

Southern Baptists Set Annual Meeting

The Rev. G. O. Skaar, pastor of First Southern Baptist church, has chosen for his sermon Sunday morning a message on "A Mind To Work." At the evening service he will continue in his series of sermons on the Ten Commandments. His topic will be "Respect For Property."

The annual meeting of the Siskiyou Baptist association will be held starting tonight and continuing through Saturday, Sept. 21, at the First Southern Baptist church, Grants Pass.

Tonight's session will begin at 7 o'clock with the annual message by Mr. Skaar. The Rev. Austin Lovin, area missionary for southern Oregon, will deliver the missionary address. Saturday's sessions will be

Two Presbyterian Churches List Coming Activities

Central Point—The Rev. Donald Krug, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Central Point, will preach Sunday at 11 a.m. on the subject, "Teach Us to Pray." The choir, directed by Mrs. Arthur Scharf, will sing "O Holy Father" by Palestrina.

At 7 p.m. the youth groups will meet at the church for a program planning meeting and a fireside will follow at the Franklin Gebhard home.

The churchmanship classes are continuing under Dr. Krug's leadership, with the young people's session at 6 p.m. Sunday and the adults at 7:30 p.m. each Wednesday.

1957 Award of Merit Winner CHURCH NEWS National Religious Publicity Council

Dedication Service For Miss Harwood

The Congregational church of youth fellowship, church school teacher and as youth representative on church council.

Following her training at Pottstown, Miss Harwood will be assigned duties in an orphanage, settlement house, hospitals, home for the aged or a similar institution of the United Church of Christ. She will receive no salary during her year, only board and room.

During the worship hour Sunday the church school will offer classes for all children through sixth grade.

Sunday evening the Senior-High youth will meet at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John R. Watson, 115 Black Oak dr. The meeting will be from 7 to 9 p.m. and will include the election of officers for the coming year, and discussion of program and activities.

The Laymen's Fellowship will meet for breakfast Wednesday at 6:30 a.m. at Stanley's Restaurant, 510 North Riverside ave. Wednesday the choir will rehearse at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Richardson, 749 West 14th st.

Local Churches Announce Sunday Topics, Activities

At the First Presbyterian church Sunday Dr. D. Kirkland West will continue his sermon series on Romans with "Who Is a Child of God?", using the text, Romans 8:14.

The senior high choir will sing a traditional French melody for the 9:30 a.m. service, titled, "Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence." At the second morning service the chancel choir will present the anthem, "Hear My Prayer, O Lord."

Senior High Fellowship meets Sunday evening at the church with Fireside following at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Gaston, 1416 West Tenth st. They also meet each Wednesday at 5 p.m. for choir practice and a potluck supper.

Junior High Fellowship meets each Tuesday at 4 p.m. for recreation, worship and church school. The dinner will be at 6:10 p.m. at 6:30 p.m. next Tuesday the Fellowship Commission will present a surprise program.

A Bible study group is currently being presented by Dr. West in the Book of Romans. This week's study will be held at the church Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

The Men's club will hold its regular businessmen's luncheon Thursday at noon. All men are welcome to attend this time of fellowship with a short inspirational message from Dr. West. The meeting is over promptly at 12:50 p.m.

BETHEL SPEAKER — The Rev. Wayne M. Butcher, Yakima, Wash., will be guest minister at Bethel Assembly of God for a series of revival services beginning Sunday. The Sunday services are at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. The services Tuesday through Friday will be at 7:30 p.m. The church is located at 1225 East McAndrews rd.

Christian Doctrine Institute To Open

A two-day Confraternity of Christian Doctrine institute will open tonight at St. Anne's Parish hall, 8th and C sts., in Grants Pass with an address by the Rev. Bernard Hwang, OSB.

Father Hwang's topic will be "Christian Spirituality." From the Benedictine Abbey of St. Andre in Bruges, Belgium, he has conducted workshops and spoken at CCD forums in this country to spark a more intelligent and understanding activity by the layman in the work of Christian education. Father Hwang's advance studies were completed at the University of Louvain where he received his doctorate in theology.

The Institute will be open to participants from the Grants Pass, Medford and Ashland parishes, including all missions. Registrations will be taken at 9:45 a.m. Saturday. Split sessions will begin that day at 10:10 a.m., and close at 4:15 p.m. Mass will be celebrated at 12:15 p.m. and luncheon served at a nominal fee at 1 p.m.

Sunday's program, beginning at 1:10 p.m., will consist of general sessions and organizational meetings, closing at 4:15 p.m.

