BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

Here's a surprising fact... Since the end of World War II, only one major college has had a winning football season every year... That school is Penn State...

Did you know that a minor league baseball player once hit more home runs in one season than either Roger Maris or Babe Ruth... In 1954, in the Longhorn League, Joe Bauman smashed out 72 home runs...

Did you know there's only one athlete today who's reached the big leagues in both pro football and baseball... He is Carroll Hardy... Hardy played his pro football with the San Francisco 49ers in 1955...

We still have a few 1963 Ramblers that are listed at Used Car Prices so they will be sold by the time the 1964 model Ramblers arrive. Hurry on down to either one of our lots and ask about one of these bargains...

Tornado Gridmen At Boise Tonight

Medford High football fans, except for a small venturesome delegation, will be radio-side spectators this evening. For the Black Tornado is far away for interstate competition.

White the local gridiron lies in darkness, the Tornadoes will engage Boise in the capital of the state of Idaho. Kickoff is planned for 8 p.m.

Oregon's defending champion takes on a reported rising gridiron force of the Potato state. The whirlwind is making its first football venture into Idaho. It is the first Medford grid game with an Idaho aggregation since Nampa came here in 1948.

Coach Fred Spiegelberg's Tornado charges will match their multiple offense against the T formation with variation of Coach Ed Knecht's Boise charges. For Medford, Boise is something of an unknown quantity and quality because scouting notes are scant.

MHS Attack The Tornadoes will use the rushing of Bill Eynart, Tim Murray, Lance Casebeer, Greg Gandee, Ron Edmonds, Jim Cox, Larry Vowell and Mike Barnes with marshalling and passing by Barnes and Rich Knight.

Boise's attack is geared by a quarterback whose actions could belie his name—Paul Gentle. Other top backs are Verne Morse, Robbie Shellworth and Steve Mooney. Morse was a regular halfback last year. Shellworth is the only letterman among the starting backs.

Medford will put a squad on the field with more than 20 wearers of the 'M'. There are 14 Boise lettermen, nine of whom are on the starting offensive team and three of whom play on the defensive unit.

Coach Knecht said this week that he employs completely separate offensive and defensive platoons. For Medford some four or five youths may go both ways.

back, and Bill Eynart, fullback. For defense it would be Lynn Flinders and Bill Houston, ends; Hardwith and Mayfield, tackles; Terry Winetroot and Peterson, guards; Dick Boltger and Eynart, linebackers, and Jim Cox, Rich Knight and Ron Edmonds, safeties.

The defensive gang may be Jim Hibel and Larry Corbridge, ends; Jody Olson and Don Wood, tackles; Gary Maccomb and Bob Hough, guards; Kent Scott and Steve Brown, cornermen; Rick Thomas, middle back, and Ken Chandler and Tim Dunne, safeties. Hough was named in place of Walt Horsewood, who has an injured knee.

Jalopy Men Test Skills On Sunday Fans of Jalopy auto racing will get an indication Sunday afternoon of how local cars and drivers will fare when put on the track with one of the top jalopy drivers of the West. Jack Keck, top competition driver from jalopy racing in Reno, Nev., will compete on the oval at White City along with some 50 local drivers in nine event action. Keck, along with team members Warren Welsh and Bill Butler, will bring the first car from outside the Rogue valley to race on the Speedway this summer. Welsh and Butler are well known among fans of drag racing in this area for their performances with their "Shoehorn" dragster some years back.

To Help Keck Drag-racers sometimes turn to other types of automotive competition and this has been the case with the Reno pair. Not having enough money during the past summer to finance their dragster operation they turned to driving jalopies in Reno and other Nevada tracks. Both are among the top drivers at the Nevada oval, and though they are not bringing their own cars to Medford, are expected to help Keck with driving chores Sunday.

This will be a homecoming appearance for Keck, since he is a former valley resident and started his racing career on the old Ashland speedway. Heading up the local drivers this Sunday will be such entries as Jim Walker, Talent; Pat Tyler, Medford; Charles Davis, Ashland; Harvey Nelson, Eagle Point; and Sam Dykes, Medford. These are the top five point drivers at the track and are expected to lend keen competition for all comers. Other drivers among the top ten at the Speedway oval include Bill Chase, Central Point; Dave McCullom, Medford; John Jones, Ashland; John Bush, Eagle Point, and Dick Henry, Talent.

