Capitol Memo

Cigarette, Sales Tax Favored by Poll at State Fair

By ZAN STARK
 SALEM (UPI) — A straw poll at the recent State Fair indicated if new tax revenues were needed, they should come from cigarette and sales taxes. The poll was conducted by the secretary of state's office as part of a test of a new voting device — and was a serious effort to determine public feeling on the revenue issue.

The poll did not ask whether voters opposed any new taxes or wanted a change in the state's present sources of revenue.

That question may have to be decided by Gov. Mark Hatfield and members of the legislature after the Oct. 15 tax referendum election.

Poll Significant
 But the State Fair poll was significant in the light of a recent report issued by Commerce Clearing House, an organization which reports on tax and business laws.

Oregon is the only state that does not tax cigarettes.

There are 47 states with a sales tax, and of these, 39 receive the biggest part of their operating monies from the sales tax. Sales tax collections totaled $5.5 billion in fiscal 1962-63, almost a quarter of the $22.1 billion total state tax collections.

Second highest money producer was the state income tax which garnered $4.4 billion. Thirteen states looked to income taxes as their major source of revenue. New York collected 58 per cent of its operating money this way. Oregon was next with 54 per cent.

Taxes on gasoline were the top revenue producers in six states, and one state, Louisiana, looks to a severance tax on removal of natural resources as its chief tax yield.

Produces Huge Amount
 Montana last year switched its best revenue source from the income tax to the gasoline tax, reflecting a long-time seesaw between the two as the state's top money producer.

One of the appeals of a sales tax is that it produces a huge amount of money, but does so less painfully. Instead of getting an annual income or property tax bill, taxpayers pay pennies every day into the sales tax. The State Tax Commission estimated a 3 per cent sales tax would produce $90 million a year in Oregon.

Many sales tax proponents say tourists would share the burden of a sales tax. Tax experts say the amount paid by tourists would be insignificant. It's the resident taxpayer who would be stuffing the tax coffers — pennies at a time.

Oregonians have voted down sales tax proposals five times. Some legislators, however, feel it's time to try again.

Oregon Escapee Guilty of Robbery

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn (UPI) — A mental hospital escapee from Oregon Wednesday pleaded guilty to first degree robbery and will be sentenced Oct. 28.

Royal K. Hayes Jr., 26, entered the plea before District Judge William C. Gunn.

Hayes was accused of robbing a Minneapolis drug store of seven bottles of assorted drugs valued at about $40.

His trial was postponed until a psychiatric examination found him mentally competent to stand trial.

Oregon authorities are seeking the return of Hayes, saying he left the state hospital at Salem, early in August. He had been committed to the hospital in 1962 following the slaying of a security guard at the Oregon Journal building.

Hillsboro Man Petitions for Post

HILLSBORO (UPI) — Leon Davis, former state legislator from Hillsboro, Wednesday returned the first completed petition asking that he be appointed to a vacancy in the state House of Representatives from Washington county.

The vacancy was created by the appointment of Rep Robert Jones, (R-Portland) to the Multnomah County Circuit Court. However, Republican officials said it probably would not be filled unless a special session of the legislature is called.

The Washington County Republican Central committee said three other persons have taken out petitions but they have not been returned.