Institute speakers and the sessions they will conduct include Mrs. Clarence Lewox, Milwaukie, High School teachers; Sister Jean Marie, SSS, Portland; the kerygmatic approach; Sister Mary Clement, SA, Grants Pass; beginning teachers; Sister Lorita, SSS, Portland, home visitors; SSS, Augustina, SSS, Portland; help; the Rev. John Keane, Medford; scripture; Mrs. Virginia Anderson, Portland, parent educators; the Rev. B. M. Singleton and Robert Busch, Grants Pass, welcomes.

A group from the Medford CCD unit will conduct the Saturday session on religious discussion clubs.

The Grants Pass institute, planned to continue the program begun at a similar workshop in Medford last fall, is being conducted by the St. Anne's parish unit of the CCD with the assistance of Sister Jean Marie, SSS, archdiocesan supervisor of the Confraternity.

Among those who will attend the sessions from the Medford area are several student members of the St. Mary's High school Sodality who contribute many hours of work to CCD each year.

Further information concerning the Institute may be obtained from Mrs. Arthur Becker, 773-2659.

Christian Workers School Scheduled

Dr. Meredith Groves, executive secretary of the Oregon Conference of the Methodist church, will be the guest minister Sunday at First Methodist church. His topic will be "My Christian Witness". Dr. Groves is a former minister of the local church.

Soloist will be Mrs. D. G. MacDougall, singing "There Is a Balm in Gilead." The youth choir will sing "Break Forth Into Joy" at 9:30 a.m. and the chancel choir will sing "I Will Extol Thee, O Lord," at 11 a.m.

The Christian Workers' school for the Rogue River Valley sub-district will be held in the church Sunday from 2 to 9 p.m. The classes are for all commission members, church school teachers and workers of all Methodist churches in the valley. Mrs. Robert France, Medford, is dean and registrar. The opening address "Our Mission Today" is by the Rev. Ed Aschenbrenner, Eugene district superintendent. Song leader will be Mrs. Ralph Richardson, Klammath Falls, and Mrs. Leo Taylor, Medford, is organist.

An audio visual class will be taught by Mrs. George Blinborn, Eugene. A snack supper will be served by the Woman's society of Christian Service.

The Junior High MYF will have a fireside at the home of Larry Dusen at 1556 Jasper st. Transportation will be provided from the church at 6 p.m. Larry Dusen and Peter Sage have devotions.

The Senior High MYF will have their regular meeting Sun-

Unity Subject, Music Announced For Sunday

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of Unity church, Holly and Haven sts., will be in her pulpit Sunday, for the 11:15 a.m. service, after attending the Northwest Ministers' conference, the past week in Yakima, Wash. She was accompanied by her husband, Ray Bosworth.

"Faith and Patience" will be the subject of the lesson she has scheduled for the Sunday morning service. The text is taken from James 1:2 and 8. A nursery for babies and preschool children is provided.

Miss Sandra Myers will be at the organ. Mrs. Richard A. Schuchard will sing "Lift Up Your Eyes to the Heavens" by MacDermid.

The prayer ministry will meet Wednesday, Sept. 25, at 11 a.m. in the Unity church. Those attending are asked to take their lunch. Coffee will be served. At 1 p.m. the study class will meet. The Wednesday night study class will resume their lessons at the Unity Center, 3777 Jacksonville highway, at 7:30 p.m. The Ashland and Grants Pass classes will meet as usual. The lesson for all study classes will be taken from the new text book "Magnificent Decisions" by James Decker.

Unity church is an affiliate of the Unity School of Christianity at Lee's Summit, Mo.

Stewardship Enlistment Program to Continue

The laymen's movement, titled the Stewardship Enlistment program, continues at the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st., with well over half the amount desired pledged. "Tithing Puts God First" is the general theme of the program.

"The Triumph of Faith" is the subject of next Sunday's message at 11 a.m. by the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the church. Music for this service, as announced by Perry Christiansen, minister of music, will be the sanctuary choir singing "Send Out Thy Light", and a number by the Fishermen male quartet.

The Sunday evening music program is back on the fall schedule with musical presentations next Sunday night by a girls' trio composed of Cheryl Stewart, Carolyn Cole, and Leah Weaver, a soprano solo by Mrs. Rex Goble, and a duet by Dean von Stein and Melvin Johnson. The pastor's message in the 7 p.m. service will be on the subject "Fixed-Heart Christians."

