Medford Altrusa Club Honors Grant Winner

An honored guest at a recent dinner meeting of the Altrusa club of Medford was Mrs. Adella Marie Kasting, recipient of the 1963 Altrusa vocational retraining grant.
 Mrs. Kasting was introduced by Mrs. Lucine G. Miles, chairman of the vocational services committee which screens applicants for these annual grants given to mature women who need professional re-training before entering the labor market to support their families.
 Mrs. Kasting, who lives at 302 Lozier lane with her small sons, age 2 and 5 years, will start her training in the Southern Oregon School of Practical Nursing at the Rogue Valley Memorial hospital on October 8th. On September 25, the 1962 recipient of the clubs grant.

Grand Chief To Visit Yreka Lodge

YREKA — Plans for the visit to Aurora temple, Pythian Sisters, by Mrs. Emma Hood, grand chief, were made at a meeting of the lodge last Wednesday in the Odd Fellows hall.
 The grand chief will visit the local temple on Wednesday, September 25, at 8 p.m. The meeting will be preceded by a pot-luck supper at 6:45 p.m.
 At last week's meeting conducted by Mrs. Ernest Johnson, most excellent chief, it was announced that Golden State temple, Pythian Sisters, Weaverville will celebrate its 50th anniversary on September 23, at which time the grand chief will visit that temple.

Reading Council Plans Session

The Rogue Valley Council of the International Reading association will hold its first meeting of the school year Tuesday, September 24, at 7:30 p.m. at Hedrick Junior High school.
 Miss Irma Klinghammer and Paul Wright, teachers at Lincoln school in Ashland, will discuss team teaching and its relation to the teaching of reading as it was presented in a workshop in Salem which they attended during the summer.
 All teachers and others interested in the teaching of reading are invited to attend.

Orchid Society to Hold Friday Meeting

A meeting of the Rogue Valley Orchid society is planned for Friday, September 27, at 7:30 p.m. at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne avenue, Medford.
 All persons interested in growing orchids are invited to attend.

Pictures and Classes Scheduled at Center

Pictures of the blue grass region near Lexington, Ky., Bryce Canyon National Park and Monterey peninsula will be shown Monday during the meeting of the Arm Chair Travelers at the Senior Activity center, 601 East Jackson street.
 Mrs. Gerald E. Cronk, 141 North First street, Talent, will show the pictures at 1 p.m. Included will be many pictures of flowers.
 Prior to the Arm Chair Travelers meeting, the Spanish class will hold its third session under the direction of Mrs. Alicia Carter, who is giving the group instruction on conversational phrases. Beginners are welcome, as well as those who already have some knowledge of the language.
 Men Assist
 The men in the Spanish class assist Frank Gray in setting up the chairs for the class, then rearranging it for the afternoon program.
 From 3 to 5 p.m. Monday the knitting class will resume after the summer vacation. Mrs. Edward Barnett will instruct the class. Those attending who are new to the course are to take knitting needles, yarn or a pattern they wish to follow. Former members are also to take a knitted article to show the new members.
 Mrs. Nellie Williams will teach the oil painting class. The class, which started last week, is still open to beginners. A review in mixing paints and color charts will be given the first half hour of the session — the remainder is spent painting. The class starts at 1 p.m. and members may paint all afternoon if they wish. The group usually has a short coffee hour with members taking turns in furnishing the cookies or cake. Mrs. Margaret Stonebreaker will be the Tuesday, September 24, hostess.
 Two new members of the senior center orchestra are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hutchinson, 4425

Security Club To Honor Members

Security Benefit club members whose birthdays are in September will be honored at the club meeting Wednesday, September 25 in the Pythian building. Cakes will be furnished by members.
