled for this week of meetings.

Two Churches List Activities for Sunday and Week

Central Point — "Christian Education" will be the theme Sunday at the Central Point Presbyterian church, during the entire service, which begins at 11 a.m. Church school promotion certificates will be presented and the class of children entering the fourth grade will receive Bibles. The Rev. Donald Drug, pastor, will speak of the contribution made by the church school teachers and the Christian education staff.

The choir, directed by Mrs. Arthur Schafroth, will sing "Come, Christians, Join to Sing." A coffee-fellowship follows the worship service.

The Men's club of the church will meet for breakfast at 8 a.m. Sunday. Franklin Gebhard, president, announces that Dr. Krug will talk about "The Witness of the Laymen."

At 7 p.m. the Senior and Junior High will meet to view and discuss a film on "The Bible," then will adjourn to the Harsh home at 154 South Fourth st. for refreshments.

The second of five classes in church membership will meet during the week. For young people it is held Sunday at 6 p.m., and for adults on Wednesday, Sept. 11, at 7:30 p.m.

Looking ahead, Dr. Alvin Roberts, who has recently returned from a year in the Presbyterian Mission hospital at Hamadan, Iran, will speak to the Central Point church, Sunday, Sept. 15. Jacksonville — "The Compound Nature of the Christians" is the topic of the sermon to be given by the pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service.

The guest-organist for the service will be Alan Collins, an entering student at Hedrick Junior High school this fall.

Sunday at 4 p.m. the second of a series of four new members' classes will be held. These classes are designated to acquaint interested persons with the nature and beliefs of our church.

Membership Class to Start

"The Holy Spirit in Christian Education" is the sermon topic chosen for Sunday's two services at St. Peter's Lutheran church, 1029 East Main st., by the pastor, the Rev. John E. Simon. The services begin at 8:15 and 11 a.m. The church school begins at 9:30 a.m.

Another adult membership class, taught by Pastor Simon, will be organized Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. It will meet in the church's basement auditorium. Mr. Simon will illustrate his lessons by the use of color filmstrips. The class will continue for approximately 15 evenings. The subject matter will include studying of the basic teachings of the Bible as well as their practical applications for today. Anyone may attend.

St. Peter's kindergarten, one of the oldest pre-school educational efforts in the Rogue River valley, will open its doors to five-year old boys and girls Thursday at 9 a.m. As in the past years the school term will run for eight and one-half months, and the daily sessions will close at noon. Mrs. Emil Tams will again serve as teacher. Registration has been set for the previous morning, Wednesday, from 9 a.m. to noon. The kindergarten will have room for several additional children, according to Pastor Simon.

Both boys' and girls' confirmation classes will meet for the first time on Saturday at 10 a.m. Mrs. Norman Jahn, graduate of Concordia Teachers' college, Seward, Neb., will teach the seventh grade class. Pastor Simon will teach the eighth graders and any other older youths who wish to be confirmed, and thus become communicant members of the church some time next spring.

Stewardship Emphasis to Continue at 1st Nazarene

Following the "stewardship" emphasis and under the general heading of "Tithing Puts God First," the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, will speak Sunday at 11 a.m. on the subject, "To Use For Him."

Wayne Larson, Young People's society president for the local church, 520 North Holly st., will give a four-minute talk on "Why I Tithed."

According to Perry Christian, minister of education and music, the organist of the morning will be Ethel Kornstad and the soloist will be Mrs. William Brewster. The sanctuary choir, which begins its fall schedule, will sing "Spirit of God, Descend Upon My Heart."

During the Sunday 7 p.m. evangelistic service along with the singing of the evangel choir there will be a girl's trio, members of which are Doris Young, Evelyn Young, and Leah Weaver. Mr. and Mrs. Christiansen will sing a duet.

The pastor's message for the service will be on "Standing Against the Tide." The four-minute testimony on "Why I Tithed" will be given by Loyd Arnold, chairman of the board of trustees.

The valley Churches of the Nazarene will meet for a district rally, Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in which they will receive a touring party led by Dr. W. D. McGraw, district superintendent for the denomination. Departmental leaders will speak at the rally.

As a part of the stewardship emphasis in the local church an all-church fellowship dinner is to be held at 6:30 p.m. in the activity building. A film-strip is to be presented entitled, "This Is Your Church." Along with music and lay-testimonies on

Minister of Youth Arrives in Medford

Medford Friends church, 467 DeBarr ave., at Merriman rd., announces the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Antrim, Nampa, Idaho, as minister to youth for the Medford Quakers. For the past six years, Mr. Antrim was director of youth for Christ in Boise Valley, Idaho, and active in youth work in the Nampa Friends church.

