Defense Mistrust Told by Rep. Green

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Edith Green (D-Ore.) said Wednesday that Oregonians have a "great mistrust" of the civil defense program, which she described as a "dumping ground for political hacks and has-beens."

Mrs. Green, in a House speech opposed the proposed expenditure of $2.1 billion for fallout shelters as part of a civil defense program which she said would be of no value in a nuclear war.

"Proponderant sentiment is against the program, which has proven to be a paper tiger," Mrs. Green said of the attitude toward civil defense in her state.

Portland, Ore., dropped out of the civil defense program despite a personal plea to the City Council by Assistant Defense Secretary Stewart Pittman.

She told the House that the state civil defense radio network had proved to be of no value to Oregon when it was struck by a devastating windstorm on Oct. 12, 1962.

Discrimination Charged in Salem

SALEM (UPI) — A Portland couple has filed charges of racial discrimination in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Compton McKinzie filed charges with the civil rights division of the State Labor Bureau in Portland. The couple said they had paid a deposit on a West Salem apartment, and were given a key. But when they arrived to take possession, they found the lock had been changed and the apartment occupied.

It marked the third charge of discrimination against Negroes in the Salem area in recent months.

In one a woman was able to move into a house after she sought help from the civil rights division. In another incident a woman complained to the governor that two attempts by her to purchase a house in Salem had been foiled. She said purchase agreements were canceled after she had made earnest money payments.

Youngster Killed By Fork Lift Truck

SALEM (UPI) — John Severt Jr., 2, died at a Stayton hospital Tuesday of injuries he received when a fork lift truck ran over him at a fertilizer plant at Shaw, east of here.

State police said the boy's father, John Severt Sr., said he had been unloading sacks of fertilizer and that the boy apparently wandered in back of the fork lift truck.
