AFS Student Honored at Patio Event

Miss Judith Guttridge, Breckenham, England, was the guest of honor at a patio supper Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bateman, Taylor road, Central Point.

Other guests were members of the Crater High American Field Service chapter. Assisting the hosts were their daughter, Miss Jan Bateman and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bateman.

The evening was spent getting acquainted with Judy who is making her home with the Vernon Tomlinson family this year while attending Crater High school under the AFS program. Judy, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Guttridge, Breckenham, Kent, England, has a younger brother, David.

Having attended Bromley High school for the past seven years, she is majoring in modern languages and is adding Spanish this year to her vocabulary of Latin, German and French.

Judy finds Crater High with both boys and girls in her classes with men teachers, an interesting change from Bromley High with 400 girls and women teachers. She finds American football entirely different, also.

Breckenham, about 10 miles from London, has moderate winters and summers and she was not accustomed to the heat the Rogue valley had when she first arrived.

Guests for the evening were Mr. Tomlinson and daughter, Ginny, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Straus, Miss Geraldine White, Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller, Mrs. Everett A. Faber, Mr. and Mrs. Don Lacy, Mr. and Mrs. John Summerville, Don Meister, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Mason, C. W. Ahorn, and Steve Engel.

Mrs. Earl Moore will be hostess in her home on Lampan road for the next meeting, Wednesday, October 2 at 8 p.m.

Shower Honors Prospect Woman

PROSPECT — Mrs. Gerald Gardner gave a shower Wednesday at her home honoring Mrs. John Lenker. About 20 attended, and refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. W. Howard was among the Rogue Valley Manor residents who attended the recent fashion show given by Beta Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority to raise funds for a Southern Oregon college scholarship. Mrs. Howard, long-time valley resident, is pictured here receiving her program from Miss Carolyn Knoll while Linda and Kathy Rentz, two of the girls who ushered, wait to show the guest to her table where she joined a group of friends. The three girls are daughter of members. In keeping with the informal theme of "Hootenanny," the ushers all wore cut-offs, white blouses and neckerchiefs. The event was held in the patio at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hearin on East Main street.

Appointment Calendar Sale Opens Wednesday

The social and appointment calendar which the Medford Junior Women's club publishes and sells each year, will be on sale Wednesday, September 25, Mrs. William E. Sweet, calendar chairman, announced at the last meeting of the club.

The calendar notes events of special interest to the community. Included are sports, school activities, Shakespeare festival plays and local civic events. The back pages have a complete directory of clubs and organizations with time and meetings noted.

Sales of the calendar provide support to the clothing pool, a civic and philanthropic project of the club. The pool was originated by the group in the fall of 1959 to provide needy school children with necessary wearing apparel. It is housed in Lincoln Elementary school. The clothing is distributed by school principals and school nurses.

People wishing to donate good used clothing may call Mrs. Robert Fry, 773-6934, clothing pool chairman.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 2:30 p.m. McLoughlin School Auditorium 320 W 2d EVERYBODY WELCOME - NO ADMISSION CHARGE

Mrs. Aletha Parson, Portland (center), one of the founders and first president of the Oregon Licensed Practical Nurse's association, was among the women who attended the 13th annual convention of the group held in Medford last week. Mrs. Parson was presented a life membership in the organization during the convention. Pictured with Mrs. Parson is Miss Donna Monkman, Portland (at left), executive secretary of the Oregon State Board of Nursing, and Mrs. Helen Dwyer, retiring president who conducted the convention sessions.

Ashland Women Planning Group for Secretaries

Two Ashland women interested in forming a chapter of the National Secretaries association in southern Oregon recently attended a workshop for business women held in Portland under the sponsorship of the Oregon Trail chapter of the international organization.

"The Many Facets of Eve" was the workshop theme and speakers were leaders in various civic, business and social fields.

The two Ashland women who attended were Mrs. Genevieve Wood, a part-time secretary for the Ashland branch of First National Bank of Oregon, and with the Ralph Wood Field enterprises, and Miss Jean Fowler, a former secretary now with the Business Education department of Ashland High school.

Many attend Women from 19 cities in Washington, Oregon and California attended the workshop, they report. Among the speakers and discussion leaders were Walter Sakai, who talked on "Chains of Practice and Prejudice"; Myron Katz, who spoke of the possibility of a 35-hour work week in this country; Dr. Frank Munk, whose topic was "Citizen of the World"; Dr. John M. Swarthout, whose subject was "The Woman Voter" and two Oregon legislators, Shirley A. Field, and Robert P. Dickinson, both Oregon lawyers.

Mrs. Madeline Holcomb Coddington, regional director of the Women's Bureau, U. S. Department of Labor, gave the keynote address.

Miss Fowler, who holds the Certified Professional secretary rating conferred by the organization, points out that NSA staged the extensive workshop because of President John F. Kennedy's program, being carried on by a commission of 26, "to indicate what remains to be done to demolish prejudices and outmoded customs which act as barriers to the full partnership of women in our democracy."

The Ashland women state that NSA has an extensive program which is of value not only to secretaries but of interest to business women in general. Any secretary interested in the organization may contact either Mrs. Wood or Miss Fowler.
