

Church Ceremony Held

Miss Karlene Kay Wiltermood became the bride of Larry Kenneth Wade in 7:30 o'clock evening rites September 23 in First Christian church. The Rev. Fred Evans officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Wiltermood, 1925 Oregon avenue, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Charles Babb, 2871 Georgia street, and Samuel Wade, 1819 Spring street.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her father and mother. Her gown of silk mist taffeta was designed with scalloped neckline and long tapered sleeves trimmed with Guipure lace. The skirt was of the same lace extended from the front waist to the floor and a wide band of lace encircled the skirt hemline which formed a chapel train. Her pouf veil of English silk illusion was held from a crown of pearls and rhinestones. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow rosebuds with a white orchid and streamers tipped with yellow rosebuds. The heirloom handkerchief which the bride carried had belonged to her maternal great-grandmother.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Harriet Gochenauer Goodale.

Three attend brides: Mrs. Delbert Harvey was matron of honor and Miss Charlene Francis was the bridesmaid. Miss Sandra Wiltermood, a sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

The gown worn by the matron of honor was of gold brocade with matching crystalline overskirt and her shoes were golden. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids' tangerine colored gowns, in the same style were of pure silk, also with matching overskirts of crystalline. Their flowers were bronze chrysanthemums, and their slippers were tangerine color.

David Rhyden served as best man. Gary Wiltermood, Grants Pass, a cousin of the bride; David Wade, a brother of the bridegroom; Monte Whaley and Hubert Finch were the ushers.

Baskets of bronze pompon chrysanthemums decorated the altar and an arrangement of yellow spider chrysanthemums was used on the guest book table in the church foyer.

Maynard Hadley was soloist.

Large Reception

Some 200 guests attended the ceremony and reception given by the bride's parents in the fireplace room of the church. For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Wiltermood wore a honeycomb colored brocade sheath frock with jacket and matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a sculptured avocado green knit dress with gold threads and accessories were in gold. Both had cymbidium orchid corsages. Mrs. Wiltermood's in pale green and Mrs. Babb's in pastel pink.

Mrs. Brian Watson, Central Point, had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Noel Dunlap and Mrs. Philip Cross, both Medford, and Miss Karen Wiltermood, Grants Pass, a cousin of the bride, received the gifts. Cutting and serving the wedding cake were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Loyd Wiltermood, Mrs. Walter Wiltermood, and Miss Cindy Wiltermood, a cousin of the bride, all Grants Pass. Presiding at the coffee service were the Mrs. Esther Fugitt, Modesto, Calif., and Mrs. Aetna Carr, also aunts of the bride, and Miss Sharon Carr.

Travel South

Mrs. Monte Whaley and Mrs. Clarence Allen poured the punch. Yellow spider chrysanthemums decorated the reception table. The couple made a wedding trip to Sacramento and San Francisco. The bride's traveling attire was a blue wool knit dress with matching hat and white coat. She wore the white orchid corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The newlyweds are living at 25 South Oregon street, Apartment 3, Medford.

The bride attended Medford High school and is a graduate of Medford School of Beauty. She is employed at Ginger's Beauty salon. The bridegroom attended Crater High school and Oregon Technical Institute. He is employed by Crosby's Mobil station.

Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cash, Ventura, Calif., uncle and aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Havens, Roseburg; Walter Wiltermood, an uncle, and family, Loyd Wiltermood, another uncle, and family and Mrs. Alice Haney, all Grants Pass.

Fetz-Beagle Rites Held; Pair Living in Eugene

ASHLAND — Following a honeymoon trip to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Fetz III are at home in Eugene at 1445 East 10th street. Mrs. Fetz is the former Billie Jean Beagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Beagle, 475 Nevada street, Ashland. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Howard Fetz Jr., Lake Oswego. St. Stephen Lutheran church of Gladstone was the setting for the evening ceremony August 16 witnessed by more than 300 guests. The Rev. Edward Baseler officiated.

Mr. Beagle escorted his daughter to the altar. Two wedding selections were sung by Mrs. Harold Shied and at the conclusion of the church ceremony a reception was held in the social hall.

The bride's gown of white peat de soie was made with elbow length sleeves and scoop neckline and the simple skirt came to a sweeping train from a shoulder bow. Her illusion net veil was held by a satin circlet and the white Bible she carried was topped with an orchid.

Sister Is Attendant

Miss Marianne Beagle served as her sister's maid of honor, while another sister, Miss Sally Beagle, and the bridegroom's two sisters, Miss Joann Fetz and Miss Diane Fetz, were bridesmaids. Jerry Fetz, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Ushers were John P. Brown, Roger Fox and Lee Wendell Roger Fetz, another brother.

and Rodney Kincaid lighted the candles and Kim Rasmussen was flower girl.