He will work full time with the Medford Friends meeting as administrator of the youth program for those of Junior High age through college. His first responsibilities were at the short summer camp at the Friends Fir Point camp near Glendale, last week, which 43 teen-agers from the Medford church attended. Mr. and Mrs. Antrim will direct Christian Endeavor activities, Sunday school, social life, Bible study, athletic programs, orchestras, hobby clubs and leadership training. Medford Friends have around 100 in the youth department at the present time.

The Antrim's have four children and are temporarily renting a house in Central Point. Mrs. Antrim is a pianist and organist.

Bible History Teacher to Speak

Sunday at Eastwood Baptist church, the pastor, the Rev. Clifford J. Young, will be with a group of laymen at the Laymen's conference at Arrah Wana, American Baptist camp near Mt. Hood.

In his absence, Mrs. Vera Steele of the Jackson County Board of Christian Education will present to the church the Bible history teaching program. At the Sunday evening service a layman from Grants Pass will speak.

Monday, Sept. 9, the board of Christian education will meet.

At the mid-week service of Sept. 11 the pastor will conclude the study of II Corinthians. The chancel choir resumes rehearsals on Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 11, the board of trustees will meet.

Medical Illustrator To Deliver Message

Herb Hunter, medical illustrator, formerly with the University of Illinois and the University of Minnesota medical schools, will give an illustrated message Sunday at the 8 p.m. service of Trinity Baptist church. His subject will be "Surgery and the Great Physician."

A communion service will be held during the 11 a.m. worship hour. Pastor Bruce O. Rogers will speak on "The Woman Who Couldn't Forget." This will be the concluding message in his series, "Little Known Bible People." New members will be officially received by the church at this service.

Trinity Baptist church is located at Griffin Creek and South Stage rds.

TRAIL SERVICES — Evangelist James J. Thompson will conduct a series of nightly services at Trail Community church, from Sunday through Friday, Sept. 20. The services will begin at 7:45 p.m. with the Sunday services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Pastor of the church is the Rev. John S. Kisse.

Methodist Church Changes Schedule

Services at St. Luke's Methodist church, 2320 Siskiyou Blvd., will revert to the fall schedule Sunday, it has been announced by the Rev. Charles R. McDonald. Church school will be at 9:45 a.m. and the worship at 11 a.m.

Mr. McDonald will speak on "God's Mission and You" at the 11 a.m. service.

Presbyterians List Sermons, Sunday Music

"Christ's Death a Proof of God's Love" will be the subject of the sermon delivered by Dr. D. Kirkland West at the First Presbyterian church Sunday. This is the second sermon in a series on Romans.

John Frohnmayer will sing, "Lord God of Israel" by Mendelssohn for both the 9:30 and the 11 a.m. services. The senior high choir will sing, "Create in Me a Clean Heart, O God" for the 9:30 a.m. service and the chancel choir will present, "Lead Me, Lord" for the anthem at 11 a.m.

At 7 p.m. Sunday Senior High Fellowship will meet at the church for a talk by Carolyn Denyer on the migrant worker. Fireside will follow at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. David Brown. Wednesday night they will meet at the church at 5 p.m. for choir practice, followed by a potluck dinner.

Mrs. Rita Miller will conduct a study of Romans 6 at the church Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Thursday noon the Presbyterian Men will meet for their regular luncheon and talk by Dr. West.

Westminster Presbyterian church will return to its regular worship hour of 11 a.m. Sunday to mark the end of summer and the beginning of the fall church year.

The Rev. John O. Reynolds will preach on the subject "Where Do We Begin?" and the church choir, under the direction of Mrs. Harvey Field, will sing, "Bill Wilson is the church organist."

Church school classes also will revert to their regular time of 9:45 a.m. and Promotion Sunday will be observed when each child will advance a grade. There are classes for all ages from nursery three-year-olds through adult and new pupils are always welcome. The adult class, led by Mr. Reynolds, concludes its study of "The Psalms and the Gospels."

The Senior High Fellowship will meet at the church Sunday at 7 p.m. to discuss "Highlights of the Summer." Fireside will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Laurel Case, 31 Glen Oak ct.

A Christian Education retreat will be held at the church Thursday, Sept. 12, from 7 to 10 p.m. The Rev. Donald Krug, pastor of the Central Point Presbyterian church, will be the guest speaker and there will be workshops for every age-level group. Mrs. Ted Bars is the incoming superintendent of the church school and she will be assisted in her duties by Mrs. S. V. McQueen.