Speaker for the junior church worship Sunday will be Mrs. Kenneth Laurance. A duet will be presented by Linda McMahon and Karen von Stein. Music for the junior church is under the direction of Carol

Rally, Promotion Day in White City

Rally day and Promotion Sunday activities will begin at 9:45 a.m. at the Berean Baptist church, White City, under the direction of Kenneth Fisher. There will be a general assembly of all departments with each one having a part in the program. Promotional certificates and awards will be presented by the department heads at the conclusion of the program.

"Preamble to Revival" will be the subject of the Rev. R. A. Hadeen at the 11 a.m. worship service. The Scripture portions are Nehemiah 9:1-3, and II Kings 18: 4-7.

Dallas Redding will be the soloist during the service with Mrs. Hadeen as organist and Mrs. Lucille Cuddy as pianist.

The pastor's message in the 7:30 p.m. service will be on the subject "What Sin Does to the Christian. Sin Takes Away the Soul-Winning Passion and the Power of a Christian."

Missionary Moments will feature a report from the Rev. Vernon Crouse, Missionary in Alaska. Other features are inspiration, instrumental music and testimony time.

Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. the church meets for Bible study and prayer under the leadership of Pastor Hadeen. Bible study subjects will be "Prayer is the Subject That God Has Appointed for Our Receiving Mercy and Help in Time of Need."

Berean Baptist church is located at the corner of Crater Lake highway and Avenue A in White City.

Quartet To Give Concert at First Christian

The Northwest Christian College Crusader quartet will present a concert at the First Christian church Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

The Crusader quartet will present a program in which sacred numbers will predominate. They have been on tour of the northwestern states, Utah, and California during the summer. This will be their final concert before starting the fall term at college. Dowell Callis, field representative for C.C., travels with the quartet.

Sunday morning the Rev. Frederick Ross Evans will preach on the subject "Transfiguration." At the 9:30 a.m. services the carillon choir will sing "O Praise Him," an anthem written by St. Francis of Assisi. The combined junior and chancel choirs will sing Haydn's "Ye Servants of God" at the 11 a.m. service.

The coffee hour will honor Mrs. Kitty Smith, a life-long member of the church, who will observe her 90th birthday this week. Her granddaughter, Mrs. Raymond Retter, assisted by Mrs. Wilbur Arnold, will be hostess.

At 6:30 p.m. Sunday the entire church will have a snack supper served on the patio.

Former Resident To Speak Here

W. T. Frost, Portland, will be the guest preacher at St. Luke's Methodist church, 2320 Siskiyou blvd., at the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday.

Mr. Frost, a layman in the Rose City Park Methodist church, is with the soil conservation service as director of the Oregon snow survey. Until ten years ago, he was a Medford resident and teacher of the Builders' class at First Methodist church. He is in Medford this week end to teach a course in adult work for the Methodist Christian Workers' school for the Rogue River valley at First Methodist church.

His sermon topic at St. Luke's will be: "How Big Is Your God?" He will be accompanied by his wife, Hazel, who is audio-visual resource librarian for the Oregon Annual Conference of the Methodist church, Mrs. S. Frost will also be a member of the faculty of the Christian Workers' school, teaching the course in audio-visual resources.

The Junior High Methodist Youth Fellowship will have its first meeting of the fall in the home of its counselors, Mr. and Mrs. Ab Gressett, 1617 East Jackson st., Sunday at 6:30 p.m. The Gressetts will be hosts at dinner. The Senior High MYF will have an activities night organized by Miss Sharon Chipman.

Fall Round-Up Planned in Ruch

APPELGADE VALLEY — A "fall round-up youth party" this evening at Ruch Community church will open a busy season for young people of the church, according to Pastor Earl G. Mortlock.

Western attire will be in order, and the western theme will be used in room decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Hunter, with Mr. and Mrs. Mortlock, are advisors.

A basketball schedule also is getting under way, and a workout is scheduled each Monday at 7:30 p.m. at Ruch school gym. All interested young people are invited to participate.

Crusade To End At First Baptist

Evangelist Tom Fair will conclude his current Evangelism crusade with the First Baptist church tonight at 7 o'clock.

A feature of the service will be the showing of a film "Whirls Across India," depicting the search for the snake worshippers. Following the film Evangelist Fair will preach his closing message.

Sunday morning, Pastor Bernard E. Andrews will speak on the subject, "Here We Stand." The chapel choir will sing for the service and Maynard Hadley will be soloist. The church is meeting in its new buildings at Crater Lake ave. and Stevens st.

