

LEADS IN FASHION — Layered look leads in fashion for fall. Here for the young set, the layers are three — jacquard plaid V-neck pullover, sleeveless mock-turtleneck shell and box-pleated, green and black diagonal tweed skirt.

Jewelry for Fall Matches the Mood Of Year's Fashion

Fall jewelry matches the mood of fashion with elegant accents for evening, and sportive touches for autumn's casually relaxed daywear.

Emphasis is on pins and earrings.

Fashion adds the finishing touches to fall's easy styles with country-casual jewelry. Very much in the sportive spirit are chunky pins, bar pins, fob pins, and stick pins for scarves, along with cuff links, "heavy" bracelets and necklaces, and wooden beads.

Baubles, bangles and beads look very new for fall in leather, suede, lizard, alligator and leopard.

The gold rush is on for fall, with fashion prospecting for golden jewelry to accent fall's sporty styles. Casual, yet feminine, are gold earrings, woven gold chain bracelets and necklaces.

After-five, femininity comes to the fore in exquisite jewelry to accent fall's elegant evening wear. Fashion likes a luxurious "antique look" in jewelry inspired by actual heirloom pieces. Real-looking stones look even more authentic in antique settings. Luxurious-looking Victorian pendants, cameos, Renaissance enamel pieces and long, dramatic earrings carry out fashion's opulent theme for evening.

In necklaces, two-strand matinee length beads are a popular choice for fall, as are cultured pearls mixed with colored beads and stones.

Mayor To Address Sams Valley PTA On Tax Referendum

SAMS VALLEY — Charles A. Meyer, superintendent of district 6 schools, will be guest speaker at the first fall meeting of Sams Valley Parent-teacher association set for Thursday, October 3 at 8 p.m.

He will talk on the Oregon Tax referendum which is coming up for election on October 15.

New officers for the 1963-64 school year will have charge of the business session and program.

A spokesman for the executive board stated that certain amendments to the PTA by-laws will be presented during the business session for action by the membership.

Red, White Ideas Take Spotlight in Fashions

The fashion trend toward bold stripes in dress and business shirts will take hold for fall with the red-and-white ideas pacing the pack.

Following closely will be the black stripes, often with red, red stripes on blue and pink stripes so closely spaced that they produce a "pink-shirt" effect (an important trend to watch).

Collar styles will again find the short-point spreads, button-downs and tabs important. Many quality details will become available at modest prices. Taper and exact sleeve lengths will be available in many dressy sport shirt models.

Something new is the dual-purpose or dressy sport shirt. It is the sport shirt tailored like a dress shirt.

Classic Approach — Cut-and-sewn sport shirts will reflect a classic approach to styling for fall and winter, highlighted by traditional patterns and collar styles. Plaids are on the dark side in large arrangements of color that seem to pop out of the shirt. Dark-ground batiks and geometrics continue to be important. There will be a resurgence of real foulard prints on lighter grounds in traditional shirts. The popular sport shirts will be shown with coordinated turtle-necks. Typical dress-shirt fabrics will show up in sport shirts in high-band collars that ride high on the neck and are fuller with more roll. Knit shirts will feature the classic pullover and button-front models in many variations of fibers, stitch treatments and a fresh array of colorings. Newest models will carry convertible turtle-neck styling.

Topping off the scene will be combination knit-woven shirts. Typical of these will be knit collars on woven bodies or bib treatments for a two-in-one look.
