

Many Guests Attend Wedding

When Miss Virginia Louise Wilson became the bride of Russell L. Frink September 7 in Medford Friends church, relatives and friends from numerous Oregon and California cities were among the guests.

The candlelight ceremony was performed by Mr. Jack L. Willcuts at 8 o'clock in the evening. The double ring rites were used.

Over three hundred guests attended the ceremony and some 250 were at the reception given by the bride's parents in the church rooms.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Wilson, 3045 Table Rock road, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Morris L. Frink, 3067 Linden lane, Central Point.

Mr. Wilson gave his daughter in marriage.

Wears Lace
The bride's gown of Chantilly lace and silk organza over tafeta was designed with a basque bodice and long sleeves of lace. The Sabrina neckline was embroidered in pearls and iridescent sequins, and the front of the organza bell-shaped skirt was trimmed with lace appliques and pearls and sequins. A sheperdess back accented the waistline, with a single organza rose centered in a bow with streamers. A band of scalloped lace extended from the waistline to the hemline on either side of the chapel train. Her bouffant veil of hand-rolled silk illusion was elbow length and was held by a cap of pleated tulle with inner tiara of pearls and crystals. The bridal bouquet was of gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Delton Trautman, Corvallis, was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Joyce Sasaki, Sherwood, Ore., a school friend of the bride, and Miss Judy Frink, Central Point, a sister of the bridegroom.

Dresses Are Yellow
Their dresses were of pale yellow silk organza with bell skirts and short bolero jackets. Their matching pillbox hats of net held their short veils. They carried bouquets of gladioli centered with white pompon chrysanthemums, the gladioli in each attendant's bouquet being in a different pastel shade.

June Hopkins, Central Point was flower girl. James Frink, White City, served as best man for his brother, and ushers were Lyle Walthers, Central Point, and Davis Burns and Donald Wilson, brother of the bride, both Medford.

Baskets of yellow and white gladioli decorated the church. Mrs. Ray Chamberlain, Eagle Point, a longtime friend of the bride's family, played the organ music and Miss Cheryl Ghelardi, a school friend of the bride, was the soloist.

Grandparents Attend
Among the guests were the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Belle Smith, Gold Hill, and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson, Medford; the bridegroom's grandmothers, Mrs. Sadie Cyphers, Central Point, his father's mother, and Mrs. L. A. Brennescholtz, Medford.

The reception was held in the church rooms. The bride's table was centered with the wedding cake encircled with yellow and white carnations. The sterling silver coffee service and candelabra had been loaned by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watson.

Mrs. L. K. Morris and Mrs. Charles Kroch served the cake, while Mrs. Kenneth Owens, Jacksonville, a cousin of the bride poured punch. Mrs. Carl Votshberger, Springfield, served the coffee. Mrs. Marie Pierce was reception hostess and was assisted in the decorating by Mrs. Jerry Scott.

At the gift table were Miss Vervia Beman, Central Point, Miss Diane Putman, Eagle Point and Miss Susan Cummings, Medford.

Gowns Described
For her daughter's wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a gold brocade dress with gold accessories and green cymbidium orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in an apple green printed silk frock with matching accessories and her corsage was a pink cymbidium orchid.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. Trautman; Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Lathrop, Williams; Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson, uncle and aunt of the bride, their son, David, Mrs. Larry Cork, a cousin of the bride, all Redmond; Ed Oar, Brookings; Robert Burpee, Seattle; Miss Jerri Wick, Hayward, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, uncle and aunt of the bride, their sons, Jack and David, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Smith, uncle and aunt of the bride, and daughters Debbie and Lynn, Mrs. Delmar Bernard, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Frances Ford, all Portland; and Mr. Vogtsberger, Springfield.

Pre-wedding events included a luncheon given at the Colony restaurant by the bride-elect honoring the bridesmaids.

The first of three showers which honored the bride-elect was a surprise event in the home of the bridegroom's parents, attended by relatives of the bridegroom and the bride's mother. Miss Wilson was presented gifts of linen.

