

Congregational Activities Noted For Sunday, Week

The members and friends of the Congregational church will meet for worship at 11 a.m. Sunday at Hoover Grade school. The school is the temporary meeting place of the church while plans are being made for the construction of a new sanctuary unit at the corner of East Jackson st. and Berkeley Way.

The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the church, will preach a sermon entitled, "Where Are the Nine?" The church choir will sing its first service of the fall under the direction of Charles F. Martin. Mrs. Raymond Powers will be at the organ.

During the worship hour, church school classes will be held for all children through sixth grade. The classes will meet in their regular assigned places in Hoover school.

Sunday evening the senior high youth of the church will have their first meeting of the fall. All ninth through twelfth grade young people are invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gatewood G. Smith, 705 West 10th st., for a pizza supper and discussion of the coming year. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. and close promptly at 9 p.m.

Also on Sunday evening, a group of adult leaders of the church's youth ministry will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tull, 401 Ardmore ave., at 7:30 p.m.

The choir will meet for rehearsal on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Richardson, 749 West 14th st.

Thursday at 8 p.m., a congregational business meeting of the church will be held in the sanctuary of St. Luke's Methodist church, Siskiyou Blvd. The purpose of the meeting is to hear the report of the building committee relative to the opening of bids for construction of the church's new sanctuary and educational unit, and to take appropriate congregational action toward the building of new facilities at the earliest possible date.

St. Mark's Plans Rally Day Sunday
Rally day at St. Mark's Episcopal church will be marked Sunday by the resumption of the Fall and Winter schedule of services, and the reopening of the church school with classes for all age levels.

Holy communion will be celebrated at 8 a.m. and registration of classes will begin at 9:15 a.m. Nursery through five year olds should be accompanied by their parents to their classrooms in Dagwell hall, 212 North Oakdale ave. Primary children (first, second, and third grades) will report at the Guild hall, corner of Fifth st. and North Oakdale ave. for registration at 9:15 a.m.

Senior department students (fourth grade through high school) will attend family worship service beginning at 9:30 a.m. in the church. Classroom registration will be completed at the conclusion of the service. Music at the family service will be led by St. Mark's Choristers under the direction of Mrs. Ann Wirkkula. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster will deliver the sermon.

Nursery care will be available for the convenience of parents in the Annex vestibule during the 9:30 and 11 a.m. service. The rector will preach at the 11 a.m. service of morning prayer when music will be sung by St. Mark's Senior choir directed by John E. Drysdale. Following the service a social hour will be held in the parish hall.

Newcomers to the valley and others without affiliation will be welcome at all services.

St. Luke's Theme To Be Missions
Missions will be the theme of the Sunday morning worship service at St. Luke's Methodist church where the Rev. Charles R. McDonald, pastor of the church, has chosen for his sermon subject: "Man From India."

St. Luke's church is located at 2320 Siskiyou Blvd., across the street from the Hoover school. Sunday worship begins at 11 a.m.

The morning worship service at St. Luke's is preceded by church school for all ages at 9:45 a.m.

Commitment Sunday at 1st Church of Nazarene

"Our Commitment" is the message topic by the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, Sunday morning.

For five weeks now the church, which is located at 520 North Holly st., has been in a stewardship program. The general theme has been "Tithing Puts God First." Various laymen have spoken in each of the major services on "Why I Tithed." The final four-minute testimony of the series will be given by John Dean in the 11 a.m. church service.

The church is seeking to underwrite its budget goal of $64,000 for its world, district, and local mission obligations. Lisle Young is general chairman of the program.

Music under the direction of Perry Christiansen, minister of music and education for the church, will include the sanctuary choir singing "Conflict of the Ages," and a duet by Mrs. Rex Vowell and Dean von Stein for the morning service. Music in the 7 p.m. service will include a trio by Mrs. Bill Brewster, Velma Myers, and Mrs. Vowell. The pastor's message will be "Our Salvation."

Series Continues At 1st Southern Baptist Sunday
The Rev. G. O. Skaar, minister of First Southern Baptist church, will give the sixth in a series of sermons on the Ten Commandments Sunday morning at the worship hour. His subject will be "Respect For Life."

In the evening he will speak on "Respect for Purity." Dennis Sampels will direct the congregational singing. Training Union classes will convene at the new time of 6:30 p.m.

Wednesday evening studies on what Baptists believe about God will continue at the prayer meeting hour of 8 p.m.

The woman's missionary society will begin the annual week of prayer for home missions Monday, Sept. 16. Meetings will be held at the church Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 10 a.m. and Wednesday at 8 to 9 p.m. Theme for the programs will be "Going, Bearing, Rejoicing." A different topic will be introduced each day including the Canadian work, Mt. Baker Assembly, the Rehabilitation center, Seattle, and others.

Zion Returns to Regular Schedule
Zion Lutheran Church, Fourth st. and Oakdale ave., will return to their regular schedule of worship Sunday.

The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a.m. and the worship will be at 11 a.m. The Rev. H. C. Covert's sermon topic for the Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity will be entitled "Concentrate On These Gifts."

The senior choir will sing the anthem "Give Thanks Unto The Lord."

Following the morning worship a reception will be held in the social hall to honor Mr. and Mrs. Covert on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

The Senior Luther league will meet at the church at 5 p.m. Sunday and will go from there to Lithia Park for a picnic. All young people of the congregation in senior high school are invited.
