

Hydroelectric Project Dedicated

EUGENE (UPI)—The $29 million Carmen Smith hydroelectric project on the upper McKenzie river was dedicated Monday afternoon.

About 2,000 persons attended the dedication ceremony for the Eugene Water and Electric Board's project, located 71 miles east of here. Two power plants at the new dam will produce 90,000 kilowatts of electricity.

Gov. Mark Hatfield was the main speaker at the ceremony. He said the project was a "successful effort on the part of the city of Eugene and its water and electric board to assure that adequate consideration is given to other resource values while developing the hydroelectric potential of the McKenzie river."
