

Miss Oregon Bride of Richard Foulon

Miss Karen D. Patterson, Rogue River, was honor attendant and bridesmaids and matron were Miss Robin Wyatt, Los Angeles, sister of the bride; Miss Heather McNeill, Cannon Beach, Ore.; Miss Julianne Yoakley, Central Point, and Mrs. David Rasmussen, Medford. Miss Laurie Wyatt, Jacksonville, was junior bridesmaid for her sister.

Wear Gold Brocade
They wore floor length gowns of gold brocade fashioned with scoop necklines, cap sleeves and bell skirts which had small trains. Their flowers were white carnations and orange blossoms on white and gold net and lace fans, designed and made by Mrs. Joe Roberts, Burbank, Calif., aunt of the bride.

Roberta Allen, Gold Hill, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and Danny Watson, Burbank, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Gordan DeArmond, Crescent Lake, Ore., served as best man. Seating the guests were Brent Carter, Sacramento; Morris Smith, Tacoma, Wash.; Charles Frederick Foulon, Klamath Falls, brother of the bridegroom; Edward Foulon Jr., another brother, and Shelby Calloway, Grants Pass.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed in the church parlors, Mrs. Wyatt chose a green brocade dress with matching hat, shoes and purse and beige accessories. Mrs. Foulon, stepmother of the bridegroom, wore a dark blue dress with white accessories. Their corsages were gardenias.

Many Assist
Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Evangeline McNeill, Miss Helen Jean McNeill, both Cannon Beach, Mrs. Russell McIntyre, Mrs. John Crabb, Mrs. Woodrow McCormack, Mrs. John Keaveny, Mrs. Fred Edens, Mrs. Lester Wilcox, Miss Deanna Dean, Portland; Miss Marleen Laws, Seaside; Miss Jan Ardway, Seaside; Mrs. Lloyd Neilson, Miss Gloria Winiford, Miss Linda McIntyre, Becky McIntyre, and Kathy McCormack. Miss Janet Huener was in charge of the guest book and Steven Wyatt, brother of the bride, Mrs. Harley Hall and Miss Marlene Hall were at the gift table.

The newlyweds traveled to the Oregon coast and into California on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a white wool dress with matching jacket and black accessories. They will make their home at 608 California street, Jacksonville.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Medford High school. She will be a sophomore and the bridegroom a senior at Southern Oregon college this fall. Mr. Foulon has been employed at the Medford post office.

Among the out of town guests who attended the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Foulon, father and stepmother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Fredrick Foulon and two children, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. John Manning, all Klamath Falls; Mrs. Coy Watson, Los Angeles, Calif., grandmother of the bride; Mrs. DeArmond, Crescent Lake, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lough, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Judd, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Freid, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Fitzpatrick and four children, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, all Chiloquin, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. James Foulon and four daughters, Santa Barbara, Calif., brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom; Mr. Roberts, Burbank, Calif., uncle of the bride, and Robby; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Allen, Gold Hill, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom; and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Patterson and children, Teresa and Dennis, Wimer, Ore.

The evening prior to the wedding Miss Yoakley, John Yoakley and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yoakley, were hosts for a dinner for members of the bridal party and family relatives.

Ashland Women To Attend Event

ASHLAND — The Presbyterian Women's association made plans for attending the South-west Oregon Presbyterian sessions September 17 in the Central Point Presbyterian church when members met in the Ashland church sanctuary September 5. Mrs. Lindsay Phillips conducted the business meeting in the morning.

Mrs. Robert Stephenson presented the afternoon program which was entitled "A Cable from Pakistan." After describing the country and telling of some of its problems she led in a discussion of mission needs. Mrs. Eugene Clark gave the Year Book of Prayer devotions and Mrs. C. A. Stothers led in the offertory singing.

Hostesses for the luncheon were the Mesdames Pierre Roberts, Bert Freeman, R. M. Atwood, Clyde Smith, B. J. Holland and C. A. Stothers.

Student Leaves For Gonzaga

Miss Deanna Hull, daughter of Mrs. Lawrence Hull of Table Rock, is among valley students who have returned to college for the fall term. She is a senior at Gonzaga university in Spokane, Wash., and left Saturday to register on the northern campus. Miss Hull spent much of the summer traveling in Europe.

Past presidents of the Medford branch, American Association of University Women, poured and served at the recent membership tea of the group. Mrs. A. J. Johansson pours coffee for Miss Jean Smith, center, as Mrs. John Stong, right, offers her cookies. Mrs. Lloyd Bishop is president of the branch this year. Persons interested in membership or obtaining more information about AAUW may telephone Mrs. Jeffrey Shute, membership chairman, at 773-1198. The 11 interest groups sponsored by the branch are open to all women.

Prospect Students To Return to SOC
