

Old Pros Taking Charge for LA Dodgers in Hour of Great Need

By FR D DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Youth can be wonderful—and the Los Angeles Dodgers have plenty—but the "old men" of the team seem to have taken charge of its 1963 destiny.

These are the men who most resent the choke-up charges they have heard since the San Francisco Giants "stole" the 1962 National League pennant. Gold solid pros like Wally Moon, Maury Wills, and John Roseboro.

It's clearly the hour of the Dodger's greatest need, with the St. Louis Cardinals coming on like gangbusters and it's these men who have answered manager Walt Alton's call for help.

Cardinal charge, the Dodgers have won their last three games to retain their three-game bulge over the swiftness, who've taken 15 of their last 16 including six in a row. First it was Moon driving in two runs in a 4-2 victory, then it was Wills with four hits in a 9-4 triumph, and Thursday night it was Roseboro with a grand slam homer and five runs batted in for a personal 5-3 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Under Pressure

The Dodgers started their game in Pittsburgh Thursday night under the most extreme sort of pressure. The Cardinals' 8-3 afternoon victory over the Chicago Cubs already was on the scoreboard and 16-game winner Bob Friend was on the mound for the Pirates.

Roseboro provided the Dodger answer when he went to bat with the bases filled and two out in the first inning—and connected for the second grand slam of his career to send the Dodgers off to a 4-0 lead. Roseboro singled home Moon in the third inning to make it 5-0 and Johnny Podres protected the margin until the eighth when he needed the relief help of Ron Perranoski.

The win was Podres' 13th against 10 losses.

The Cardinals continued their terrific late drive behind the seven-hit, seven-strikeout pitching of Ernie Broglio, who scored his 16th victory. Bill White hit a two-run homer and drove in three runs and Dick Groat and Stan Musial had two hits each in the 11-hit attack.

Giants Beat Mets

The San Francisco Giants stopped their two-game skid with a 6-0 win over the New York Mets and the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Houston Astros, 4-1, in the only other National League games. In the American League, New York defeated Kansas City, 5-2, Minnesota topped Cleveland, 3-2, and Los Angeles beat Boston, 2-0.

Juan Marichal pitched a four-hitter, struck out 13 and hit his first major league homer to win his 22nd game of the season for the Giants. Felipe Alou sent the Giants in front with a homer off Tracy Stallard's first pitch of the game and Ed Bailey also homered in San Francisco's 10-hit attack.

Former Dodger star Duke Snider was honored in pre-game ceremonies, which included the introduction of most of the Brooklyn stars of the 1950-57 era. He went hitless in three official trips to the plate but made a leaping one-handed catch to rob Chuck Hiller of an extra-base hit.

Hard-throwing rookie Ray Culp pitched a five-hitter and struck out seven to win his 13th game for the Phillies. Homers by Roy Sievers and Tony Taylor led the Phillies' eight-hit attack.

Juan Marichal Gains 22nd Win

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—If the San Francisco Giants could pitch Juan Marichal every day they would probably win the National League championship in a breeze.

The Giant righthander chalked up his 22nd victory of the season Thursday in downing the New York Mets 6-0. He also garnered his first major league homerun in the fifth inning.

Marichal struck out 13 and walked but one. His whiff total now stands at 218. The shutout was the fifth for Marichal this season.

Dodgers, Cards Have Toughies

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The pennant-seeking Dodgers take on a tough opponent tonight, but so do the ever-present St. Louis Cardinals.

After sweeping their third straight from the floundering Pittsburgh Pirates Thursday night 5-2, Los Angeles meets the fourth-place Philadelphia Phillies in a four-game series in Connie Mack stadium.

The hot-breath Cardinals, still three games behind the Dodgers, meanwhile will contend with the Milwaukee Braves who have skipped past San Francisco into the third spot in the National League race.

New York Yankees on Border of Mathematical Certainty

By MARTIN LADER
UPI Sports Writer

The New York Yankees, who handle mere mortals with ease, were to pit their magic against the mysteries of the supernatural today.

A successful conflict by the New Yorkers against the age-old superstitions represented by a Friday the 13th would result in their fourth straight American League pennant and the 20th in their history.

Their mortal opponents will be the Minnesota Twins, currently holding down second place, 13 games behind the Yankees. Each club has 14 games remaining.

And, as usual, the Yankees have an ace up their sleeve. Even if they lose today, they'll still have three more cracks at Minnesota over the week end to nail down the flag.

Either Jim Bouton (19-6) or Al Downing (12-4) will work for New York against Twin ace Camilo Pascual (18-8).

