

Case Continued for Obtaining Counsel

The case of Ruby Pearl Martindale, 35, of 635 1/2 Pennsylvania ave., Medford, was continued yesterday in Jackson county district court to allow her to obtain a counsel to represent her on petty larceny charges.

Pending her reappearance in district court Friday, District Court Judge L. L. Sawyer set her bail at $1,000 and she was lodged in the county jail in lieu of bail.

She is accused of taking an electric mixer, four boxes of disposable diapers and a jewelry box from a Pennsylvania ave. family.

DON'T YOU READ BEFORE YOU BUY?

Where but in print can you get so close to the advertising messages that interest you? Where else can a woman clip the coupons and recipes that intrigue her? Or tear out tips to try on leftovers? Or mark, for future marking, any of the colorful food ideas which strike her fancy? And where else can she circle and compare the colors and styles of clothing and furnishings that appeal to her?

Where else, in fact, can any message be re-run at will by an interested audience? So make sure a good part of your advertising message gets into print. Let somebody's eyes linger over it as long as they like. Let somebody's scissors clip it free of competition. And then watch someone's pocket or purse carry it to the place of purchase. Print makes sense because print makes sales.