Preparations are being made for a six-weeks Sunday school contest in competition with the Bethel Baptist church, Phoenix, Ariz. The contest will run from Oct. 6-Nov. 10. Richard Miller is chairman of the contest committee.

Sunday at 7:30 p.m., Pastor Andrews will speak on the subject "Gospel Perversion" Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coster will sing a duet.

Week day activities for next week includes a Child-Evangelism conference at the church Tuesday through Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Monday morning, Pastor Andrews will leave for Portland to attend the annual Pa or's seminar at the Western Conservative Baptist Theological seminary through Friday noon.

Spiritualist Chapel Notes Activities

GOLD HILL — The Rev. Elvina Colburn, pastor of Concord Spiritualist chapel, will give the address Sunday at 8 p.m.

Assisting the pastor during the service will be Robert Routh, Mrs. Helen Bush, Miss Susan Show, and Sidney Jones.

Mrs. Colburn will play the piano, organ and solo-vox. Miss Carol McCall will play the clarinet.

The pastor said private classes for instruction for members only, have been resumed after a summer recess.

A potluck is planned for members of the church, Sunday, Sept. 27.

The Rev. Floyd Humble, Gardena, Calif., medium and flower analyst, will visit the chapel later this fall.

Program Set of Negro Spirituals

EAGLE POINT — A musical program of Negro Spirituals will be presented Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at the Eagle Point Community Bible church, South B st.

The 25-voice church choir will sing such favorites as "So's I Can Write My Name," "Ezekiel Saw the Wheel," "Go, Tell It On the Mountains," and "No Hiding Place."

The public is invited to attend. Present choir director is G. H. Lamplly who assumed that post two weeks ago from Mrs. Wayne Horton. The program will last for approximately one hour.

Pastor of the church is the Rev. Warren L. Christensen.

Crusader Youth to Attend Rally

Crusader youth of the Four-square churches of Southern Oregon will meet for a rally in the Coquille church tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

The film, "Revolt in Berlin" will be shown during the evening service.

The Crusader youth groups from Winston, Roseburg, New Hope, Coquille, Grants Pass, Ashland and Medford churches will participate in Bible quizzes.

The Rev. K. L. Mathewson, pastor of the Medford church, will speak at the Sunday 11 a.m. service. The choir will present a special number during the offertory, under the direction of Mrs. Loyd Rasmussen. Miss Gail Trimble will accompany at the piano and Miss Gloria Rasmussen at the organ.

Unitarian Group Notes Subjects

When members and friends of the Rogue Valley Unitarian fellowship meet Sunday, David Alexander, program chairman, will speak on the subject: "Looking For A Better Religion." In this talk, the "religious experiences" of the speakers of the last two Sundays will be considered as a unity and as a modern example of the religious quest of man.

The fellowship, under the chairmanship of Ernest Wander, meets each Sunday at 11 a.m. in the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne st.

At the same hour, a church school for children is conducted at the Colleen Hope Studio just across the street. Registrations for classes by age group are still being accepted for children aged 3 to 16. Mrs. Hirschel Barnes is director of education. The curriculum materials used are obtainable by interested parents from Mrs. Fred Warden who is in charge of the religious education library of the fellowship.

Following the morning service, a discussion period and a coffee hour are held. This session, the coffee hour is under the supervision of Miss Ethel Marley, assisted by hostesses.

Religion Course Set at St. Mark's

A 12-week course in religious instruction for adults will start at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Thursday, Sept. 26, at 8 p.m. in the parish hall.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector and the Rev. David V. A. Browne, assistant, will conduct the classes which are open to the public. The classes will not involve any commitment to further association with the church.

Subjects to be covered include church history, doctrine, worship and practice, the Christian sacraments, Holy Bible, Book of Common Prayer, church organization, meaning and purpose of confirmation and a class in personal religion. The classes will be informal and will allow for questions and discussion.

Deacon To Speak Sunday at RLDS

Deacon Darrell Miller will occupy the pulpit for the first time Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship at the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Tenth and Ivy sts. after returning home from service with the Army in France.

A baptismal service is planned for Sunday at 2:30 p.m. with the confirmation service following at 6:30 p.m. at the church. Elders James Davidson and Harley Davidson will perform this ordinance.

Mid-week prayer and fellowship, Wednesday, Sept. 25, at 7:30 p.m. will be under the direction of Elder Davidson.

Central Church To Hear Quartet

The Northwest Christian College quartet and Dowell Callis, field representative for the college, will be guests at the Sunday morning service at Central Church of Christ, 1440 South Oakdale ave.