Mrs. Russell L. Frink (Knackstedt photo)

Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. Frink are shown about to drink the traditional toast at the reception which followed their marriage September 7 in Medford Friends church. The bride was formerly Virginia Louise Wilson. (Knackstedt photo)

The second shower was given by Mrs. Trautman, who served as matron of honor, in the home of her sister, Mrs. Dennis Burns, Central Point. Eighteen guests, all close friends of the bride, attended.

The third shower was given by Mrs. Marie Pierce at the bride's home attended by about 25 relatives and friends of both the bride and bridegroom. Peace roses with yellow and white streamers and wedding bells decorated the home.

A bachelor dinner, a surprise event, honored the bridegroom-elect and was given in the Albert Beman and Charles Novosad homes on Crown avenue in Central Point. The honored guest also was presented gifts.

The bride and bridegroom were graduated in 1962 from Crater High school. The bride has attended University of Oregon dental school and Southern Oregon college. She has been a dental assistant in the offices of Dr. Billy Blackstone. The bridegroom attended the University of Oregon and also Southern Oregon college. He is employed by Steve Wilson Logging company.

Leaves
ASHLAND — After spending two weeks at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Yapple, 715 Elkader street, Miss Jane Yapple left for Pennsylvania State college, where she will be working for her master's degree in counseling and guidance.

Melodrama Tryouts Set

"Dirty Work at the Cross-Crossroads" an oldtime melodrama has been selected as the next Footlighter Little theater group production, Frank Pinnock, who will direct, has announced.

Tryouts for the melodrama will be conducted Monday and Tuesday, September 16 and 17 in the Footlighters theater at the Jackson county fairgrounds, near the Medford Armory. Hours will be 8 to 10 p. m., each evening.

This production is unique for this type of play, in that seven women and three men are needed for the cast, Mr. Pinnock pointed out.

The play has been adapted for production by Bill Johnson from an 1890 version.

All persons interested in trying out for the play, or are interested in other phases of little theater work are invited to be at the tryouts.

Newlyweds Make Visit To Ashland

ASHLAND — A visit in Ashland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kimsey, 605 Elkader street, was a part of the honeymoon trip taken by Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Harold Stanford following their wedding August 15 in San Diego, Calif. Mrs. Stanford is the former Judith Diane Minear and is Mrs. Kimsey's daughter. Loren Minear is her father.

The bride and her husband are both in the U.S. Navy. Mr. Stanford is a second class petty officer and Mrs. Stanford is a Wave dental technician and both are stationed in San Diego. She is a graduate of Ashland High school.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Stanford of Lexington, N.C., whom the couple visited on a plane trip to the east coast.

For the double ring ceremony, held in North Chapel of the Naval Training Base center, the bride wore a white silk floor length gown with fitted lace bodice made with sweetheart neckline and long tapered sleeves. Two wide lace tiers encircled the hemline and lace medallions were applied on the skirt front. A seed pearl crown held her circular tulle veil and she carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Kimsey, the bride's mother, chose a pink silk organza frock with tiered skirt and fitted midriff with which she wore matching accessories.

A reception for the couple was given at the home of Mr. Stanford's superior officer.

Upon their return the navy couple will be at home at 8775 Hurlburt street, Cabrillo Heights, San Diego.

Marriage Of Interest In Medford

A wedding of interest to valley residents was held recently in Beaverton when Miss Diana Rae Tomlin became the bride of Edwin John Dewey at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal church.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Bathe Manning Tomlin, Portland, and Walter T. Tomlin, 3626 Ross lane, Medford. Mr. Dewey's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin James Dewey, Vancouver, Wash.

The Rev. H. Fred McLaughlin officiated at the August 23 wedding.

The bride wore a white silk dress fashioned with fitted bodice, short sleeves, scoop neckline and gathered skirt. Her elbow length veil was held by a pearl headdress and she carried a bouquet of white gadioli and stephanotis.

