Casanova Has Praise For Haggerty, Matson; Ruhl May Miss Next OSU Tilt

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—Coach Len Casanova praised guard Anker Haggerty and tackle Pat Matson after viewing movies of Saturday's 17-7 loss to Penn State.

Coach Casanova put his players through a two-hour workout Monday in getting ready for Saturday's battle at Stanford.

"ORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—Oregon State center Dick Ruhl probably will miss the Beavers' home opener against Colorado Saturday night.

Ruhl suffered bruised ribs as the Beavers won a come-from-behind 29-14 battle against Utah at Salt Lake City.

Fullback Booker Washington, who injured his knee, and end Doug McDougall, who suffered a shoulder injury, were also listed as "doubtful" for Saturday's game.

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI)—Coach Jim Owens of Washington said today that only one player was hurt in Saturday's battle against Air Force.

Guard Ron Caligari, who is battling an infection, was the only California Bear out of action as the Bears drilled for Saturday's battle at Idaho.

The Bears, who defeated Iowa State last Saturday, worked on punt and kickoff coverage Monday.

Coach John Ralston of Stanford said today that sophomore fullback Glen Myers would be out for several weeks with a shoulder separation.

Myers, a sophomore, captained the freshmen last year and had been regarded as some needed backfield insurance this year.

Linebacker Mike Dowdle sustained a fractured thumb, according to x-rays, but also hoped to be ready Sunday.

Meanwhile, a look at team statistics showed that the Forty Niners lack of ball control has cost them their two close defeats.

San Francisco has been outfirsted 54-24 in their first two games and been outgained 813-440. They have had the ball on only 84 plays as against 160 for the opposition.

Both Bernie Casey and Dan Colchico, who were helped off the field, were only bruised and are expected to be ready to go Sunday at Minneapolis against the Vikings.

Linebacker Mike Dowdle sustained a fractured thumb, according to x-rays, but also hoped to be ready Sunday.

GRIZZLY TACKLED—Tom Voth (23), Ashland, is stopped after picking up yards for the Grizzlies in a game against the Bruins here last night. Making the tackle is Ron Sanford and coming up to help is Don Wilson (60). Ashland won 7-6 with Voth running 56 yards for a touchdown and booting the extra point.

Ashland Sophomores Nip Medford Footballers 7-6

Tim Voth sped 56 yards for a touchdown then toed the extra point kick which meant the margin of victory here last night in 7 to 6 nod by the Ashland Grizzlies in a sophomore football game with Medford here.

Ashland's touchdown came in the third quarter after a stalemate initial half. Medford threatened three times before going over for its TD in the dying moments of the game.

Bruce Stewart scored for the sophomore Tornado on a three-yard crack after a pass for 31 yards from Sal Equivel to Bob Dames set up the TD chance. A fake kick play failed to get the bonus point for Medford.

Lewis Goes Over
An official's whistle blown too quickly prevented an Ashland second quarter score. Medford had its back to its goal as the period neared its close.

Stewart boomed for six yards and the ball got away from him. Dave Lewis nabbed the pigskin on the 15-yard line and fought into the end zone. But, because of the whistle blast the ball was ruled dead on the 15 and no touchdown was allowed.

Two plays later with the ball on the Medford eight-yard line the half ended.

In the first half neither team netted much yardage. In the second Medford piled up the yards but only once could dent the goal.

To Nine-Yard Line
The Tornadoes got down to the 12 in the late third quarter. An illegal motion penalty set

Dick James May Be NFL's Most Underrated Back

WASHINGTON (UPI)—No. 47 on the Washington Redskins may be the National Football League's most underrated back.

No. 47 belongs to little Dick James, the Tribe's veteran and versatile halfback whose 175 pounds of muscle and 75 pounds of heart.

After the first two games of the season, James leads the club in rushing yardage and punt returns and is second in kickoff returns. He scored the key touchdown in the Redskins' victory over Los Angeles Saturday night.

But statistics do not tell the story of James' value to the team. He is a relatively small 5-9 player with tremendous pride and spirit. In eight years of NFL wars, James has yet to be injured, he seldom fumbles and he manages to come up with clutch play that often means the difference between winning and losing.

Machen To Face Johnson Oct. 12
SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI)—Heavyweight Eddie Machen will seek the second victory of his current comeback attempt Oct. 12 when he faces Alonzo Johnson of Pittsburgh in a 10-round featured match at civic auditorium.

Machen was slated to meet Johnson in his return to the ring after an 18-month absence Sept. 16, but when Johnson developed a cold Machen was paired with Ollie Wilson of Miami, whom he knocked out in six rounds.