The quartet will sing several numbers at the Bible school opening assembly at 9:45 a.m. and at the 11 a.m. worship service. They will also participate in the Bible school classes. The minister of Central Church, John V. Heberling, will be the speaker at the worship service. His sermon will be "What Jesus Thinks of His Church: Part I — Christ's Concept of His Church."

Following the morning services there will be a fellowship dinner with the quartet and Mr. Callis. The congregation is asked to take potluck dishes and their own table service.

Youth groups of Central Church meet at 6 p.m. and the evening worship begins at 7 p.m. Mr. Heberling's message at that hour will be "How Shall We Use Our Spiritual Gifts?", the message being based on I Corinthians 12 and 14.

Three Services Remain in Series

Only three services remain in the current evangelistic series now underway at First Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st., the Rev. R. E. Cull, pastor, stated today. The Wiley evangelistic party of Fargo, N. D. will conduct meetings tonight at 7:30 o'clock and twice Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Sunday morning the Rev. Raymond R. Wiley will speak on the subject, "When A Man Sees God," and the evening sermon is entitled, "Paralyzed and Healed In Answer To Prayer."

Week end services will feature vocal solos and duets by Mr. and Mrs. Wiley and selections will represent those requested by members of the church congregation.

Meeting Changes Noted by Lutherans

The senior choir of Ascension Lutheran church has changed their meeting to Thursday at 7:30 p.m. as a more convenient time.

The Adult Instruction class will hold its first meeting to night at 7:30 o'clock and the confirmation class for young people is at 10 a.m. Saturday. Also at 10 a.m. on Saturday will be the junior choir directed by Mrs. Roy Miller.

There will be a vote by ballot Sunday to determine whether the worship should be set at an earlier time, and if so, the Sunday school will be changed accordingly.

After services there will be a potluck picnic at Hawthorne park. Beverages will be furnished with families to take their own table service. All members and friends are invited.

Religion Course Set at St. Mark's

A 12-week course in religious instruction for adults will start at St. Mark's Episcopal church, Thursday, Sept. 26, at 8 p.m. in the parish hall.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector and the Rev. David V. A. Browne, assistant, will conduct the classes which are open to the public. The classes will not involve any commitment to further association with the church.

Subjects to be covered include church history, doctrine, worship and practice, the Christian sacraments, Holy Bible, Book of Common Prayer, church organization, meaning and purpose of confirmation and a class in personal religion. The classes will be informal and will allow for questions and discussion.

Lesons Noted for GH Christian

GOLD HILL — "Jesus Sent Forth The Seventy" will be the title of the fifth in a series of 13 flammegraph lessons on the topic "Jesus First", at Gold Hill Christian Sunday school, Sunday at 9:45 a.m.

The rhythm band will present selections during the opening of the Sunday school hour.

Mrs. Lee McCann will sing a solo during the worship hour at 11 a.m. Mrs. Leonard Andrews will play the piano. The sermon will be given by the Rev. Dewey V. Jeffrey, minister of the church.

STOP! WHAT DO YOU REALLY KNOW ABOUT RELIGION?

WHAT DO YOU REALLY KNOW ABOUT THE CHURCH? WHY NOT FIND OUT THE TRUTH? COME TO THE ADULT INSTRUCTION CLASS STARTING THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 26 — 8:00 P.M.

All-Church Picnic

An all-church picnic will be held Sunday at TouVelle State park following the 10:45 a.m. worship service at Eastside Church of Christ, 132 Vancouver ave.

Christian Science Lesson Announced

The Bible lesson Sunday at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 180 Windsor ave., will be on the subject of "Matter."

Scriptural reading for the 11 a.m. lesson will include the verse from I John 2:17.

Young people up to the age of 20 are invited to attend Sunday school. All are invited to the services.

Eastwood Baptists Announce Events

Missionary Moments will feature the story of "The Lone Star Mission," at the Sunday morning service at Eastwood Baptist church. The pastor, the Rev. Clifford J. Young, will speak on "Reliable Production," using for scripture Mark 10:32-24.

The chancel choir will sing "I Love Thee, My Lord" at the 7:30 p.m. service. The pastor will speak on "Kingdom Pre-eminence," with Mark 10:35-45 as scripture.

Youth Chairman Darwin Durr reports that both Junior Baptist Youth Fellowship and Senior High BYF will resume meeting in the near future.

The Victory class Bible study group will meet Saturday at 8 p.m.

