Couple Travels to Coast After Church Ceremony

ASHLAND—Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Baker Jr. have returned from their wedding trip to the coast and the Oregon Caves and are making their home in Ashland at 925 Siskiyou boulevard. Mrs. Baker is the former Dixie Carol Revel, oldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Revel, 131 Terrace street. Mr. Baker's parents are Mrs. Lucille Johnson, 796 Waverly avenue, Medford, and Ronald W. Baker, 2007 Roberts road, Medford.

The 8 o'clock rites August 24 were held in the First Presbyterian church with the Rev. B. J. Holland officiating. The daylight service was followed by a reception in the church parlors attended by more than 150 guests.

The bride's floor-length gown of white brocaded satin was fashioned on princess lines with fitted midriff, long sleeves and scoop neckline. The bell-shaped skirt was designed with a chapel train of controlled fullness. Her elbow length illusion net veil with butterfly face veil was held by a pearlized orange blossom cap. She carried a white cascade bouquet centered with a white orchid upon a small Bible, the gift of the bridegroom.

Dr. Revel gave his daughter in marriage.

Five Attend Bride
In the wedding party were Miss Karen Fieguth, Ashland, who was maid of honor; Miss Bonnie Thompson, Medford; Miss Sara Vandenberg, and Miss Gay Schwiebert, both of Ashland, bridesmaids, and little Julie Revel, the bride's sister, who was flower girl. Her other sister, Miss Christy Revel, lighted the tall candelabra on either side of the altar.

The bridal attendants were gowned alike in cotillion blue satin dresses made with bell skirts, cap sleeved bodices and circular necklines lower in the back. Each carried a single white rose with streamers. Veiled hats and pumps matched their frocks. Julie wore a ruffled powder blue organza frock with blue hair ribbon. Christy Revel's satin dress was identical with those of the other attendants and she wore a blue and white carnation wristlet.

Best man for his brother was Leslie Baker, Medford, while ushers were John Sullivan, Jacksonville; Ken Trode, Eagle Point; Gerald Slapper, Phoenix, and Raymond Baker, Medford, a brother of the bridegroom.

A program of organ music was played by Mrs. J. Walter McCoy before the service and as they knelt at the altar she played "The Lord's Prayer."

A blue and white motif was used in church and reception room decorations. White gladioli filled two tall baskets on either side of the chancel and a centerpiece of white blossoms and blue candles was used on the bride's table from which refreshments were served.

Many Assist
Mrs. Arthur Peters, assisted by Mrs. B. J. Holland, poured coffee. The bride's aunt, Mrs. Stanley Revel, and Mrs. A. H. Lohman, served the cake, and Mrs. Guy Clarke, assisted by Mrs. Martha Vandenberg and Mrs. Arthur Schwiebert, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Lynn Garrett and Miss Martha Schwiebert were in charge of the guest book and wedding gifts.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Revel chose a two-piece ensemble of champagne silk with matching veiled hat and brown patent leather accessories. Mrs. Johnson's beige and green dress was accented with white accessories and both wore white gardenia corsages. Mrs. Baker's traveling attire was a navy blue

Californians Visit Ashland

ASHLAND — Mrs. Thornton Shively and daughter Sally, San Leandro, Calif., have been guests at the home of Harold Cloer, 1043 Prospect avenue, attending the Oregon Shakespearean Festival plays and other events and renewing friendships made when they lived in Ashland.

Mr. Shively and his daughters, Susan and Sally, have been members of the Shakespearean company many times. He was librarian at Southern Oregon college before going to Mexico last year to devote his entire time to writing. Mr. Shively is the author of several novels, among them some with a local setting. He is presently back in college teaching at San Leandro.

Offords Attend Festival Plays

ASHLAND — Mr. and Mrs. Harold Offord, Berkeley, Calif., have been spending the week with their daughter, Miss Judith Offord, and attending the final round of plays and other Shakespearean festival events, including the Wednesday dance concert directed by Miss Offord.

The Offords will return to Berkeley at the end of the season after closing their summer cottage on Granite street.

Families Make Week End Trip

Prospect — Mr. and Mrs. Everett Shafer and son and Mr. and Mrs. Ward Blain and daughter spent the Labor day week end at Seven Lakes basin. The families made the trip in with pack horses and spent their time hiking in the basin.

Nile Daughters Plan Luncheon

The date for a no-hostess luncheon and card party for members of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, has been set ahead to Monday, September 30, officers have announced.

The event, for members from Ashland, Grants Pass and Medford, will be held at 12:30 p.m. in the downstairs banquet and party room at the Medford hotel.

Those who want further information should call Mrs. Ernest B. Price, 772-2691, Medford.

Prospect Scene Of Dinner Event

PROSPECT — Wives of forest service personnel of the district met in Prospect recently for a Hawaiian dinner served in the wigwam at Prospect Public park. The wigwam was decorated in an island theme and the women wore muu muis and flowers. Each brought food appropriate for the occasion.

About 40 guests attended from Medford, Butte Falls, Union Creek and Prospect.

After dinner they attended the Prospect Garden club flower show. The group meets each month in the different towns of the forest service district.