Westminster church is located on Oakwood rd. between Barneburg and Groveland aves.

'The Best of You' Is Topic of Sermon

The sermon to be preached by the Rev. Harvey C. Covert at the Sunday worship service, 9:30 a.m. at Zion Lutheran church, Fourth st. and Oakdale ave., will be entitled "The Best of You For a Better Tomorrow."

The Sunday school will meet at 9:30 a.m. Children in the primary department will attend the opening worship service of the church and will then be dismissed for their class study.

The Sunday school teachers and staff will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Fireside room of the church. Final plans for Promotion Sunday, Sept. 29, will be made.

The senior choir will meet at the church at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday for the first rehearsal of the fall season.

'Progress of Unity' Is Program Topic

"What Progress is being made toward unity among the Churches" is the topic for discussion on Minister's Roundtable this week end. The program will be broadcast on KMED-TV at 10 a.m. Saturday and on KMED radio at 8 a.m. Sunday.

The panel members will be Dr. Kirkland West, First Presbyterian church, Medford; the Rev. Norman Norstrup, First Christian church, Medford, and Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, First Methodist church, Ashland.

The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the Congregational church of Medford, will serve as moderator.

EVANGELIST R. R. WILEY Here From North Dakota

Evangelist To Hold Campaign

Evangelist and Mrs. Raymond R. Wiley and sons Weston and Ramon, Fargo, N. D., arrived in Medford today preparatory to starting a two-week evangelistic campaign at First Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st., Sunday at 11 a.m.

The Rev. R. E. Cull, pastor, stated that a service on Sunday at 7:30 p.m. will be followed by evening services Tuesday through Friday. Music consisting of vocal duets and solos will be presented by members of the evangelistic party who have been active also in pastoral and radio assignments in the North Dakota district of Assemblies of God.

Mr. Wiley will preach at each service, emphasizing the "old time Gospel" along the lines of faith and prophecy with messages for all ages.

Saturday, Sept. 7, at 7:45 p.m. the Men's Fellowship of the church will hold its monthly meeting in the Fireside room of the annex. Evan E. Rasmussen, president, has arranged a program which will be presented following evening devotions. Refreshments will be served.

Lessons in Truth Week Observed by Unity Here

A week of prayer and study known as "Lessons in Truth Week" will be observed in Unity throughout the world, Sept. 9 through 15.

This will be observed in the Unity church of Medford, Holly and Haven sts., daily, Monday through Friday, noon to 12:30 p.m. "Lessons in Truth Week" has been observed for more than 30 years in Unity. It is written in ten languages and braille. Study guides may be obtained at the Unity church or the Unity center, 3777 Jacksonville highway.

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth will return to her pulpit after a Sunday's absence, spent as guest speaker for the Unity church in Eugene.

The subject of her lesson at the 11:15 a.m. Sunday service will be "Harvest Your Good Now." The text is taken from John 4:35.

Miss Sandra Myers will be at the organ. Mrs. Richard A. Schuchard will sing "I Will Live Up Mine Eyes Unto the Hills." Church school begins at 9:45 a.m. with classes for all age groups.

On Teaching Staff — Mrs. Gilbert Betancourt, Ashland, who recently came here from California, has been added to the Unity center teaching staff. Mrs. Betancourt was an associate teacher in several Unity centers in California.

The board of directors will meet Monday, Sept. 9, at 7 p.m. at the Unity center, 3777 Jacksonville highway.

The prayer ministry will meet Wednesday, Sept. 11 at

ST. LUKE'S METHODIST CHURCH
Rev. Charles R. McDonald
Pastor

CHURCH SCHOOL
9:45 A.M.

CHURCH
11:00 A.M.

2940 SISKIYOU Blvd.

Executive Secretary of Council To Be Speaker

The Rev. George Dick, executive secretary of the Oregon Council of Churches, will be the guest speaker of the First Christian church Sunday morning.

At the first service the carillon choir will sing Mendelssohn's "Cast Thy Burden Upon the Lord." The chancel choir will sing "A Prayer for Wisdom" at the 11 a.m. service.

Mrs. Clyde Sturgill, Mrs. Mabel Buchanan and Mrs. Bessie Goff will be hostesses for the coffee hour.

Church school classes are held at the same hours as the worship services: 9:30 and 11 a.m. A recently organized adult group meets for study with the minister, the Rev. Frederick Ross Evans, at 8:30 a.m. They are studying the Gospel of John.