Conference To Be Held Here Monday

H. De Los Holmes, national representative from Christian publication, will speak at an area Sunday School conference Monday, Sept. 23, at the Central Point Community Bible church.

The conference is sponsored by the district Sunday school committee of the Pacific Northwest district of the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

The program will be from 7 to 9 p.m. and will include answers on leadership lesson preparation and problems. All interested persons are invited to attend.

The Rogue Valley meeting is the first of five such conferences scheduled throughout the Northwest. After Medford they will be in Salem and Olympia, Ellensburg, and North Seattle, Wash.

First Baptist Church

Conservative-Fundamental

On The Air K-BOY 11:00-12:00

B. E. Andrews, Pastor
Byron Evans, Youth Dir.

NOW Meeting In The Beautiful New Church, 649 Crater Lake Avenue SUNDAY, SEPT. 22

7:00 TONIGHT! Last Chance to Hear EVANGELIST TOM FAIR Also Dramatic Film "Wheels Over India"

9:40 A.M. Sunday School for All

11:00 A.M. "WHERE WE STAND"

7:30 P.M. "GOSPEL PERVERSION"

Prayer Service Wednesday, 7:30 P.M.

Unity

Corner Holly and Haven Streets
Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo.
REV. KATHARINE BOSWORTH, Minister
Worship Hour — 11:15 a.m.

"Faith and Patience"
James 1:2 and 8

Sunday School, Youth of Unity, Adult Bible Class 9:45 a.m.
Office open daily, Monday thru Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
3777 Jacksonville Hwy. Ph. 772-6902 — Everyone Welcome

First Presbyterian Church

Eighth and Holly • Phone 779-1711

Worship Services 9:30-11:00 a.m.

September 22
Sermon: "Who Is a Child of God?"
Dr. D. Kirkland West

Church School: 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

St. Mark's Episcopal Church

The MEDFORD ALLIANCE CHURCH Welcomes You

Hedrick Junior High Auditorium, 1505 E. Jackson

SERVICES:
Sunday School 9:45 A.M.
Morning Worship 11:00 A.M.
Youth Service 6:00 P.M.
Evening Service 7:00 P.M.

Mid-week Service — 7:30 P.M. Wednesday (Place announced each week)

"There is a real and positive help for your every problem"

St. Mark's Episcopal Church

FIFTH AND OAKDALE

NO COMMITMENTS WHATSOEVER

THE REV. GEORGE R. V. BOLSTER, RECTOR
THE REV. DAVID V. A. BROWNE, ASSISTANT

THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO YOU

Sunday, 9:00 a.m.
K-SHA — 860 kc

This week's Christian Science program "If Your Life Has Been a Disappointment"

UNITY

Corner Holly and Haven Streets
Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo.
REV. KATHARINE BOSWORTH, Minister
Worship Hour — 11:15 a.m.

"Faith and Patience"
James 1:2 and 8

Sunday School, Youth of Unity, Adult Bible Class 9:45 a.m.
Office open daily, Monday thru Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
3777 Jacksonville Hwy. Ph. 772-6902 — Everyone Welcome

First Presbyterian Church

Eighth and Holly • Phone 779-1711

Worship Services 9:30-11:00 a.m.

September 22
Sermon: "Who Is a Child of God?"
Dr. D. Kirkland West

Church School: 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

STOP! WHAT DO YOU REALLY KNOW ABOUT RELIGION?

WHAT DO YOU REALLY KNOW ABOUT THE CHURCH? WHY NOT FIND OUT THE TRUTH?

COME TO THE ADULT INSTRUCTION CLASS STARTING THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 26 — 8:00 P.M.

St. Mark's Episcopal Church

FIFTH AND OAKDALE

NO COMMITMENTS WHATSOEVER

THE REV. GEORGE R. V. BOLSTER, RECTOR
THE REV. DAVID V. A. BROWNE, ASSISTANT

First Baptist Church

Conservative-Fundamental

On The Air K-BOY 11:00-12:00

B. E. Andrews, Pastor
Byron Evans, Youth Dir.

NOW Meeting In The Beautiful New Church, 649 Crater Lake Avenue SUNDAY, SEPT. 22

7:00 TONIGHT! Last Chance to Hear EVANGELIST TOM FAIR Also Dramatic Film "Wheels Over India"

9:40 A.M. Sunday School for All

11:00 A.M. "WHERE WE STAND"

7:30 P.M. "GOSPEL PERVERSION"

Prayer Service Wednesday, 7:30 P.M.