

Mrs. Joseph A. Murphy

Carole Lou Morin Wed To Joseph A. Murphy

Miss Carole Lou Morin and Joseph A. Murphy were married in September 1 rites read at 5 o'clock in the afternoon in Phoenix First Presbyterian church. The Rev. William Saladin performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Morin, 4459 Colver road, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. John Murphy, Detroit, Mich., and the late Mr. Murphy. The bridegroom has been living in Millville, Calif.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white brocaded sheath dress with matching jacket trimmed with white fur. Her short veil was held by a single rose and she carried white gladioli clustered around an orchid.

Mrs. Roger Fisher, the honor attendant, was dressed in a blue knit suit with matching hat and her bouquet was of white and yellow gladioli.

Ralph Hensley, Central Valley, Calif., was best man.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli furnished and arranged by Mrs. Bert Stancliffe.

Miss Margaret Ann Bolz was organist.

Reception Held
About 25 guests attended the ceremony and the reception given by the bride's parents in their home. The rooms were decorated with dahlias also from the Stancliffe gardens. A lace cloth made by the bride's mother covered the reception table.

For the wedding of her daughter Mrs. Morin wore a pale blue frock with white accessories and her corsage was of

Garden Club Wins Award

CENTRAL POINT — The Central Point Garden club received a $50 Sears award it was announced when they met recently at the home of Mrs. John Holmer, Old Stage road, Central Point. The award was given in recognition of their tree planting project at Jewett school which has been in progress two years. It was the second Sears award the club has received.

Miss Wren Winniford, a member of the Westside 4-H home improvement club, was in charge of the work shop program and taught members of the garden club how to make "nature notes" using dried flowers to decorate stationery.

"Glory in the Spring" was the title of Mrs. C. W. Anhorn's talk on various spring flowering bulbs.

During the business meeting with Mrs. Arnold Bohnert presiding, members accepted the budget for the coming year which was presented by Mrs. E. H. Wallin, chairman of the budget committee.

Members set October 17 at the date for a plant and rummage sale. Mrs. Wallin was named chairman.

Mrs. Gaston Floux was named chairman of the dried arrangement show which will be held at the extension auditorium on Maple Grove drive in Medford on November 21-22.

Dessert cohostesses were Mrs. H. W. Sturgeon and Mrs. Fred Shere.

Shower Is Held In Happy Camp

HAPPY CAMP — Mrs. Wallace Sutcliffe was honored at a shower recently held in the yard at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Bernice Sutcliffe. Co-hostess was Mrs. Donald Sutcliffe, a sister-in-law of the honored guest, and Mrs. Don Zink. The event was in the form of a surprise.

Mrs. Marvin Sutcliffe made and decorated the cake for the occasion.

Mrs. Curt Morey won a prize for a game played during the party.

Montague Club Announces Plans For Garden Tour

MONTAGUE — Shasta Valley Garden club members have planned a garden tour for Thursday, September 12. Members are to take sack lunches and are to meet at 9:30 a.m., in the home of Mrs. Frank Kouts.

After viewing various gardens in Montague and Little Shasta, the group will travel to the home of Mrs. Aldee Davis.

A flower show previously scheduled for September 15 has been cancelled, officers have announced.

Plans for the tour were made at a recent meeting in the Garden hall. Mrs. Henrietta Terwilliger, assistant director of Top-O-State district of Siskiyou county reported on the first district meeting held last month in Mt. Shasta. Mrs. Edward Clement, president, presided.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Eric Hansen, Mrs. Everett Conroy and Mrs. Lourinda Lambert. The next regular meeting will be held October 4 at the ranch home of Mrs. Sidney Terwilliger.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Lee (Brainerd photo)

Newlyweds Return North After Trip to Lake Tahoe

ASHLAND — Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Lee have returned to Ashland from a honeymoon spent in southern California and at Lake Tahoe and are now making their home at 1430 College way.

Mrs. Lee is the former Pamela Bettes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam D. Bettes, Annandale, Va. While attending Southern Oregon college she has lived with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bettes, 900 Glendale avenue. Mr. Lee, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Lee, Klamath Falls, was graduated in June from SOC and this year will be on the faculty.

The double ring ceremony August 17 in the First Presbyterian church was performed by the Rev. B. J. Holland in the presence of more than 200 guests and was followed by a reception in the Mark Antony hotel ballroom. The bride's grandparents were the reception hosts.

