College Students Wed In Ceremony at Hotel

ASHLAND—The Caesar room of the Mark Anthony hotel was the setting for the September 7 wedding of Diane Yvonne DeLuca and Sidney Bruce DeBoer. More than 125 guests witnessed the 7:30 o'clock evening ceremony performed by Justice of the Peace Norman Matteson, Gold Hill.

The bride, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis DeLuca, Delta, Colo., is a graduate of Phoenix, Ore. high school and has been a student at Southern Oregon college. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter DeBoer, 760 Clay street, Ashland. After graduating from Ashland High school he attended Stanford university at Palo Alto, Calif., and Stanford in Florence, Italy. He has enrolled this fall at the University of Oregon.

Wears Organza

The bride wore a floor length gown of white organza over tulle with a long train. The dress was accented with sequins and long tapered sleeves. A miniature princess crown of seed pearls and crystals held her elbow length silk illusion veil. She carried a cascade of carnations and stephanotis in blue and white and a lace handkerchief given her by the bridegroom's mother.

Mr. DeLuca gave his daughter in marriage. Bridal attendants were Miss Patricia Ann DeLuca, the bride's sister, and Miss Janice Gay DeBoer, sister of the bridegroom, who were gowned alike in blue and white. The bridesmaids wore matching white headpieces with float veils and each carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations.

Cathy Beeson of Talent served as flower girl. She wore a bouffant blue chiffon frock and carried a basket of white rose petals. The bride's brother, Ronnie DeLuca, carried the rings.

Brother Best Man

Mr. DeBoer had as best man his brother, Robert DeBoer. John Leslie Hiron, Eugene, his brother-in-law, ushered guests to their seats.

Miss Barbara Clinton was soloist and Miss Caroline Beeson of Talent played the organ. Garden flowers decorated the ball room and were used about the patio where a reception was held immediately after the ceremony. The wedding cake was made and cut by Miss Diane Booher, Curtin, Ore., cousin of the bridegroom, and also served were the groom's cake made by the bridegroom's mother and Italian pastries which the bride's mother had made.

Miss Linda Davis and Miss Barbara Nisle served punch and Mrs. Philip Holt, Creswell, aunt of the bridegroom, presided at the coffee urn. Miss Clinton and Miss Beeson supervised the gift table and the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. John L. Hiron, was in charge of the guest book.

For their two-week motor trip to Victoria, B.C. by way of the coast Mrs. DeBoer wore a pink and white linen tailored suit with iridescent accessories. Her mother's silk suit was of tangerine and white with matching hat and white accessories. Mrs. DeBoer chose a beige and blue ensemble with beige accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLuca entertained members of the two families for an Italian dinner at the Presbyterian Ceremony Held

Miss Victoria Marie Italiano became the bride of Stuart Tracy Crum in a ceremony held September 8 at Westminster Presbyterian church. The Rev. John O. Reynolds officiated at the double ring ceremony held at two o'clock in the afternoon. Some 125 relatives and friends attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Doris B. Pynn, Cottage Grove, Ore., and Frank J. Italiano, LaCrosse, Wis. Mr. Crum is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hawk, 809 Grant street.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace and silk organza over tulle. It was fashioned with Basque bodice, long sleeves and Sabrina neckline accented with pearls and iridescent sequins; the bouffant organza overskirt was banded with scalloped lace. The over-skirt was caught up in front and back by organza bows to show a wide lace ruffle. Her bouffant veil of handrolled silk illusion was held by a queen's crown of pearls and rhinestones and she carried a crescent bouquet of white chrysanthemums and flowers.

Attendant in Beige

Miss Beth Bricher, Cottage Grove, attended the bride. She wore a two piece beige dress and carried a cascade bouquet of pompon chrysanthemums.

John Fawcett served as best man and seating the guests were Edwin B. Stuart and Martin David, cousins of the bridegroom, and George Italiano, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Richard Wyatt played the organ wedding music. Bronze dahlias and zinnias decorated the church.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pynn chose a turquoise chalk crepe sheath dress with matching hat and accessories. Her flowers were white carnations.
