

SL Cardinals Employ Hurling To Cling To Dodger Coattails

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The St. Louis Cardinals are using the Los Angeles Dodgers' most potent weapon — pitching — to cling to the front-runners' coattails in the National League pennant race.

Pitching has been the Cardinals' most serious problem all season but it's suddenly jelled — and just at the right time if the Redbirds are going to overtake the Dodgers, whose once-proud staff is beginning to get the blind staggers in the stretch.

The Cardinal staff turned in its third consecutive shutout when Ray Sadecki and Ron Taylor combined in a five-hitter Wednesday night for a 4-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs. The win enabled the Cardinals to remain three games behind the winning Dodgers and made it 14 victories in their last 15 games for Johnny Keane's fast-closing team.

The Dodgers again got shaky pitching from ace Don Drysdale but reached into their bullpen for the necessary relief aid as they downed the Pittsburgh Pirates, 9-4, and eliminated them from the race.

Sandy Koufax is the only Dodger pitcher who has gone the distance in the 11 games.

Stahl Ousts Harris in National

By LEO H. PETERSON
DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — An upsetting unknown from Cleveland and four of the top stars were among 16 hopefuls who set out today in the fifth round of the U. S. Amateur golf championship with a quartet of them to be left in the running by nightfall.

Walt Stahl, making only his second appearance in the Amateur, hoped to continue his unexpectedly brilliant play and had to do so if he hoped to survive among such as Charley Coe, Deane Beman, Bill Campbell and collegiate champion Dick Sikes.

The lanky 28-year-old gear salesman was a total of only three over par over the tough Wakonda club course in contributing to the tournament's top upset by flattening defending champion Labron Harris Jr., 2 and 1, and then roaring past Bob Cochran of St. Louis, 6 and 5.

Today he went against Dave Stockton of San Bernardino, Calif., in the fifth round and then, if he is to reach Friday's 36-hole semifinals, would have to face the winner of a match between Beman and Barry Meerdick of Muscatine, Iowa.

Major Leagues Nix Loop Reactivation

CHICAGO (UPI) — The major leagues have rejected proposals for reactivation of the AAA American association, disbanded a year ago, sources indicated today.

Officials of major league clubs Tuesday closed a two-day special meeting on possible realignment of top classification minor leagues, but results of the sessions were not disclosed.

However, one person present indicated the American association reactivation was discussed and turned down.

OSU BURIED

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI) — The last pre-season scrimmage saw the Oregon State team bury a squad of reserves 47-0 Wednesday. Soph fullback Charlie Shaw and halfback Leroy Whittle accounted for five touchdowns between them. Gordon Queen hit All-America end candidate Vern Burke for two more tallies. Standout for the scrubs was Jim Sinyard at defensive halfback.

Giants Lose Again

The New York Mets pushed the fading San Francisco Giants another step toward extinction, 4-2, the Cincinnati Reds routed the Milwaukee Braves, 14-3, and the Houston Colts nicked the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-2 in other National League games.

Sadecki went 5-2 in innings to win his ninth game for the Cardinals, with Taylor holding the Cubs to one hit over the final 3-1-3. Stan Musial's sacrifice fly and an infield out produced two St. Louis runs in the fourth inning and Mike Shannon hit his runs in three innings but Pete Richert held the Pirates to two runs for four innings and Ron Perranoska closed it out with two innings of hitless relief. Smokey Burgess homered for the Pirates.

The Mets dropped the Giants 11 games off the pace behind the seven-hit pitching of Al Jackson, who won his 11th game of the season. The Mets scored all their runs in the first two innings off Jack Sanford, who lost his 13th decision. Ron Hunt and Tim Harkness had three hits each for the Mets.

This Could Be Day Yankees Cinch Tie

By FRED DOWN

This could be the day the New York Yankees clinch a tie for their fourth straight American League pennant and the 28th in their golden history.

All that's needed is a Yankee victory over the Kansas City Athletics and a Cleveland Indian triumph over the Minnesota Twins. Then, one Yankee victory or one loss by either the Twins or Chicago White Sox would mathematically eliminate the last two remaining "contenders."

The Yankees moved to within easy grasp of their third straight flag under Ralph Houk when they beat the Athletics, 8-2, Wednesday night for their 26th win of the season. And, in typical fashion, it was Whitey Ford supplying the pitching and Mickey Mantle contributing the big blow.

Ford, gaining his 22nd win of the season and the 197th of his career, turned in a neat seven-hitter while Mantle, playing his way toward top form after a season of injuries, sent his old buddy off in front with a three-run homer in the first inning.

After that it was a cakewalk — with Mantle adding a double and a single to his game total and Joe Pepitone driving in three runs with a homer and single. Ford struck out five and walked three behind the 13-hit attack to which every Yankee regular contributed at least one blow.

The Twins drubbed the Indians, 9-3, the White Sox edged out the Baltimore Orioles, 3-2, the Washington Senators defeated the Detroit Tigers, 6-5, in 10 innings and the Los Angeles Angels beat the Boston Red Sox, 4-1, in other American League action.

Harmon Killebrew hit his 38th homer of the season and the fifth grand slam of his career and Earl Battey also homered to lead the Twins' 13-hit attack. Lee Stange pitched a seven-hitter and struck out eight for his 10th win while Dick Donovan suffered his 13th defeat.

Spokane and Oklahoma City are starting from scratch as both clubs now have one victory in the Pacific Coast league playoffs.

Tonight the final game in Spokane will be played with Ben Johnson, a 32-year-old right hander taking the mound for the 80ers while the host Indians will start 23-year-old Phil Ortega. Johnson, during the regular season had a record of 11 victories and 9 defeats and Ortega had 13-9. The clubs will use Friday to travel and resume the series Saturday night at Oklahoma City.

The Indians came through with a single run in the ninth inning Wednesday night to take a 3-2 decision and knot the best of seven series. John Werhas drove in relief hurler Dick Scott, who had doubled, with the decisive run.

Both men shared the hero roles. Scott took the mound in the seventh inning and didn't allow Oklahoma City a hit.
