Tickets For Series At Printers

Membership tickets for the Jackson County Civic Music association are now at the printers and are expected to be mailed within a few weeks, according to Mrs. Dorell Huson, president.

The tickets for the 1963-64 season are being imprinted with the names of the artists and the dates of their appearance.

The first concert, featuring Erick Friedman, violinist, will be held Wednesday, October 30. Mr. Friedman, a protégé of Jascha Heifetz, is the only violinist ever sponsored by him.

Families who have moved to the Rogue valley since the Civic Music association membership drive closed last May may purchase memberships at this time. Newcomers wishing tickets for this season should telephone Mrs. Kenneth Brown, secretary, at 773-5992.

The Civic Music association is a national organization and season tickets will admit the holder to performances sponsored by the association in any city. Of particular interest to Rogue valley members is the concert series presented in Eugene.

Later this fall the London Philharmonic Symphony will present a concert in the Eugene series. Dates for this concert will be announced here as soon as they are known.

One of the last public appearances Dr. Enrico DeMaria made in Medford before his departure for Italy last week was to a meeting Alba unit, organized last year under the chairmanship of Mrs. Fred Sears, is now headed by Mrs. Arthur S. Backlund, shown here with the past several weeks here. During the Extension unit meeting, Dr. DeMaria was presented a scroll from unit members which he will in turn present to some woman's group in Alba. Six grandmothers and great-grandmothers were present yesterday when Nancy Toyne Frink, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Frink, 221 Ajax avenue, White City, was christened at St. Mark's Episcopal church. The Rev. George R. V. Bolster, rector of St. Mark's, officiated for the rites held at 12:30 o'clock.

Nancy was born July 25 in Medford. Her mother is the former Marilyn Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Watson, 3390 Ross lane, Medford.

The six grandmothers, all of whom live in this area, were Mrs. Richard Watson, maternal grandmother; her mother, Mrs. Michael M. Herman, 179 Wine-ma way; Mr. Watson's mother, Mrs. Helen F. Watson, 617 Catherine street; Mrs. Morris L. Frink, 3167 Linden lane, Central Point, paternal grandmother; Mrs. L. A. Brennesholtz, 3694 Madrona lane, great grandmother, and Mrs. Sadie Cyphers, 3067 Linden lane, Central Point, a great grandmother.

Four Generations
 Four generations on both sides of the family were represented in the group of women. Grandfathers present were Richard Watson, Morris Frink and Michael Herman.

The child's god-parents are Leroy Chastain, Central Point, and Miss Carol von der Hellen.

Salvation Army League Assists in Remodeling

Women of the Day Home league of the Salvation Army, who meet each Thursday from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., last Thursday engaged in removing paint from the exterior of the church at that location which is being remodeled for the Salvation Army Citadel.

The members also have worked in the church's interior, painting, removing plaster, and doing other work in connection with the remodeling.

They also are beginning work on items for their Christmas bazaar scheduled for October 19 in Girls Community club.

The organization is non-denominational and all interested women are invited to become members, whether or not they are affiliated with the Army, or any church, officers point out. The international group has a four-fold program of education, fellowship, service, and worship. Some 48,568 members make up the 1188 leagues in this country.

The local members cooperate with other Army activities by sewing layettes for needy families and making Christmas gifts for Veterans Domiciliary, hospitals and nursing homes. They also furnish other items for needy families at Christmas time. The Night Home league members who meet each Thursday at 7 p.m., make quilts, some of which are sold through the Army's Thrift shop to raise funds for Army work. Quilts also are given to families in need.

The women of the Day league also are instructed in home-making.

In the past few months the group participated in a fashion party when cotton knit clothing

DRIVE-SAFETY

SCHOOLS ARE NOW OPEN - MANY CHILDREN ARE ATTENDING FOR THE FIRST TIME! DON'T LET IT BE THEIR LAST! YOUR CAUTION CAN SAVE A CHILD'S LIFE... SO PLEASE...

- DRIVE CAREFULLY around schools and playgrounds! Be on the lookout for children when they walk to and from school! Your vacation from school children is over now!
- BE ON THE ALERT when you are near a schoolbus. Of course, they have to obey all traffic rules! But, give schoolbuses a break anyway... they carry a priceless cargo!
- PARENTS! NEVER STOP TELLING children about the many traffic dangers! Only then can we hope to help reduce traffic fatalities! One out of seven fatalities involves a schoolchild! One out of ten fatal accidents is caused by a teen-age driver!

- DRIVERS! DON'T HURRY when you drive! We may as well face it! We cannot reduce traffic casualties unless we slow down! The lives of others are in the hands holding your steering wheel. The minute you may save, isn't worth the life of a schoolchild!
- HAVE YOUR CAR CHECKED by an expert! Any car that is not in perfect mechanical condition is a potential murder weapon! The few dollars you spend may save a life!