Another destruction derby is planned for the final event Sunday. Some 12 or more stock cars will vie in a massive free-for-all. Charles Davis, Ashland Fire Chief, won the last destruction race. Women drivers will hang fenders in a powder puff event. Deander is Mrs. Johnny Jones, Ashland.

Time trials are slated to begin at 12:30 p.m. with first races at 2 p.m. Sunday's program should conclude by 4:30 track officials stated. Concessions are available at the track.

STEERS PIRATES—Ron Williams, above, is quarterback of the Phoenix high football aggregation which will be at Coquille this evening for non-league competition.

CRUSADER LINEMAN — John Lucas, above, is a 155-pound senior letterman guard for the St. Mary's High school football Crusaders who play at Glendale this evening.

Archery Hunting Should Be Good PORTLAND (UPI)—Hunting prospects for the week end, compiled by the Oregon state game commission. Southwest: Douglas County poor for doves, pigeons and silver grey squirrels. Pigeon hunting improving in southern Josephine county. fair along south coast. Archery hunting should be good in Rogue unit.

FOLLEY VICTOR BOISE (UPI)—Big John Tigger Collins pondered the wreckage of his bid for national heavyweight standing today after falling before the skilled fists last night of veteran Zora Folley. Folley, a 71-fight campaigner who ranks among the world's best 10 heavyweights, flattened the Boise fighter in the fifth round of a rain-soaked main event at the Fairgrounds. The Chandler, Ariz., fighter weighed 210, Collins 230.

ALLEN CHOSEN SALT LAKE CITY (UPI)—Junior quarterback Ernest (Poke) Allen today was named the starter for University of Utah in Saturday night's opener with Oregon State. Allen will start in place of senior Gary Hartzfeld, who is fully recovered from an eye operation. However, Coach Ray Nagel said Hertzfeld, a talented passer, would play.

Rogue River Anticipates Better Grid Test Tonight

ROGUE RIVER — "The ball game Friday night will be a better test of what we've got," said Wayne Misener, Rogue River football coach. "It'll probably be a real rough ball game."

The Rogue River Chieftains contend at 8 o'clock this evening against Illinois Valley at Cave Junction. Both clubs are members of the Rogue league but this game will be kings-x. A league game is billed at Rogue River later in the season. Rogue River beat Glendale 33 to 13 last Friday while IV fell to Gold Beach 21 to 6.

"We've had some pretty good workouts," reported Misener. Pass defense has had stress, as it has had in earlier workouts. This phase of the game has been a Chieftain weakness in recent seasons. "I think it's improving," said the RR mentor, "but it has to be tested." A good test is anticipated this evening. IV's Darryl Gellert is a terrific passer.

Good Attitude Defense against rollouts also has had attention, as have had measures against the running of Ron Thornhill and John Baumgardner. The two gave the Chieftains trouble in 1962. A couple of new plays have been added.

Misener has been heartened by a "real good" team attitude and lack of injuries. Back Arden Lies, who has been hobbled by a bad knee, will be available for more extensive duty. His knee is responding to treatment well. Wayne Cook has been sick this week. Therefore, Dave Strickland likely will start at a tackle. Other possible starters are Gus Scheftstrom and Vern Goodrich.

TIGER COLLINS pondered the wreckage of his bid for national heavyweight standing today after falling before the skilled fists last night of veteran Zora Folley. Folley, a 71-fight campaigner who ranks among the world's best 10 heavyweights, flattened the Boise fighter in the fifth round of a rain-soaked main event at the Fairgrounds. The Chandler, Ariz., fighter weighed 210, Collins 230.

TAKES PIN HONORS PORTLAND (UPI)—National doubles champion Jack Biandolillo rolled a 701 series Thursday night for professional honors in a pro-am tournament preceding the City of Roses Open bowling tournament which began here today. Biandolillo rolled games of 254, 234 and 213 to collect the $1,000 first prize with the help of amateur partner M. E. Delzell of Grants Pass. Delzell has a 573 series and 147 handicap. High individual game honors went to Jon Joseph with 269. The pros began tournament action this morning.