The Loyal Workers class will have a picnic at TouVelle park Sunday after the church services.

The Chi Rho fellowship will meet at the church at 5 p.m. and go to TouVelle park for their study and recreation. Officers for the coming six months will be installed.

A discussion on war and peace will be led by Kathy Taylor when the Middlers Fellowship meets at 6 p.m.

Carol Monia will lead the study for the Christian Youth Fellowship meeting at 6 p.m. and Pat Farrier will give the devotions.

The official church board meeting scheduled for Tuesday has been changed to Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the church.

Congregational Begins Fall Program Sunday

The Congregational church will begin its fall program Sunday. The service of worship will return to the 11 a.m. hour and the church school will again offer a full schedule of classes for children through sixth grade during the worship hour.

Again this fall the church will meet in Hoover Grade school on Siskiyou Blvd. It is anticipated that construction of a new sanctuary and educational unit at the corner of East Jackson st. and Berkeley way will begin in about a month.

The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the church, will preach a sermon Sunday entitled "The Dream of a Church."

Church school arrangements are: Children younger than three years of age will be cared for in the school health room; three, four and five year olds in the school band room; primary, lower junior, and junior classes, school cafeteria.

Junior and senior high young people are invited to attend the church service.

The regular monthly business meetings of the church will be held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Henselman, 2108 Woodlawn dr. The board of trustees and the diaconate will meet at 7:30 p.m. The church council will convene at 8:30 p.m.

Wednesday the choir will have its first rehearsal of the fall at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. u a n e Richardson, 749 West 11th st. The choir is open to all youth and adults and will continue under the direction of Charles F. Martin, director of music in the public schools of Eagle Point.

Also on Wednesday at 8 p.m., a meeting of those interested in joining the church this fall will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gatewood G. Smith, 755 West Tenth st. Mr. Tull will be present to answer questions about the church and to discuss its life, faith and future.

Christian Science Lesson Announced

Mankind's dependence on the Ten Commandments will be emphasized at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windsor ave., Sunday at the 11 a.m. service.

Subject of the Bible lesson is "Man" with the text from Psalm 121:1.

Young people up to the age of 20 are invited to attend Sunday school. All are invited to the services.

SUNDAY SERVICES — Mr. Jean M. Shelley, minister of East Side Church of Christ, 132 Vancouver ave., will speak at the 10:45 a.m. worship service Sunday. The 7 p.m. service will include a lesson study on II Corinthians 6.

ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT — John Heberling, minister of Central Church of Christ and president of the Medford Ministerial association, will preside at the first fall meeting of the association Tuesday, Sept. 10, at First Christian church, 1900 Crater Lake ave. The meeting, open to ministers and pastors of all churches and faiths, will start at 9:30 a.m. with a coffee hour to be followed by a program and business meeting. (Knackstedt photo)

Concord Chapel Sermon Announced

Gold Hill — The address at Concord Spiritualist chapel will be given by the Rev. Elvina Colburn, pastor Sunday at 8 p.m. Mrs. Colburn will be assisted during the services by Sidney Jones, Miss Susan Show, Mrs. Helen Bush, and Robert Routh. Any interested person may attend the service.

Mrs. Colburn will be responsible for the music for the chapel during the absence of Mrs. Bianca Corona. Miss Carol McCall will play the clarinet. Mrs. Colburn will play the piano, organ, and solo.

Later this month the Rev. Floyd Humble, Los Angeles, Calif., nationally known speaker and medium, will visit the chapel.

Other activities during September will include presentation of the charter for Concord Spiritualist chapel.

Zion Lutheran to Winter Schedule

Ascension Lutheran church, 2617 Barnett rd., returns to the winter schedule Sunday with Sunday school for all classes at 9:30 a.m. and services at 11 a.m.

Teachers have been contacted for all classes from three year olds through high school. Art Phillips is superintendent and Mrs. E. E. a n o r Briggs is assistant.

Sunday evening Luther Leaguers will have a barbecue supper at Jim Ristau's, 144 S. Keene Way. A social evening to welcome new members is planned. Mr. and Mrs. Ristau and Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Swenson are the sponsors for the coming year.

Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. the church council meets at the church. The senior choir, Mrs. John Hall directing, will meet for the first fall practice at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

'God Has Opened The Door' Is Topic

"God Has Opened the Door," is the sermon topic of the Rev. William Wash at the 11 a.m. worship service at the Medford Church of the Brethren, 345 North Mary st. Terry Birman will play a viola solo.

