Guardian Honored By Bethel

Mrs. Harold McIssac, Parkdale, Ore., grand guardian for the International Order of Job's Daughters in this state, was honored guest at the first fall meeting of Bethel 69 in Medford. Mrs. McIssac was honored at a dinner at North's Chuck Wagon preceding the session, held in Medford Masonic temple, and she was presented a nosegay of carnations.

Honored Queen Charlotte Martin conducted the session which included inspection, initiation and installation of both Bethel and guardian council officers.

Installed were Mrs. Fred L. Walker, promoter of hospitality; Mrs. LaVerne Bramhall, director of merits; Fred Purdin, director of fraternal relations; Mrs. Lorene Babcock, promoter of publicity; Mrs. A. C. Smith, guardian secretary, and Mrs. Gatewood Smith, director of transportation; Sonya Eri, Bethel treasurer; Joyce Levson, inner guard; and Martha Downing, second messenger.

Mrs. McIssac installed the council members and a past queen, Miss Linda Nash, installed the Bethel officers.

Mrs. Betty Donney, guardian of Bethel 71, Grants Pass, and Mrs. R. S. Mayfield, guardian of Bethel 55 Medford, were escorted and honored. Honored Queen Sharon DeMaris, Bethel 71, Grants Pass, Past Queens Camille Eri and Linda Nash of Bethel 69, Medford, were escorted and honored. Mrs. John North, past guardian of Bethel 69 was introduced.

Mr. McIssac, grand senior custodian was introduced and explained to the girls how the money from their candy sale is distributed.

Reporting on grand session was Christie Ayres, Linda North reported on the swim party and Karen Lord on the hay ride and summer outings.

Cheryl Bramhall sang a solo "If God So Clothes the Grass" written by the founder of Job's Daughters, Mrs. Ethel T. Wead Mick.

Mrs. McIssac presented Queen Charlotte a porcelain heart.

An addendum was presented by officers and girls depicting the Lord's Prayer, and the prayer was sung by Cheryl Bramhall.

Mrs. Walker and her committee served refreshments in the dining room which was decorated with hibiscus grown by Mrs. Kenneth Cearly, guardian of the Bethel.

KANSAS CITY — Christmas cards painted by Mrs. John F. Kennedy for the benefit of the National Cultural center, Washington, D.C., are being printed by Hallmark Cards in Kansas City, Mo. "Glad Tidings" (top) is trimmed in gold with white angel blowing a gold trumpet on a blue-gray background. The second card "Journey of the Magi" has a red background with gold stars and gold flakes throughout, black camels and men dressed in colorful clothing.

Many Social Activities Planned for Visitors

While their husbands bring themselves up to date on what's new in the world of animals, wives of Oregon veterinarians will be conducting their own business and social program in conjunction with the annual fall clinic of the Oregon Veterinary Medical association set 19-21 at Medford.

A local Medford committee of veterinarians' wives, headed by Mrs. J. W. Bayliss as chairman and including Mesdames G. N. Gilzen, E. M. Hanawal, J. E. Perry, D. P. Phillips, C. G. Spouler, L. J. van Dijk, W. W. Weller and R. F. Wilcox, has arranged a series of luncheons, dinners and tours during the three day meeting.

Thursday, September 19 at 7:30 p.m. at North's Chuck Wagon, auxiliary members will dine smorgasbord style with the veterinarian delegates.

Golf Planned Friday morning will be devoted to registration and golf at the Rogue Valley Country club, starting at 8 a.m. An auxiliary luncheon, followed by a business meeting, is on the agenda for Friday afternoon in the Top Flight room of the country club. Friday evening a social hour, starting at 6:30 p.m. at the Country club, will be followed by a banquet and dance. The banquet will honor past presidents of the OVMA in commemoration of the centennial year of the American Veterinary Medical association.

Saturday morning, following a coffee hour at the Thunderbird motel, wives will make a tour of Bear Creek Orchards and conclude with a noon luncheon at Kim's.