The only other team with a slim hope of catching the Yankees is the Chicago White Sox, 14 games off the pace in third place. But just one Yankee win or Chicago loss would eliminate the Sox and any combination of two New York victories or Minnesota defeats would knock out the Twins.

Yanks Beat A's

The Yankees moved to the border of mathematical certainty by whipping the Kansas City Athletics, 5-2, Thursday. Stan Williams went the distance to make his season record 8-6 and John Blanchard provided the punch with a two-run homer.

Minnesota kept its faint hopes alive by edging the Cleveland Indians, 3-2, in 10 innings, and in the only other American League game the Los Angeles Angels blanked the Boston Red Sox, 2-0.

The Los Angeles Dodgers retained their three-game lead in the National League by beating the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-3, after the St. Louis Cardinals knocked off the Chicago Cubs, 8-3. Elsewhere, San Francisco topped New York, 6-0, and Philadelphia defeated Houston 4-1. Milwaukee and Cincinnati were not scheduled.

Williams was in trouble twice early in the game and finished strong after yielding two runs in the fifth inning. The hard-throwing right-hander gave up eight hits and struck out only three.

Blanchard provided Williams with all the support he needed with his 15th home run in the fourth inning after the Yankees had scored once in the second. Moe Drabowsky (6-12) was the loser.

Hal Sets Record

Bob Allison's 10th inning sacrifice fly drove home the winning run for the Twins. Earlier, Jim Hall had hit a two-run homer for the Twins. It was his 32nd and broke the league record for most homers by a rookie. The old mark was set by Ted Williams of Boston in 1939. Relief pitcher Bill Dailly gained his sixth triumph against three defeats.

Don Lee pitched four-hit ball in 100-degree weather before 1,530 fans, the smallest crowd ever to witness a major league ballgame in Los Angeles. It was the eighth victory in 18 decisions for Lee. The Angels scored both their runs in the seventh inning on a sacrifice fly by Jim Fregosi and a Boston error.

SOC's Red Raiders To Engage Alumni

ASHLAND — The Southern Oregon college varsity football squad and the alumni will mix under the lights Saturday night in the annual pre-season conflict at Fuller field.

Kickoff time is 8 p.m.

The alumni still will be out for revenge this season as the grad aggregation met with their third defeat by the varsity last year 27-19.

Alum chief organizer again

AT GUARD POST — Larry Ryerson, 190 pound letterman, will play offensive guard for the Southern Oregon college varsity in the annual skirmish with the alumni. Ryerson stands 6-1 and is a junior at the college.

this year is Lou Maurer of Grants Pass who will work the plays out with his grads in the gymnasium dressing room just previous to the game. Both squads have agreed on the T formation to be used throughout the game and Maurer doesn't anticipate the grads will have much trouble with the plays since most of them are coaches in schools around the area.

But the grads will be up against what varsity mentor Al Akins considers to be "a good team." Akins reserves any further plaudits because, as he says, "The team this year is in the building stages."

Akins will depend on the 20 lettermen who will spark the Saturday eve game and also on freshman Bob Holman taking over as center and Spike Gordon, a sophomore on right end.

The remaining line for the varsity include all lettermen who saw action on the Raider team last season.

On hand will be Denny Ellis at left end, and Glen Moses, a two year veteran also at left end. Coming back for the second year will be 200-pound Don Gott at left guard.

Three year letterman Doug Olsen will be back this year and will play the slot post as left half for the varsity. The field will be completed with junior Larry Ryerson playin right guard and 225 - pound Garry Reed as tackle.

Akins and his team were to run through two more drills today to wrap up the practice sessions before the game.

Venezuela Foe of U.S. Net Team

DENVER (UPI)—The heavily favored U.S. Davis Cup team faced the Venezuelans today in what the Americans hoped will be the first step toward challenging the Australians for world tennis supremacy.

Non-playing captain Bob Kelleher, who directs the four-man U.S. team, said the strategy at the Cherry Hills Country Club event is simply "to win."

Venezuela apparently benefited by Thursday's draw.

Marty Riessen drew South American ace Iyo Pimental in the opening singles match. Dennis Ralston met Orlando Bracamonte in the second match.

The winner of the American Zone finals goes to Bourne-mouth, England, Sept. 26-28, to take on the European Zone titlists. The next hurdle would be India in November, then on to Adelaide, Australia, to challenge the Aussies Dec. 26-28.

OPERATE JOINT TEAM
HOUSTON (UPI)—The Houston Colts and Boston Red Sox will operate a joint team in the Florida Instructional League this winter. "We are sharing a team with the Red Sox because neither of us had quite enough young players in the early developing stage to fill an entire team," Houston general manager Paul Richards said.
