Algerian Constitution Voted

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI) — Strident Premier Ahmed Ben Bella and his ruling National Liberation Front won overwhelming endorsement in a referendum approving Algeria's first constitution, nearly complete returns showed today.

Government figures showed more than 98 per cent of the voters in 13 of Algeria's 13 departments approved the constitution, which sets up a one-party centralized state which all key powers vest in a president.

In the west department of Oran, for example, there were 401,700 "yes" votes, 1,568 persons rejected the constitution and 2,166 ballots were invalid.

In six other departments, with a total of 2,098,731 eligible voters, 1,822,314 persons voted "yes."

Ben Bella, Pleasid

Ben Bella, in a short address over Radio Algiers early this morning, said he was "very pleased" with the results.

Some officials privately expressed concern about tight writing in the east Algerian strongholds of opposition leaders Boukacem Krim and Hocine Ali

Anti-Government Slogans Shouted As Boys Clubbed

Saigon (UPI) — A student mob battered more than 1,000 heavily-armed police and troops in a wild, fist-swinging, rock-and-rodium throwing brawl at the Chu Van An Boys' High School here today.

Students at the school rioted and barricaded its heavy gates about 1 a.m., shortly before classes were to have begun, and began shouting anti-government slogans.

When police showed up, the students pelleted them with rocks and bricks for nearly an hour before police got authorization to smash their way into the schoolyard.

Police beat back the gates and swarmed into the yard, the students beat them back for a time with a barrage of chairs, desks and stones.

Police forced their way into the yard and began rounding up the rioters, wrenching their arms behind their back or in some cases dragging them by the hair as they rushed them to waiting trucks.

Students who resisted were clubbed or kicked.

It is estimated 400 to 500 students were carried away to a detention camp in the second such mass roundup in three days. The number of students in custody is believed to be well over 1,000.

As the rioting died away, a line up in English on a second-floor balcony dramatized the students' protest against the government of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

"Help us," it read. "We are in danger."

Kennedy To Send Special Letter to Senate On Ratification of Nuclear Test Ban Pact

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy agreed today to send a special letter to the Senate this week pledging that ratification of the nuclear test ban treaty with Russia will not hamstring future U.S. atomic developments.

He agreed to the move at the request of Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield (Mont.) and Republican Leader Everett

WASHINGTON (UPI) — South Viet Nam's American-trained counter-guerrilla forces used to spearhead the government drive against Buddhist pagodas still are on a secret U.S. payroll, reliable sources said today.

These sources said Col. Le Quang Tung, who is considered South Viet Nam's most powerful military commander, receives $1 million a year from the Central Intelligence Agency to pay and maintain his "special forces."

Tung received his regular monthly payment of about $250,000 from the CIA Tuesday despite public announcements U.S. disapproval of the wholesale arrest of Buddhists, students and other government opponents in which Tung's troops figured prominently, the informants said.

It was the counter-guerrilla troops which stormed Buddhist pagodas in Saigon Aug. 21, and they have supported police making mass arrests of anti-government student demonstrators since that date.

Information reaching here indicates most CIA men in South Viet Nam bitterly oppose continuation of the payments, made under the terms of a secret agreement the agency concluded with the government 11 months ago.

The special forces were created, trained and armed for use in border-crossing raids in Communist-held North Viet Nam and work with anti-Communist tribesmen in the mountains of South Viet Nam.

Reliable sources said CIA men in Saigon feel the ruling Ngo Dinh family has reversed the purpose of the troops for its own ends and is using them for purposes opposed by the United States.

The intelligence agents were said to hope the United States would cut off its payments to Tung as a demonstration of the fact that it will not tolerate the misuse of American funds and equipment.

Stocks Move in Uncertain Fashion
NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks milled around in an uncertain fashion today.

Steels were mostly firm but Youngstown dropped 1/2. Minors held steady. In the chemicals, DuPont, Monsanto and Spencer added around 1/2 but Eastman Kodak, Allied Chemical, Union Carbide and Diamond Alkali studied.

Barber Oil picked up a point in an otherwise fractionally mixed petroleum section. Drugs track-tracked sharply with Abbott Labs, Chesbrough - Pond's and Schering losing around 1 each. U.S. Smelting climbed more than 1/2.

Electronics put in a good showing with Beckman, Itek, Electronic Systems and Honey showing gains ranging from large fractions to more than a point.

City Police Check Four Accidents
Medford city police investigated four vehicle accidents in the city from Friday to Sunday. No injuries were reported, officers said, but two citations were issued.

William Warren Quast, 26, of 222 South Peach st., was cited for violation of basic rule after his vehicle collided with a car driven by William Dale O'Neil, 26, Table Rock rd., about 2:20 a.m. Sunday at Table Rock rd. between Leifer ave. and Highway 10.

About 2:30 p.m. Saturday, a car driven by Colleen Marilyn Lewis, 20, of 407 Oregon ave., struck a stop sign at East Jackson st. and Park st. No citation was issued.

In one of two accidents Friday, a citation for violation of basic rule was issued to Nora Ruth Campbell, 42, Central Point, after her vehicle collided with a car driven by Chester Edwin Wall, 27, Central Point, about 1:30 p.m. at Table Rock rd. and Berrydale ave.

A bicycle rider by William Chandler Blackstone, 3, of 19 Black Oak st., and a car driven by Louise James King, 46, of 347 Highway ave., collided about 2:45 p.m. at East Main st. and Berkeley Way. No citation was issued.
