

Important Coming Event Is Annual Fashion Show

An important event on the calendar this week is the second annual fashion show of Beta Upsilon chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. It is set for Thursday, September 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hearin 2517 East Main street.

Theme for this year's show is "Hootenany". Local entertainers will perform throughout the show. Clothing will be from Jean Hart's, hair styles will be by Rose's Beauty center, and jewelry will be from Weisfields store.

Modeling for the show will be Miss Brenda Carr, Miss Jan Plumley, Miss Sue Plumley, Miss Pam Trowbridge, Mrs. Randy Huggdahl, Mrs. Arvin Reynolds, Mrs. E. D. Davis, Mrs. E. A. Littrell, Mrs. Sheridan Scott, Mrs. C. Reese Bralley, and Mrs. Robert Evans.

Families Return From Coast Trip

SHADY COVE—Several families from Shady Cove, with others from Eagle Point and Medford, returned home the first of last week after being at Surfside on the southern Oregon coast for the four-day week end.

On the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Spain and son, Bruce; Mr. and Mrs. Ted G. Jantzer and sons, Michael and Monty, and daughter, Joyce; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hale and daughter, Carol and son, Kevin; Mrs. Mary Hale and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kelly, all Shady Cove; Richard Ayres, Eagle Point and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Jantzer and daughter, Janice, Medford.

Youths Attend Ashland Festival

Denny Frybeck and Dan Hursh, Corvallis, Ore. have returned to their home after coming here to attend the Oregon Shakespearean festival in Ashland. The boys spent two nights camped in tents in the park, and then visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kent, 922 South Oakdale avenue.

The boys came by auto with a parent, and returned home on their bicycles.

Other recent guests in the Kent home were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Williams and daughters, Molly and Sarah, Eugene, Ore. The Williams played in the Southern Oregon golf tournament at Rogue Valley Country club last week end.

Family Host To Guests; Students Leave

Eagle Point — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin and children, Marty, Karen, Dayn and Jeff, 18 West Sixth street, Eagle Point, were hosts last week end in their summer home at Lake of the Woods to several valley residents.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Callaghan and daughters, the Misses Joan and Ellen Callaghan, Eagle Point; Jerry Shults and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Payne and son, John Payne, all Medford.

Toastmistress Club To Meet

Autumn programs for the Medford Toastmistress club will be based on the theme, "A String of Pearls." The first meeting of the fall season is scheduled for Wednesday, September 11 at 8 p.m., in the Girls Community club.

Mrs. C. E. Goodwin will be Toastmistress for the evening. Topic mistress will be Mrs. Ben L. Wells.

Mrs. C. A. Thatcher, Mrs. Thomas Lorenz and Miss Voda Brower will be speakers on the topic, "Knowing Your Goals." Club members and their families met in late August at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. George Watson on Applegate river. Mrs. W. G. Beard was topic mistress when all who attended participated in the subject, "Good Old Days."

Church Women Slate Program

A panel discussion on the Holy Spirit in the lives of missionaries in Brazil will be on the program for Women's fellowship of First Baptist church Tuesday, August 10. The group will meet in the fireplace room of the church on Crater Lake avenue.

The session will begin at 12:30 p.m., with dessert luncheon served by members of the Martha circle. Mrs. Samuel Jones, circle leader, will be in charge.

Mrs. Richard Miller will lead the discussion assisted by Mrs. Wayne Taylor, Mrs. Robert Paeth and Mrs. Warren Smith. After the program a business meeting will be conducted with Mrs. Ronald Breneman presiding.

A nursery will be provided. All interested women of the church are invited.

Their hair is styled by Rose's Beauty center. The show is open to the public.

Garden Meeting Held by Group

ASHLAND — Dr. Adele Thompson's garden on Beswick Way was the setting last Wednesday evening for the first fall meeting of Ashland Business and Professional Women's club. A covered-dish picnic dinner was followed by the business session conducted by Mrs. Virginia Westerfield.

Discussion of the ensuing year's program and projects and acceptance of the budget gave members an opportunity to learn of the local and national interests.

Plans were made for the annual observance of National Business and Professional Women's Week in October. An afternoon tea is to open the week's events which will include the club banquet when the year's outstanding member will be named "BEEP."

During the informal evening of summer travel reports, club activities and fund raising results were discussed.

Two newcomers from Eugene, Miss Betty Kimball and Miss Joanne Widness, were guests at the picnic meeting.

When using a ladder on soft ground, put each leg of the ladder into a one-pound coffee can firmly secured.
