Cancer Society Meeting Thursday

Dr. Paul Walker, chairman of the sixth annual meeting for the Jackson county unit of the American Cancer Society, has announced that more than 200 volunteers have been invited to the Sept. 26 dinner.

Dr. Robert Turner, president of the local unit, will conduct a short business meeting. Following the election of the 1964 board, officers, and delegates, there will be a panel discussion on cancer of the cervix and the intestinal tract.

Democrats Assail The Radical Right

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (UPI)—Democrats from the 13 western states ended their 1963 conference Saturday by calling on the Republican Party to "denounce the radical right and insist on a campaign ticket free of association with the John Birch Society."

Democrats Assail The Radical Right

The conference had been conditioned to the resolutions by two days of constant hammering by key party leaders that the "radical right" would be the key issue of the 1964 campaign.