Auxiliary officers include Mrs. R. C. Storey, Malilla, president; Mrs. R. H. Peterson, Tillamook, president-elect; Mrs. R. E. Koenig, Portland, secretary; Mrs. P. R. Morgan, Coos Bay, treasurer; Mrs. W. H. Steele, Portland, recorder.

Son Honored UNION CREEK — Mrs. Emil Sabol gave a party recently in honor of her son, David, on his sixth birthday anniversary.

Beauty School Graduate Takes Examinations

HORN BROOK — Mrs. Wayne Cummins and daughter, Miss Shirley Moffett, were recently in Portland where Miss Moffett took the examinations given by the Oregon State Board of Cosmetologists. She is a recent graduate of the Medford Beauty school.

Since this was the first time either Mrs. Cummins or her daughter had been in the Oregon city, they took a Greyline tour of the area, stopping at Lloyd's shopping center, the Lambert rose gardens, Reed college, and other points of interest.

Miss Moffett's marriage to Richard Lee Van Orman of Winston, Ore., was an event of September 15 in Hornbrook.

Meeting Announced By Woman's Society WILDERVILLE — Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Wilderville Methodist church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Koenig Sunday, September 22. Mr. and Mrs. Koenig reside at 326 N. E. Josephine street, Grants Pass.

Wool Sewing Event Open To County Seamstresses

Young Jackson and Josephine county seamstresses from 13 through 21 are invited to enter an annual contest sponsored by the Women's auxiliary to the National Wool Growers association in cooperation with the American Wool council, Mrs. H. W. Wait, Rickreall, state contest chairman has announced.

The contest is open at the present time and will close October 26 with judging and a public style show in the Jackson County Home Extension building at the Jackson county fairgrounds.

Entry forms may be obtained at the extension building, local yardage departments and sewing centers, Mrs. Wait explained.

The Junior and Senior winners from this district will compete in a state-wide contest in Portland on November 3 and 4. State winners will receive expense paid trips to Albuquerque, N. M., and on January 20 will model in the national finals.

The national winners will be offered such prizes as a 14-day tour of Caribbean via Pan American jet plane, college scholarships, savings bonds, and others.

Garnments made for 4-H projects, including winning entries in the Oregon State Fair, will be eligible for competition in the "Make It Yourself With Wool" contest as long as they meet qualifications for the division and are made of 100 per cent wool loomed in America, Mrs. Wait stated. She emphasized that the wool must be loomed in this country.

However, all school girls, young married women and career women within the age limit are invited to enter the wool sewing contest, the 17th annual one to be conducted.

Contest divisions, the chairman explains, are Sub Deb, restricted to the county level only, to give beginning seamstresses, 13 through 15, experience in future contests; Junior division for girls 14 through 17 and the Senior division for those 18 through 21.

Session Planned For Amaranth Grand court officers will be honored at a meeting of Roxy Ann court, Order of the Amaranth, to be held Thursday, September 19, in Medford Masonic temple. This will be the first fall meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bishop, royal matron and patron, will preside. Visiting members of the order are invited to attend.

Last month 30 court members attended an annual picnic held at Diamond lake.

Public Invited To Card Party The public is invited to a pin-oche card party to be sponsored by the Get Together club Friday, September 20 beginning at 1 p.m. in Girls Community club. A dessert luncheon will be served.

Visitors PROSPECT — Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bishop, Prospect, were Mr. Bishop's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Almer Diers. The Diers went fishing and sightseeing while in the area.

Institute Set Friday

The annual institute for the Medford Council of Church Women will be conducted Friday, September 20 in the Jacksonville Presbyterian church, instead of September 21, as previously announced, Mrs. C. Weldon Kline, chairman points out. The date had been incorrectly furnished for publication of the event, she explained.

The morning meeting will open informally at 9 a.m., when coffee will be served. The meeting is to close at 11:15 a.m.

Christian Missions in Southern Asia and the Changing City Challenges the Church, will be the program theme.

An offering also will be taken for migrant work projects.
