

Ronda Martin Married To Clarence Sorensen

An event of Saturday, September 14, was the wedding of Miss Ronda Grace Martin to Clarence Eugene Sorensen. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Martin, 841 Stewart avenue, Medford, and Mr. Sorensen's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Christian J. Sorensen, Portland.

The wedding was held at the First Methodist church with Dr. George G. Roseberry officiating. The double ring rites were held at eight o'clock in the evening.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long length gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. Her elbow length veil was held by a head-dress of roses and she carried a bouquet of carnations encircling a white orchid. Her single strand of pearls was loaned by Mrs. Donald Martin, her sister-in-law, which had been a gift of the late Mr. Martin, the bride's brother.

Miss Geraldine Wick, Hayward, Calif., was maid of honor. She wore a champagne beige satin dress with bell skirt and her veil, which matched her dress, was held by a single rose. She carried a bouquet of bronze and gold spider chrysanthemums.

Andrea Marie Martin, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a bronze colored satin dress and veil and carried a basket of bronze and gold spider chrysanthemums.

Gerald G. Hutchison, Corvallis, served as best man and seating the guests were John Hawley and William Luman. Donald Michael Martin, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Baskets of gold and bronze chrysanthemums decorated the church.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the church, Mrs. Martin wore a turquoise sheath dress with white accessories. Mrs. Sorensen chose a chartreuse sheath dress with beige accessories. Their corsages were of pink baby roses.

For traveling on their wedding trip to the San Francisco area, the new Mrs. Sorensen wore a green mohair sheath dress and matching plaid coat with black accessories. They are making their home at 219 North Oakdale avenue. The bride attended Medford schools and is employed as a bookkeeper for Gray's Furniture Barn, Inc. Mr. Sorensen attended Portland schools and was graduated from the University of Oregon where he was affiliated with Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is employed as area representative for the Todd division of Burroughs Corporation.

Among the out of town guests attending were Joseph Wilcoxon, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Arnold, Miss Tandy Califf, Portland; Mrs. Hutchinson, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. John Morely, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Joann Ellis, Hayward, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. William Preston, Canyonville, and Mrs. Maxine McCall, Grants Pass.

PROSPECT — When Miss Suzanne Ethel Rodgers became the bride of Miles Franklin Weaver III, September 14, a choir made up of members of Bethel 56, International Order of Job's Daughters sang the wedding songs. The bride is a past honored queen of the Bethel.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius O. Rogers, Star route, Box 45, Prospect, are parents of the bride, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Weaver, Los Angeles, who came north for the ceremony.

The rites were read at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in Ashland Trinity Episcopal church. The Rev. Duane Alvord, Southern Oregon college chaplain and rector of the church, officiated.

The ceremony was preceded at 11 a.m. by a wedding eucharist attended by members of both families. The Rev. Mr. Alvord conducted the ceremony. Mr. Rogers escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Wears Satin
The bridal gown of satin was designed with an empire midriff waistline and the bodice was embroidered with pearls and sequins. The skirt was bell-shaped and her elbow length veil was held from a pillbox hat trimmed with a front bow and a circlet of pearls. She carried her own white prayer book, a gift from her mother at her confirmation, with shattered carnations and a cascade of stephanotis.

Miss LaVonne Whillock, Ashland, was the honor attendant and Miss Ann Weaver, a sister of the bridegroom and a student at Stanford university, and Miss Mary Ann Hubbard, Prospect, were bridesmaids.

Their coral colored gowns were fashioned similar to the bride's but with short bell-shaped skirts. Their headpieces were of coral tulle and they wore matching accessories. Their bouquets were of bronze and gilded wheat carried in baskets wound with gold ribbon.

Phillip Gilman, Union Creek, served as best man and seating the guests were John Rogers, brother of the bride, and David Johnson, Los Angeles, a college roommate of the bridegroom.

George Rogers, youngest brother of the bride served as acolyte and James Rogers, the other brother of the bride, rang the wedding bell at the close of the service.

Mrs. Glenn Taylor furnished the organ music.

Many Guests
Some 200 guests were at the wedding ceremony and about 150 attended the reception given by the bride's parents in the Parish house at the church.

Brilliant colored fall flowers, dahlias, marigolds and zinnias continued the autumn bridal colors. The cake was cut by Mrs. Thomas Donahue, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Darwin Bevans, and was served by Mrs. Jack Fry, Bakersfield, Calif., and Mrs. Darthea Quick, Van Nuys, Calif., aunts of the bridegroom. At the punch bowl was Mrs. John C. Smith, and Mrs. Martin Webb, poured the coffee. Both are aunts of the bride.

Miss Anne Donahue, a cousin of the bride, registered the guests. Miss Marilyn Fry, Bakersfield, Calif., a cousin of the bridegroom, presided at the gift table.

The bride's mother was dressed in a cranberry red knit frock with matching hat and her corsage was of cymbidium orchids. The bridegroom's mother chose a white knit ensemble accented in gold and beige, which she wore with a white feather hat and golden orchid corsage.

Among the guests were grandmothers of the bridegroom, Mrs. Dorothy Martin, Anaheim, Calif., and Mrs. Hazel Weaver, Van Nuys, Calif.; the bride's grandmother, Parks R. Shelley, Yreka, Calif., her grandmother, Mrs. J. E. Randles, Medford, and her great aunt, Mrs. W. W. Stuart, Albany, Ore.

A buffet dinner for members of both families was given in the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Randles, 908 Queen Anne avenue, Medford. Mrs. Lucille Whillock, 810 Garden way, Ashland, was hostess for a patio dinner after the wedding rehearsal Friday evening. Twenty-four guests attended.

The newly married couple made their wedding trip to the north and the Oregon coast. The bride chose a cranberry red knit suit with matching hat and beige accessories. They will live at 953 Monroe street, Corvallis, where the bride-
