A. Parlier; classification, Mrs. Pauline Bright; membership, Mrs. Ralph Dippel; publicity, Mrs. Fred Rankin; courtesies and archives, Mrs. Maudie Daily.

Those serving on the twelfth district committee members are public affairs, Mrs. Young and gerontology, Mrs. Rankin.

Service Guild Meets Thursday

Susanah Wesleyan Service guild will meet Thursday September 12, at 7:45 p. m. Mrs. John Havens of 1913 Crestbrook road will be hostess. A program entitled, "A More Excellent Way," will be presented by Mrs. Everett Faber.

Five members of Women's Society of Christian Service will assist her. They are Mrs. Floyd Lewis, Mrs. Lester Lollis, Mrs. George Roseberry, Mrs. Walter Higgins, and Mrs. Charles Thompson Jr. This service guild is especially for working women who are able to attend evening meetings. Any interested women are invited.

Auxiliary Plans Session Tonight

The auxiliary to Rogue River unit, National Association of Letter Carriers, will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. William Cady, pioneer road, Phoenix.

Mrs. Delbert Cove will be co-hostess with Mrs. Cady.

Three members of the Southern Oregon Philatelic Society, the founder and two first officers, were honored at the last meeting of the group. Honored were (left to right) Clyde E. Smith, first secretary; Mrs. Anne E. Carley, founder; and Frank L. Applegate, first vice president. Elmer J. Binker Jr., (right) president, gave the three philatelists honorary memberships.

Society Honors Charter Members; Annual Stamp Show Planned Soon

The awarding of three honorary memberships to charter members who were founders of the Southern Oregon Stamp club, now called the Southern Oregon Philatelic Society, was a surprise part of the program at the recent meeting of the group. Receiving the honorary memberships were Mrs. Anne E. Carley, founder and first president of the organization; Clyde E. Smith, first secretary; and Frank L. Applegate, first vice president. All three are well known in national stamp circles.

Founders Two Clubs
In addition to the Southern Oregon Stamp club, Mrs. Carley founded the Camp White Veterans' Stamp club and was its director for several years. She has exhibited in large eastern shows as well as western shows, and has won many awards.

Mrs. Carley has held memberships in the American Topical association, Collectors of Religion on Stamps, the American Philatelic Society, the Society of Philatelic Americans, the Society of Israel Philatelists and the Oregon Stamp society, Portland.

No. Two Member
Mr. Applegate holds membership No. 2 of the charter members since he was the first vice president. He is a past president of the American Revenue association and has been a dealer in revenue stamps for many years. Mr. Applegate has been treasurer of the Society since 1954.

He has had articles on revenue stamps and color variations on stamps published in several national philatelic magazines, has exhibited his collection of revenue stamps at outstanding shows and won awards on it. He is also a member of the American Philatelic Society and the Oregon Stamp Society of Portland.

Is Organizer
Mr. Smith, who holds membership No. 3, was the society's first secretary and is also a past president. He is a past associate editor of the now defunct Weekly Philatelic Gossip.

He organized the Medford YMCA Stamp club and acted as its director for several years. He also organized the Ashland YMCA Stamp club and continues as its director.

Mr. Smith's cover collection has won him many high awards at exhibitions throughout the west. He holds a life membership in the Bay Area Stamp club of Oakland, Calif.

He was a prolific contributor to the Weekly Philatelic Gossip during its lifetime.

Business concerned the annual stamp exhibition, SOPEX '63, which will be held Saturday and Sunday, September 21 and 22, at the Girls Community Club. It was reported that a total of 114 frames have been entered for exhibition.

Entries include state game and fishing stamps, airmail covers with cachets, United Nations, Ghana, Trieste, Ryukus, metered mail, birds, Masonry on United States Stamps, Pope John 23rd, and the Ecumenical council, Laos, United States

Flag Stamps, Seattle World's Fair first day covers, stamps of Tristan da Cunha, Tonga coin stamps, United States machine cancellations, T.B. seals, United States parks on stamps, medicinal herbs on stamps, Belgian covers, British empire, and Spain's Columbus issue.

Collections Complete
Several of these exhibits were entered by out of state people and are quite complete collections. Many of the exhibits will be entered under the Apfelbaum Award entry, for a gold medal, issued for the best collection on commercially printed pages— which will be judged not on the research done, as that is already available, but on the condition and completeness of the collection. This is the first year this award has been available anywhere.

Other special awards will include the American Topical association award for the best topical exhibit; Korean Stamp society award for the best Korean exhibit; the American Airmail society award; and the American First Day Cover award. The grand award winner will receive a myrtlewood-black walnut bowl, besides the purple ribbon for the best exhibit in the show. Ribbons will be given for first, second, third and where merited for honorable mention in all classes.

Judges Listed
Judges of the show will be Mrs. Earl Chachere, Eugene Bennett, and J. E. F. Robertson. Mr. Robertson, of Eugene, will also have a bourse table as will several others; he was one of the judges for last year's show. Dr. William Giles is exhibition chairman.

New members welcomed into the society are Miss Cora Maxwell, Malcolm L. Melville, Mrs. Edith Gifford and Allen C. Beck. Mrs. Chachere was appointed club librarian. Guests at the meeting were Floyd Crosslin, a former and charter member; Frank Roberts, and Mrs. Agnes Pearl of the Royal City Stamp club, New Westminster, B. C., Canada.

William White, Mrs. Mildred Schuchard and Mrs. Irene Cordier were appointed to form a nominating committee. The society elects officers every two years.

After the stamp auction conducted by Mr. White, refreshments were served by Mrs. Schuchard and Mrs. Earl Malbourn.

Symphony to Play Here; Tickets on Sale Soon

Tickets for the coming concert here of the Portland Symphony orchestra will go on sale September 20, according to an announcement by Harold Friend, Ashland, and Randy Clark, Central Point, co-chairmen in charge of the project.