The promoting Civic Boxing Enterprises Inc. said Monday that Thad Spencer and Jimmy Fletcher would box another 10-rounder the same evening as a co-feature.

Oregon-Oregon St. Tickets Are Sold Out
EUGENE (UPI)—Tickets to the Oregon-Oregon State football game here Nov. 23 have been sold out, Oregon officials said Monday.

The Oregon-Washington contest at Portland Oct. 26 earlier was sold out.

SCHWEITZER LOST
McMINNVILLE, Ore. (UPI) Defensive end Denny Schweitzer has been lost for the season because of a ruptured leg tendon, Linfield football coach Paul Durham said today. Schweitzer is a junior from Reedsport.

Colorado Coach Pleased With Effort Against Trojans
BOULDER, Colo. (UPI)—Head Coach Eddie Crowder, still "very proud" of the showing Colorado made against top-rated university of Southern California Saturday, held a skull session Monday to improve the Buffs' offense.

After the meeting, the first and second squads worked out in sweat clothes for an hour while the rest of the squad scrimmaged with the freshman team.

Junior end Stan Irvin, who aggravated an old knee injury in the USC game, was still on the doubtful list for next Saturday's night game with Oregon State at Portland.

California Sets Fish Regulations
SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The State Department of Fish and Game has recommended virtually the same angling regulations for 1964 as are currently in effect.

The trout season north of the Tehachapi would open May 2, except in the counties of Humboldt and Del Norte and parts of Trinity, Mendocino and Lake, where it would start May 30. It would end Oct. 31.

But in Southern California, and in some lakes and streams, trout fishing would remain open year round.

The trout limit again would be 10, except in the all-year areas where the winter limit would be five.

WOMEN'S GOLF LAKE OSWEGO (UPI)—Mrs. T. S. Harrison of Portland's Waverley club took medalist honors in the Oregon Women's Golf association tournament qualifying round Monday with a five-over-par 77.

McKay Still Has Respect For Sooners

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—John McKay, the reigning "Coach of the Year," is not buying any Oklahoma tales of woe as he looked ahead to his Southern California Trojans meeting the Sooners in the television game of the week here Saturday.

The Sooners will be given all the respect due a school that annually fields one of the nation's top football teams, McKay indicated Monday before the Southern California Football Writers meeting.

McKay listened attentively as Oklahoma spokesman Harold Keith hinted the 1963 edition of the Sooners grid machine was "slow" and had been outgained and outdone by Clemson in their seasonal opener.

"I hope I never see a fast team if Oklahoma is slow," McKay said. "We know Oklahoma is a very fine football team. And it's the team that gets the most points that wins, not the team that runs up the statistics."

McKay was not too satisfied with his club's 14-0 victory over Colorado but his dissatisfaction was more over the playing conditions. A downpour at Boulder, Colo., made it difficult for both teams and deprived the Trojans of the chance to demonstrate whether they were the equal of last year's national championship team.

The UCLA Bruins, badly burned by one team from the state of Pennsylvania, hoped to do better against a second. Coach Bill Barnes said his club did few things well against Pittsburgh here last Friday.

But he was hopeful that a few corrections might result in a better performance against the strong Penn State club at University Park, Pa.

"It seemed that somebody was making a mistake on every play against Pitt," Barnes said. "We knew Pitt was an outstanding team but we should have done better."

Although he failed to complete a pass, Carl Jones will get the starting quarterback assignment again, Barnes said.

Michigan State To Open With Sophomore QB
EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI) Michigan State university, for the first time in Duffy Daugherty's 10 years as head coach, will open its football season with a sophomore listed as the No. 1 quarterback.

Steve Juday, a lightweight 19-year-old from Northville, Mich., was given the job Monday, edging out junior letterman Dick Proebstle of Canton, Ohio.

The decision, Daugherty said, wasn't an easy one to make.

"Juday will start, and two weeks ago that would not have been so tough a choice to make. But Proebstle has made more progress in the last two weeks than at any other time in his career," Daugherty said.

"But the job is Steve's, and if he keeps improving, as I'm sure he will, he'll stay in there. He's our No. 1 quarterback."

PICKS TOURNEY SITES
NEW YORK (UPI)—The 1965 National Amateur Public Links Championship will be played at the North Park Golf course in Pittsburgh, Pa., July 12-17, and the 1965 Junior Amateur Championship will be held at the Wilmington Country Club, Wilmington, Del., Aug. 4-7. It was announced Monday by the U.S. Golf Association.

Since 1940 the number of dwelling units using natural gas for central heating has increased by more than 400 per cent.
