Fischer Quints Enter 2nd Week In Good Health

ABERDEEN, S. D. (UPI) — The Fischer quintuplets entered their second week of life Saturday, probably smaller than when they were born, but doing fine.

The lone boy, James Andrew, is the biggest, hungriest and most active of the quintets—just as he has been since the famous five made their appearance in pre-dawn hours last Saturday and captured the attention of the world.

Dr. James N. Berbos, 40, the general practitioner who delivered them, finally weighed the tots Friday. In order of birth, they weighed: Mary Ann, 2 pounds 8 ounces; Mary Magdalene, 3 pounds; Mary Catherine, 3 pounds; James Andrew 3 pounds 13 ounces; and Mary Margaret, 3 pounds 5 ounces.

Another Visit
Berbos paid them another visit at St. Luke's hospital just before midnight Friday night and announced:

"The babies are doing fine." He increased their formula again, with James Andrew getting twice the increase allotted to the other four. With an increase of 2 cubic centimeters, James Andrew is getting 14 ccs, more than three teaspoonfuls, of the artificial milk formula every two hours. There are 4½ ccs in a teaspoon.

"The boy turned sideways several times today, propelling himself with his legs," Berbos said. "Each of the girls got an increase of 1 cc. This gave three of the girls 10 ccs every two hours, and the smallest, Mary Ann, 9 ccs."

Their mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Fischer, 30, will go home from the hospital Monday. Actually, she was ready physically to return to the Fischers' ten-room farm house just outside Aberdeen a couple days ago, but she stayed on, apparently to avoid a little while longer the excitement that will surround her homegoing.

Wallace Blames New Haven Mayor For Cancellation

By United Press International
Gov. George Wallace of Alabama blamed the mayor of New Haven, Conn., Saturday for the cancellation of a scheduled Wallace speech at Yale.

Wallace accused Mayor Richard C. Lee of playing politics by declaring the governor "officially unwelcome" in New Haven, home of Yale.

The university Political Union had invited Wallace to speak on the campus Nov. 4, but the invitation was withdrawn after Lee wired the governor that his presence was not desired.

"I am certain that your political purposes have been served," wired Wallace, who termed the mayor's telegram "offensive and not representative of a responsible public official."

Wallace also said he was "certain that it is distasteful to the Yale Political Union to find that its cherished tradition of presenting the views of all can be curtailed overnight."

Wallace also wired the Political Union and said he was shocked "that a segment of the New Haven community is now dictating to a great university who may or may not speak on your campus."

Elsewhere in the North, civil rights leaders planned widespread demonstrations and mourning for the four Negro children killed in the Birmingham bombing.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner proclaimed today "an official day of sympathy" in New York and said Times Square will be redesignated Monday for the day as "Avenue of Equal Opportunity."

Philadelphia Mayor James H. J. Tate also proclaimed today as a "day of mourning." He urged the citizens to attend church to seek "divine guidance in overcoming universal prejudice" and repentance "for those who perpetrated this crime."

A group of University of Wisconsin students scheduled a "Birmingham sympathy march" in Madison today in protest of the "brutal bombing and slaughter" of the Negroes in Birmingham.

Minneapolis, Minn., Mayor Arthur Naftalin asked clergy members of all faiths to "take note of this tragic event" during their week-end religious services. Naftalin said he would wear a black ribbon Sunday as a symbol of mourning.

Meany Believes Labor May Sway Election Outcome

WASHINGTON (UPI) — AFL-CIO President George Meany was reported Saturday to believe organized labor's get-out-the-vote efforts in 1964 may determine the outcome of the presidential election.

They rejected a fresh GOP appeal, broadcast to the nation Friday night on radio and television, for Democratic support of a "trigger" provision that would bar the tax reduction unless the President revised his spending plans downward in January.

The leaders pressed ahead with their drive to line up a solid party front against the amendment. One key legislator said the leaders were "feeling better" about tax cut prospects after a partial nose-count of Democratic lawmakers.

Earlier, the Democrats had feared that the Republican move, which they labeled a "phony," had the kind of political appeal certain to draw considerable support from conservative southern Democrats. The Republicans are certain to back it, almost to a man.

Rep. John W. Byrnes (R-Wis.), top GOP member of the tax-writing House Ways and Means committee, got "equal time" from the major networks Friday night to reply to Kennedy's appeal Wednesday for support of the tax cut without any such "ruinous" limitations.

Byrnes said the tax cut would chart the way to economic disaster unless coupled with a firm lid on government spending. Without this, he said, all signs are that the federal budget and the national debt will continue to soar, with resulting further inflation and "financial ruin" in the end.

Kennedy said the cut was urgently needed to keep the economy climbing. He pledged the administration to hold a tight

Macmillan Is Ready To Call Elections

LONDON (UPI) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan now may be ready to gamble his political future on a parliamentary election this year, Minister of Health Enoch Powell indicated Friday night.

"You can expect the next election any day now," Powell told Conservative party workers at Crewkerne.

Powell thus became the first high government official to hint openly that the Denning report on Britain's sex-and-security scandal is favorable and that Macmillan may decide not to wait until next year to call the elections. The election deadline is next fall.

Lord Denning has completed an exhaustive investigation into the circumstances surrounding the resignation of War Minister John Profumo earlier this year. Profumo resigned in disgrace after lying to the House of Commons about his "improper" relationship with call girl Christine Keeler.

A. H. Underhill, assistant outdoor director of the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, urged the delegates to increase efforts to inspect and designate possible campsites along the route from Missouri to the Pacific.

Beck Escrow Funds Ruled Forfeited

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A Superior Court commissioner ruled Friday that $25,000 placed in escrow by Dave Beck, former national president of the Teamsters Union sentenced to prison for fraud, was forfeited.

Commissioner George M. Dell ruled that the money, deposited by Beck and his partner, Andrew Nagy, a Seattle, Wash., merchant, was forfeited since the remaining $330,000 promised by the two men had not been paid.

The two deposited the money toward the purchase of a shopping center site in Scottsdale, Ariz.

The complaint was brought by Scottsdale Lanes, Inc., and its president, Leslie C. Elson.