The concert, set for Wednesday, October 16, at Hedrick Junior High school, Medford, is being sponsored by the Organization of Associated Commuters of Southern Oregon college. Dr. Alvin Fellers of the faculty is the club advisor.

Patrons' tickets at $10 each have been on sale for the past several weeks, and a number of other financial supporters are assisting the considerable undertaking. It is stated that some reserved seats on the main floor will be on sale, and the remaining seats will be in the balconies.

Tickets will be on sale in the Student Affairs office of SOC, Churchill hall, Ashland; at Mann's Department store and Purucker's Music store, Medford.

For a number of years music patrons throughout Oregon have hoped that the Portland Symphony orchestra could undertake a yearly concert tour of the state. However, such a tour takes extensive planning and a large financial outlay, and in the past it has not been found possible.

'Rock Hounds' Plan Roundup

Plans for a "rock hounds roundup" will be made at a meeting of Roxy Anne Gem and Mineral society to be held at Girls Community club Friday, September 13 at 8 p.m.

The roundup is the first such event planned by the group and it is to be an annual one. It is set for Saturday, September 21, at TouVelle park.

Guardian Honored By Bethel

Mrs. Harold McIssac, Parkdale, Ore., was honored by Jobs Daughters, Bethel 36, at a dinner held in the Central Point Masonic hall September 3.

Mrs. McIssac, grand guardian of the order, was honored guest for an evening that included inspection, initiation and the installation of a new guardian council for Bethel 36.

Miss Sue Kelley, honored queen, presided. Initiated was Miss Margaret Lee Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Hall, 952 Beall lane, Central Point.

Council Installed
Mrs. Luther Day was installed as the new guardian of Bethel 36, and Francis W. Thompson as assistant guardian. Other council members installed included Mrs. Donald R. Gardner, treasurer; Mrs. Eugene R. Beasley, secretary; Mrs. Robert Jantzer, guardian of music; Mrs. Lloyd A. Livingston, guardian of paraphernalia; Mrs. Glenn Kelley, epochs; Mrs. Alfred W. Burgoyne, publicity; Mrs. Donald R. Squire, finance; Mrs. B. L. Collinsworth, philanthropy and good will; Mrs. Francis W. Thompson, sociability; Mrs. Stanley Morgan, hospitality; Mrs. Merrill Harsh, addenda and Glenn Kelley, fraternal relations.

Marsha Clark was altar soloist during initiation. The new grand guardian was given Bethel honors and she and Mr. McIssac, grand senior custodian, were seated in the East while the honored queen and her officers presented the ceremonies.

Past Queen Cathleen Harsh reported on the grand session. Heart Pleased
Mrs. McIssac presented a porcelain heart decorated with symbols to Honored Queen Sue.

Mrs. Luther Day was given her guardian pin by Mrs. Glenn Kelley, retiring guardian. During the closing addenda Queen Sue presented the grand guardian with a miniature wishing well. Each Daughter, led by Librarian Jo Anne Hamilton, dropped a silver dime and a wish in the well.

The decoration committee, headed by Miss Susan Morgan and assisted by the Misses Pamela Squire, Karen Edwards, Sheila Beasley and their mothers, used yellow tapers and floating begonia blooms to decorate the main refreshment table. Other banquet tables carried the lodge colors in twisted spirals down the centers. Baskets of fall blossoms were used throughout the hall.

Past Presidents To Hold Meeting
The Past Presidents club of the auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles will hold a meeting at the home of Mrs. Ethyl Garrett, 20 Laurel street, Friday, September 13. Luncheon will be served at 1:30 p.m.

Women's News

Chicken Veronique looks elaborate, but like many other gourmet favorites, it is really not complicated to make. There is no tricky sauce-making. The chicken simply is sautéed in a skillet with mushrooms and white grapes and the whole procedure takes little more than half an hour. Even the novice cook can rest assured that it will be the hit of the evening at her next dinner party.

White Grapes, Mushrooms Add to Chicken Veronique

Most gourmets would agree that Chicken Veronique ranks as one of the triumphs of French classical cuisine. While this fact may arouse the interest of the novice cook, it may also arouse alarm. If the dish is that sensational, she may reason, it must be difficult to make.

The contrary is true. Chicken Veronique requires no tricky sauce-making, no hours of cooking. The chicken is simply sautéed in a skillet with mushrooms and white grapes, and the whole procedure takes little more than a half hour. Chicken Veronique is served on a platter garnished with sautéed mushroom caps. The dish looks elaborate, elegant, and handsome, and like many another gourmet favorite, is really not very complicated to make.

Invite Chicken Veronique to your next dinner party — and rest assured that it will be the hit of the evening.

CHICKEN VERONIQUE
Two broiler-fryer chickens, cut in serving pieces; two teaspoons Accent; salt; paprika; one-fourth cup butter or margarine, divided; one onion, finely chopped; one clove garlic, minced; one-fourth pound mushrooms, sliced; four tablespoons flour; one teaspoon sugar; two cups bouillon; two tablespoons lemon juice; one cup white grapes, removed from stem; eight large mushroom caps, sautéed. Sprinkle chickens with Accent, salt and paprika. Melt ¼ cup of the butter in a large skillet; add chicken and brown well; remove chicken. Add remaining ¼ cup butter, onion and garlic; cook over low heat five minutes. Add mushrooms, cook over medium heat two minutes. Blend in flour and sugar. Add bouillon and lemon juice; bring to a boil, stirring. Add chicken, cover and simmer 30 minutes or until tender. Add grapes last five minutes of cooking time. Arrange chicken on platter and pour over sauce. Garnish with sautéed mushroom caps. Yield, 6 servings.