Miss Patricia Wheeler, Hillsboro, attended the bride. Best man was Richard F. Boone, Vancouver, Wash.

Seating the guests were Michael J. Buono and Douglas Beeman, both Vancouver, Wash., and John W. Tomlin, brother of the bride. Candlelighters were Trent Tomlin and Phillip Keisling.

The couple traveled to Victoria, B. C. on their wedding trip, and are making their home in Portland where Mr. Dewey is assistant chief chemist for Pendleton Woolen Mills.

PROSPECT — Recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Olive Harvey were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cowdry, Ashland and Kenneth Babb, former resident, now living in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin John Dewey

Miss Rutherford Ends Vacation

Miss Sue Ann Rutherford, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Boyle, Ross lane, left the valley Thursday to return to school at St. Mary of the Woods in Indiana, where she will begin her senior year.

Miss Rutherford, who spent much of the summer on tour with a theatrical group from the school, entertaining under the auspices of the United Service Organizations in the North-East command area, is one of four students at the Indiana school chosen to plan social activities at the college for the coming year. She is a pianist.

Opposite Dress Party Theme At Shady Cove

SHADY COVE — A vice versa party for Shady Cove-Trail Lions club members, their wives and other guests recently was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jantzer.

Men attended the event dressed as women, and the women as men.

Chosen "Queen of the Ball" was James Tyrrell, Medford, who wore a green dress, a blond wig, false eyelashes and high heeled slippers.

Mrs. Ray Chubb was judged the "most interesting gentleman." She was dressed as a logger with tin hat and size 15 boots.

Entertainment included dancing and swimming in the Jantzers' pool.

A late evening dinner was served by the auxiliary to the club.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ehrheart, Mr. and Mrs. Chubb, Mr. and Mrs. William Croucher, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stelle, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Aberge, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Spain, Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Harmon, George Barney, the hosts, and invited guests, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McKillop, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jantzer, Mr. and Mrs. Tyrrell and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Proctor.

Leave

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Molschenbacher have returned to their home in Seattle after being houseguests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Molschenbacher, 1729 Old Stage road.

Local Woman Home From Trip

Mrs. Allyn Monroe has returned from Ukiah, Calif., where she for fires for the U. S. Forest and to observe with Mr. Monroe their wedding anniversary. Mr. Monroe is flying patrol checking for fires for the U. S. Forest service.

While there, the couple was entertained at an anniversary luncheon. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Butler, Mrs. Elsa Haense of Petaluma, Calif., and Mrs. Alice Curtis.

Another event in the couple's honor was a cocktail and dinner party at Clear Lake lodge given by Mrs. Meta Poole and sons, Oscar and Martin Poole. Other guests were Mrs. Gladys Hendricks, William Boyd, Mrs. Gerald Oswalds of London, England and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Buttin.

Pastor, Wife New In Ashland

ASHLAND — The Rev. and Mrs. Elbert Galloway have arrived in Ashland and the minister has assumed his duties at Calvary Baptist church. Mr. Galloway has been pastor of a church in Pinehurst, Wash., a suburb of Everett, and has also taught in the Everett public schools for the past seven years.

The Galloways have purchased a home on Clover lane.

Vicki Ingram Honored Guest; Wedding Held

Miss Vicki Ann Ingram, who was married to Steven Underwood, September 8 in a ceremony at Zion Lutheran church, was honored earlier this month at a kitchen shower given by Miss Linda Nash and her mother, Mrs. A. L. Nash, at their home, 2075 South Pacific highway.

Miss Ingram is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ingram, 1457 Whitman avenue, and Mr. Underwood's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. Fred Underwood, 1389 Kings highway.

Shower guests included the Misses Pam and Jean Miller, Judy Dixon, Susan and Sharon Baize, Laurie Beth Buonocore, Jacqueline Crofoot, Peggy Biechers, Loretta Lampman, Patricia Borough, Sue House, Martha Graham, Allida Guiley, Connie King, Vivian Little, Jill Crawford, and Nancy Simcox, Mrs. R. B. Miller, Mrs. E. W. Ingram, Mrs. Lorene Babcock, and Mrs. C. F. Underwood.