Following the morning services, the Adult Bible class will go to Rogue River to the home of Earl Goodrich for a picnic to honor one of their senior citizens, Pearl Goodrich.

The Church of Brethren Youth Fellowship will meet at the home of Jim Evernden for their meeting Sunday evening. Mary Music will be the discussion leader. All youth are asked to meet at the church by 6:45 p.m.

Monday evening will be a meeting of all the old and new members of the Christian Education commission. Plans will be made for the coming year in the Sunday school department.

Third of 'Christ' Series to Be Shown

Gold Hill — The third in a series of filmstrips entitled "Christ First" for which Sunday's topic is "Jesus the Physician" will be shown at the opening of the Sunday school at Gold Hill Christian church, Sunday, at 9:45 a.m.

Music will be provided by the rhythm band during the opening exercises. The band consists of some 20 children and is directed by Mrs. Dewey V. Jeffrey.

A junior choir will be started this week. Director will be Mrs. Lee McCann. Mrs. Leonard Andrews will play the piano.

The sermon message will be presented by the Rev. Mr. Jeffrey, minister of the church, during the worship hour at 11 a.m.

A new sign will be installed soon. A gift from the First Christian church, Medford, it is now being repainted by Mrs. Andrews. The sign will be illuminated by a fluorescent light and will be erected on a cement base.

Unitarians to Hold First Fall Service

Members and friends of the Rogue Valley Unitarian Fellowship will meet Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Medford Red Cross building for their first service following summer recess.

Biographical sketches will be given by five members of the group, who will explain why they have become or remained Unitarians and how fellowship participation enriches their lives. The talks will be moderated by David Alexander, program chairman. Mr. Alexander is an instructor in English at Southern Oregon college.

Sunday school registration will be held from 10:30 to 11 a.m. Classes will begin on Sept. 15 and will include children aged 3 to 16. The Beacon curriculum, which is written for children of religious liberals, will be used.

Following Sunday's meeting a family potluck picnic will be held at TouVelle State park.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO YOU

Sunday, 9:00 a.m.
K-SHA — 860 kc

This week's Christian Science program "No Reason for Envy"

First Presbyterian Church
Eighth and Holly • Phone 779-1711

Worship Services 9:30-11:00 a.m.

Sermons: "Christ's Death a Proof of God's Love"
Dr. D. Kirkland West

Church School: 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

UNITY
Corner Holly and Haven Streets
Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo.
REV. KATHARINE BOSWORTH, Minister
Worship Hour — 11:15 a.m.

"Harvest Your Good Now"
John 4:35

Sunday School, Youth of Unity, Adult Bible Class 9:45 a.m.
Office open daily, Monday thru Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
3777 Jacksonville Hwy. — Ph. 772-6902 — Everyone Welcome

The MEDFORD ALLIANCE CHURCH Welcomes You
Hedrick Junior High Auditorium
1505 E. Jackson

SERVICES:
Sunday School 9:45 A.M.
Morning Worship 11:00 A.M.
Youth Service 6:00 P.M.
Evening Service 7:00 P.M.

Mid-week Service — 7:30 P.M. Wednesday
(Price announced each week)

"There is a real and positive help for your every problem"

First Baptist Church
Conservative-Fundamental

On The Air
K-BOY
11:00
12:00

B. E. Andrews, Pastor
Byron Evans, Youth Dir.

NOW Meeting In The Beautiful New Church, 649 Crater Lake Avenue SUNDAY, SEPT. 8

9:40 A.M.
Sunday School for All

11:00 A.M.
Evangelist Tom Fair

7:30 P.M.
Evangelist Tom Fair

Prayer Service
Wednesday, 7:30 P.M.

Evangelistic Services
with Tom Fair
Every Night at 7:30
September 8-20

WORLD WIDE PICTURES PRESENTS
From Moses to its future destiny... see the entire panorama

The Story of the Holy City
An unforgettable motion picture experience

IN COLOR

as told by BILLY GRAHAM
McLoughlin Jr. High
7:30 p.m. SATURDAY

Youth For Christ Rally

NEW AGE CHURCH
Dr. Dell E. Millard, Minister

On Hammel Road, 1 1/2 mile beyond Butte Falls Junction on Crater Lake Highway, turn left on Hammel Road, 1 1/2 miles to Chapel.

1:00 P.M. Fellowship Dinner
2:00 P.M. Musical Half-hour
2:30 P.M. Service & Lecture. Subject: "THE PRINCIPLE OF GROWTH & COMPLETION"
A mental treat. All are welcome.