Lace Gown
For her wedding the bride chose an all-over lace floor length gown with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and long tapered sleeves. The skirt of tiered cascading side panels and full lace chapel train like the bodice was sequin studded. A pearlized crystalline princess crown with butterfly drop held her illusion net veil and she carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds and stephanotis encircling a white carnation corsage.

The bride's uncle, Alan Lambuth, Bellevue, Wash., escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Geri McCabe, Klamath Falls, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Another sister, Miss Mary Lee; the bride's sister, Miss Linda Bettes, Annandale, Va.; a cousin, Miss Wendy Lambuth, Bellevue, Wash., and Miss Ellen Ward, Central Point, were bridesmaids. Sherri Truax, Grants Pass, was flower girl.

The bridegroom's attendants were Dale Truax, Grants Pass, serving as best man, and Frank Alessio, Harry Hopner, Larry Pierce and Rick Pierce, all of Ashland, who ushered.

Lighted candles and tall baskets of gladioli in autumn shades decorated the chancel. The fall color theme was also used in the gowns of the bridal party. The matron of honor wore a tangerine frock matching that of the flower girl, while two bridesmaids were dressed

Senior Citizens' Craft Shop To Open

Plans for the opening of the Evergreen Crafts shop in the Colorama Paint center, 135 East Main Street, Saturday, September 14 are nearing completion, according to Mrs. E. H. Loveness, chairman of the Senior Citizens' committee of the Rogue Valley Council on Aging which is sponsoring the project.

Nineteen local craftsmen are eligible to show and sell their craft in the shop, arranged through the courtesy and interest of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Devers.

To give an opportunity for more new craftsmen in this area to become members before the opening day, the date Wednesday, September 11 has been scheduled at the senior center, 601 East Jackson street, for this purpose. From 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., a receiving committee will be at the center to meet the new craftsmen to enter their craft for consideration of the jury and design committee which will meet the same day at 4 p.m.

Articles considered saleable from the standpoint of originality, craftsmanship, design, condition, etc., will be placed in the shop on opening day.

Jury members selected by Mrs. Loveness are qualified graduates in fine arts and crafts. Included are Mrs. Everett Lasher, Mrs. Edward Gehard, Eugene Bennett and Mrs. Devers.

This group also will give consultation to craftsmen to improve design to make their craft acceptable.

The receiving committee is made up of Mrs. W. L. Tucker, Miss Voda Brower and Mrs. Clayton Walker.

In three meetings held last week with the committees and members of the executive board of RCVA by Mrs. Loveness, plans and procedure were evolved, for establishing this new program.

Any person 50 years old or over in southern Oregon is eligible to apply. Application must be made to the receiving committee on the first Wednesday in soft yellow and two in pastel green. Each carried a white carnation bouquet.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. J. W. McCoy played wedding selections and afterward accompanied the soloist, Miss Lynn Ferrell, who sang.

When the couple left for their trip south the bride was wearing a brown linen suit with cream colored accessories and the corsage from her bouquet.

of the month from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the senior center.

Craft must be submitted to the jury of artisans on the same day for approval or advice. Dues of one dollar will be required for membership in the Rogue Valley Council on Aging. The rules are to be printed in a brochure and made available for the craftsman and the public.

The gifts handcrafted by local senior citizens sold in the shop will be labeled to show their origin from southern Oregon.

A program to educate the public concerning the RVCA will be developed through talks before organizations, and radio and television and the press releases.

Senior citizens, whether craftsmen or not, are encouraged to offer their services to the committee, Mrs. Loveness has stated. She can be contacted at telephone 772-5090.

On Wednesday, September 11 several craftsmen will help the committee in labeling the gift articles with the center's new insignia.

Plans for the open house Saturday will be made this week by the craftsmen, committee and board members who will meet the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., serving coffee. Data for the meeting of this planning group will be announced.

Past Matrons Club Announces Session

JACKSONVILLE — Past Matrons club of Adarel chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet for a potluck luncheon Monday, September 9 at 12:30 p.m., in the Jacksonville Masonic temple. Table service will be required.

The luncheon is a no-hostess event. Mrs. George Mero, president, will preside.