The bridal attendants' sapphire taffeta gowns were styled with low backed bodices and trains similar to the wedding gown. They wore short blue net veil headpieces and carried bouquets of white rosebuds and carnations. The flower girl's frock was in matching shade.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Beagle, wore a sapphire blue silk dress with feathered hat and accessories to match. Mrs. Fetz, mother of the bridegroom, chose a beige brocade sheath with corresponding accents.

Two Assist

Mrs. Peggy O'Keefe Baker, formerly of Ashland, and Mrs. Doris Hitchcock Snell assisted at the reception.

Relatives and friends attending the wedding from Ashland were Mrs. Beatrice Hitchcock, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Larkin Grubb, a great aunt, and John Grubb, Mrs. Richard Westfield and daughter Nona, cousins, together with the bride's parents and sisters. Mrs. Fetz is a graduate of Ashland high school and received her bachelor's degree from Oregon State university. Last year she taught in the Forest Grove High school and this year is on the faculty at Creswell High school in the commercial department. Her husband was graduated from Portland State college and is now working toward his master's degree in English at the University of Oregon.

Relatives and Friends Go North for Ceremony

Several Medford residents were in McMinnville, Ore., to attend the recent marriage ceremony of Miss Patricia Louise Russell and Jared Lee Black. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Citron, DeLake, Ore., and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John M. Black, 216 South Orange street, Medford, who went north for the wedding.

The ceremony was read September 14, at 8 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. T. Askew Crumley in McMinnville First Methodist church. About 150 guests witnessed the rites.

Mrs. Paul Quampts, La Grande, was matron of honor and the Misses Jeri Beeghly, Grants Pass and Jane O'Dell, Astoria, were bridesmaids. Mrs. Charles Colling, Tigard, a cousin of the bride was bridesmatron.

Brother Escorts Bride

The bride was escorted to the altar by her brother, Richard Russell, and was given in marriage by both her brother and her stepfather, Mr. Citron. Her gown, made by an aunt, Mrs. Frank Miller, Newberg, was of peat de soie with fitted bodice and long sleeves. The skirt was gathered at the back to form a chapel train and her tulle fingertip veil was held by a lace crown, accented at the front with a flat bow. The bridal bouquet was of white rosebuds with a white orchid.

The attendants wore gowns of textured gold satin with bell shaped skirts and their headpieces held gold popcorn veils. Their nosegays were of single bronze chrysanthemums tied with variegated ribbon.

Noel Black, Sacramento, Calif., served as best man for his brother and ushers were Raymond Barnwell, Roy Deo and Guy Parker, all Medford.

Lighting the candles were Douglas Elliott, Medford and Robert Russell, Portland, Theta Chi fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Baskets of orange and bronze gladioli with autumn leaves decorated the church.

Mrs. John Hofrichter, organist, played "Trumpet Tune," as the processional and "Now Thank We All Our God," as the recessional.

Reception Held

About 175 guests were at the reception given by the bride's parents in Youngson hall of the church. Mrs. Edward Maguigan, Portland and Mrs. Miller, Newberg, poured the coffee; Mrs. Bruce McConnell, Portland and Mrs. Arthur Nelson, Newberg, served the wedding cake. All are aunts of the bride. Another aunt, Mrs. Wesley Geer, Tigard, and Mrs. Harold Norberg, Belingham, Wash., poured the punch. Mrs. Robert O'Dell, Portland, registered the guests.

Among the guests were Mrs. Perry Miller, Dundee, Ore., the bride's maternal grandmother, and Mrs. Anne Brown, Beaverton, Ore., her paternal grandmother.

The bride's mother was attired in a beige suit with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a beige brocade sheath dress with gold accessories. Both had rosebud corsages. Mrs. Citron's in pink and Mrs. Black's, white.

The bride is a graduate of McMinnville High school and the University of Oregon dental school. She has been employed as a dental hygienist in a Corvallis dental office.

Is Engineer

The bridegroom was graduated from Medford High school and Oregon State university. He has been employed as a civil engineer with the Oregon State highway department.

The couple will live at 1120 Northeast 43rd street, Seattle, 5, Wash., where the bridegroom will study further at the University of Washington and where he has been awarded an assistantship in the school of engineering. The bride will be employed in a Seattle dental clinic.

The couple traveled to Victoria, B. C. Canada for their wedding trip.

The bride wore a cherry red mohair suit with black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Also from Medford at the ceremony were Miss Annice Black, a sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Doe and Mrs. Parker. Another sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. George Ward, and Mr. Ward, were there from Oregon City.

Teachers Hold Joint Recital