The Misses Crofoot and Susan and Sharon Baize won prizes for the various games played during the evening.

Pink and white carnations decorated the refreshments table. Miss Nash and Miss Sue House served.

Mrs. Walter Speare, 908 Whitman street, wore this formal gown of ivory-colored moire and black velvet when she and Mr. Speare attended the opening performance of the San Francisco Opera company's 1963 season Friday night. Honored guests at the event, which always attracts opera fans and socialites from many far western cities, were King Mohammed Zahir and Queen In-maira of Afghanistan who are on a tour of the United States. They were to be seated in Box A with Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Herbert Adler of San Francisco. Friday's opera was "Aida" with the famed American soprano, Leontyne Price, starred. Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Speare had tickets for "La Sonnambula" and the noted Australian soprano, Joan Sutherland, sang the leading role.

Orange Blossom
ENGAGEMENT AND WEDDING RINGS

Our Diamonds Are Imported Directly From South Africa

Lawrence's
Southern Oregon's Diamond Center
21 N. CENTRAL Est. 1908
Convenient Terms If Desired

Marjorie's Back...

(the new baby is doing fine)
We know you will welcome her to our staff of expert stylists.
• Chris Rose • Sharon Eads Osborn
• Anne Bruning • Fay Rashe

Rose Beauty Center

For Appointments
PHONE -- 773-1841
"The Pink House on the Corner of East Jackson and Genesee"

Marjorie Hoffine

November Rites Set

TRAIL — Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hume, Trail, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Josephine Carol Hume, to Kenneth Carrel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ocie J. Carrel, Broadus, Tex.

Miss Hume is a junior at Southern Oregon college and her fiance is serving at the present with the Navy.

A late November wedding is planned.

Visitor

ASHLAND — Mrs. Charles V. Carmichael, Newport Beach, Calif., was a week end visitor in the valley en route to a vacation in Alaska by way of the inland passage. Mr. and Mrs. Carmichael formerly lived in Talent.

Students Plan To Attend Rites

Miss Alice Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Claude Thompson, Scenic avenue, Central Point, is leaving by motor Monday for a trip to the Olympic Peninsula with an Oregon State university classmate, Miss Nancy Van Valzah, formerly of Medford and now of Springfield.

The two students also will motor to Newport, Ore., to attend the September wedding of Miss Darlene Fogarty and Michael Beyerle before returning to Oregon State university, where both are seniors.

Miss Van Valzah, her mother, Mrs. C. G. Van Valzah, and sister, Janan, are visiting in Medford this weekend.

FILL-IN-LOOK
by Gantex® $2.00

For wear with sweaters, weskits, pullovers, etc.

Wonderful collection of turtleneck fill-ins, orlon knits, black, white and red. Slip in tomorrow, they're so low priced you'll want several!

FREE PARKING
Park & Shop free in any P&S lot while shopping at Woods.

Open Fridays Until 9 P.M.

PARKER WOODS
Specialty Shop
220 East Main

Newberys PRICE BUSTERS

OPEN SUNDAYS 10 a.m. - 5:20 p.m.

Bring the whole family... shop in all 54 big departments, where the selection is wide... the savings big. Treat the family to a delicious luncheon at our

ROGUE SIDEWALK CAFE

SUNDAY & MONDAY ONLY... Charge It

WHITE COTTONS

- ALL COTTON
- WASHABLE
- 36"x45" WIDE

4 Yards for $1

WOOLENS

- 54" Wide
- Assorted Colors
- 1-Yd. to 4-Yd. Lengths

$1.99 yd.

JERSEY

- All Acetate
- 45" Wide

$1.27 yd.

SHOPPING CENTER ONLY

635 E. JACKSON - ACRES OF FREE PARKING