Prospect Event Honors Bride

Prospect — Mrs. Clarence Huntley, the former Miss Sandra Clark, was honored recently at a bridal shower in the home of Mrs. Clifford Clark.

The hostess, Mrs. Don Andersen, was assisted by Mrs. Gene Arias the cohostess.

Mrs. Huntley was presented miscellaneous gifts.

Adarel Club

JACKSONVILLE — Adarel Social club women plan a potluck luncheon Thursday, September 12 at 12:30 p.m., in Jacksonville Masonic temple. Table service will be required. The committee will be Mrs. Gertrude Wittingham, Mrs. Chester Irish and Mrs. William Childreth.

ADD-ON-A-PIECE

SOLID ROCK Maple

Sprague & Carleton

Add-on-a-piece! Beautiful and practical in living room, family room, den or bedroom. This is the most versatile furniture in America today. You can arrange and re-arrange. You can add a new piece every few months or every year for storage space and more room... and know it'll be a perfect match!

Now! In Color! Be sure to see the Teal Blue or Haddam Red louvered doors and back panels. Or, the entire grouping is available in the famous Sprague & Carleton Antique Finish.

The COLONIAL HOUSE

At Trowbridge Electric, Main & Fir Phone 773-6241
Use our customer parking area

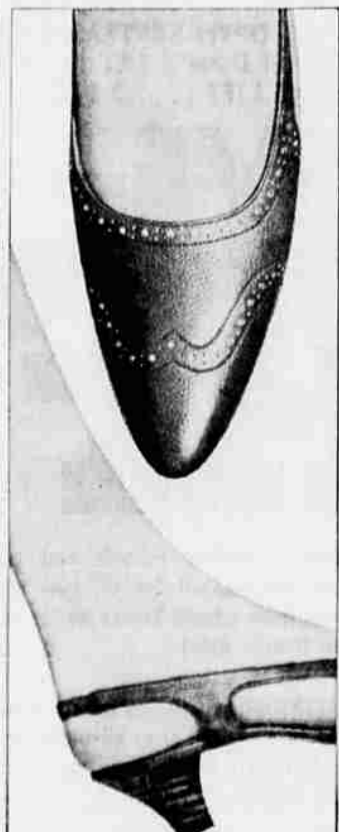

MEDFORD SHOPPING CENTER

Add 35¢ postage for Mail Orders. (Sorry—No C.O.D.'s)

Shoes are fun again!

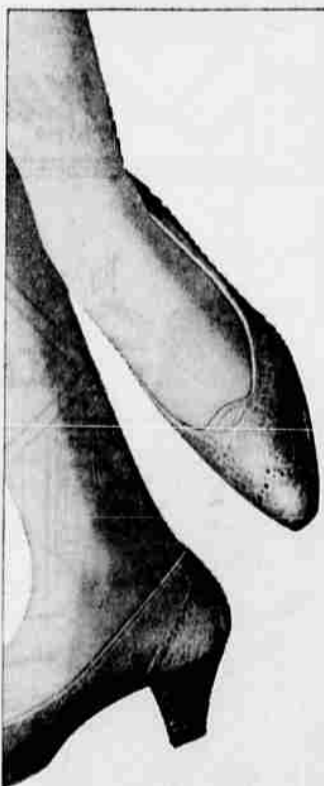

peek-a-boo flattery
Fashion cuts a caper for our prettily perked cutout upper of textured golden tan Parisienne calf. 7.99

youthful excitement
Truffle-tone Parisienne calf upper flows from finger-tip toe to slim straps in a feminine mood. 7.99

daringly bared
The elegance of the open look offers the romantic swish of black silk for your enchanted evening. 7.99

low-rise fall chic
Slip softly into a caressable truffle-tone sweet kid upper, accented by a mid-high stacked heel. 6.99

romance for evening
Wisp little straps end in a flirty bow, giving the less-shoe look to our black calf upper. 7.99

AS SEEN IN GLAMOUR

armload of fashion
Tortoise shell plastic apices a bag of coffee tan leather-look vinyl. 4.99
Others, mostly 2.99 to 7.99.

Make shoe fashion individually yours with our bright new styles to suit your every mood, colors and textures that let you express your personality. You'll kick up your heels over a brand new softness only your foot can define. QualiCraft's fashion know-how combines with expert workmanship, brings you the most value afoot. 6.99 and 7.99