

PTA Group To Meet

Jackson County Council of Parent-Teacher associations will meet Wednesday, September 25, at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne avenue.

A school of information is scheduled beginning with registration and coffee at 9:30 a.m.; announcements and introductions from 10 to 10:15 a.m.; mock meeting and group discussion from 10:15 to 11 a.m. and workshops for all chairmen and presidents from 11 a.m. until noon.

Luncheon will be served by the Medford PTA Coordinating committee for a nominal fee.

Dr. Betty Lou Dunlop from Southern Oregon college will speak at 1 p.m.

All PTA presidents and chairmen are invited to attend.

An innovation at the style show which Jackson County CowBelles sponsored last Wednesday at North's Chuck Wagon was this family group. Mrs. John Bohnert, a past president of the CowBelles, is shown here with her two daughters. Mrs. Don Bradshaw (right) and Mrs. James F. Rice and Mrs. Rice's two daughters, Sandra (right) and Lynn. Mrs. Bradshaw's children are too small for the modeling stint. All five were wearing Glen of Michigan clothing from Jean Hart's store. The wool dresses and coat are grey melton cloth and Mrs. Rice's dress is of cranberry red print. The Bohnerts and Bradshaws live in the Central Point area; Mrs. Rice and her children are spending a year in Jackson county while Captain Rice, an officer in the United States Marine corps, is on overseas assignment.

Newlyweds Living In California

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Neal Jr., whose marriage was an event of the summer, are living at 8906 1/2 Ramsgate avenue, Los Angeles. The bride is the former Miss Sandra Jane Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Gardner, San Dimas, Nev.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William M. Neal, 2104 Roberts road, Medford.

The couple was married August 16 in 10 o'clock morning rites read in Las Vegas, Nev.

The bride wore a white linen suit and her flowers were white rosebuds. Her heart-shaped locket was a gift from the bridegroom.

They spent their honeymoon in the Nevada city and were guests at the Flamingo hotel.

The bride was graduated from Charter Oaks High school in 1961 and she attended San Antonio college, later graduating from Center Beauty school.

The bridegroom, a 1953 graduate of Medford High school attended Southern Oregon college, and he is a graduate of Electronic Technical institute in Inglewood, Calif. He is employed as an inspector of gyroscopes for Sperry Gyroscope company, El Segundo, Calif.

Ceremony Is Held

Mr. and Mrs. James H. McCoy now are living at 6827 Elinor street, West Riverside, Calif., following their wedding trip to Yosemite National park.

The bride is the former Miss Lenore Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don L. Jacobs, Route 4, Box 350 N2, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Satterwhite, Diana, Tex.

The wedding ceremony was performed August 9 in Sunnyvale Union church, West Riverside, Calif. The Rev. K. L. Redman, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of silk organza designed with a front panel of Swiss embroidery and a shepherdess bow which accented the back. The gown's neckline was outlined with Swiss embroidery trimmed with sequins and pearls. Her veil of scalloped net was held by a white satin bow. She carried a garland of white carnations centered with pink roses, and her diamond and pearl pendant was a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Lois Jacobs, a sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a yellow organza dress with matching headband and float veil. Her nosegay bouquet was of white and yellow carnations.

Don Kellerman, Eagle Mountain, Calif., was best man.

Miss Ethel Jacobs, another sister of the bride, was soloist and Mrs. Donna Faddis, Arlington, Calif., was organist.

Mrs. Jacobs wore a light blue nylon lace dress with jacket and her corsage was of white carnations.

The reception given by the bride's parents was held in the church annex. Mrs. Michael Kroh, also a sister of the bride from Westminster, Calif., and Miss Sue Redman, Eagle Point, a niece of the bridegroom, served the wedding cake.

Miss Paula Bridger, Fontana, Calif., presided at the punch bowl and Miss Patricia Redman, another niece of the bridegroom, was at the guest book. Miss Carleen Morgan, niece of the bridegroom, had charge of gifts.

The bride is a Medford High school graduate. The bridegroom served as an aircraft mechanic in the Air Force prior to being employed at Kaiser Steel corporation.

For traveling the bride wore a white suit with pink accessories and her corsage was from her bridal bouquet.

College Student To University

Among the students who have returned to colleges this fall is Mrs. Linda Magstadt, the former James Magstadt, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Sessler, 846 West 13th street, Medford.

Mrs. Magstadt will be a senior at the University of Washington in Seattle, having transferred from Washington State university at Pullman. Mrs. Magstadt is an English literature major. Her husband, who was graduated from the Pullman university in June, is with the city planning staff in Renton, Wash.

The couple is making their home at 1818 Harvard avenue, Apartment 102 in Seattle.
