

96th Birthday Observed By Woman in Gold Hill

Mrs. Elizabeth Bush was honored at a party Wednesday, September 25, which observed her 96th birthday anniversary. The event was held at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Earl Rohlf, Gold Hill.

Here for the celebration were Mrs. Bush's daughter, Mrs. Grace Borgen, and a great-granddaughter, Miss Gretchen light of each day is reading the latest news, the family reported. Mrs. Bush is known for her sense of humor. She enjoys good health and keeps busy writing letters, canning and with other housework. Her patio overlooks the Rogue river, and when asked what she will do when she gets "old," Mrs. Bush said she might fish a little or pan for gold.

Style Show Announced

SHADY COVE — A style show will be held Sunday, October 6, at 2 p.m. at the Dale Ackerman home in Eagle Point sponsored by Shady Cove Bethel, International Order of Job's Daughters.

The annual candy sale of the Bethel got under way this week end.

The announcement of these two events was made at the regular session of the Bethel September 25 at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall in Shady Cove with Honored Queen Lola Ackerman presiding.

Escorted and introduced were Mrs. Kenneth Carrell, Miss Eda Larson and Miss Marcia Ackerman, past honored queens; Miss Judy Frost, junior princess and grand Bethel representative to Wisconsin, and Allan Rodgers, Bethel charter associate guardian.

Miss Debbie Wilson, Shady Cove, was initiated with Miss Eda Larson as a courtesy candidate.

Miss Sheri Watson, senior princess; Miss Frost, and Miss Barbara Hopper, messenger, are in Eugene this week end attending the school of instruction and reception for grand Bethel officers and representatives. Mrs. Carroll Watson accompanied the girls.

Mrs. Richard Gannaway and Mrs. Don Spence served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Bush wore a pink dress, orchid corsage and white jewelry for the event.

As a child the honored woman crossed the plains in a covered wagon from Wisconsin to Kansas and has led a very active life. Widowed at 31, she learned telegraphy and worked for the North American and Postal Telegraph company, and later for the D.M. and N. railway and the D. and I.R. railway in Duluth, Minn. for many years.

She moved to Gold Hill in 1961, and is still active and interested in world affairs, especially politics. "None of her kin would dare be missing at the polls on election day," a relative stated. She subscribes to the Mail Tribune and the high-

Grand Officer To Visit Lodge

ASHLAND — Maurice Fullen Roberts, Redmond, right eminent grand commander of the grand commandery of Knights Templar of Oregon, will visit the Malta Commandery, Ashland, Wednesday, October 2, in the Ashland Masonic temple.

Carl H. W. Oestreich, Medford, eminent commander of Malta commandery, is in charge of the program.

Accompanying Mr. Roberts to the Rogue valley will be several sir knights. All sir knights of the commandery are invited to attend.

New national president of the American Legion auxiliary is Mrs. Lucile D. Johnson, Valley, Neb., a former school teacher.

Legion Auxiliary Announces New National Head

Mrs. Lucile D. Johnson (Lucile Palmer) of Valley, Neb., was elected national president of the American Legion auxiliary at the auxiliary's 43rd annual national convention in Miami. She will serve in the highest office of the nation's largest women's patriotic organization until the 1964 national convention next fall, guiding the activities of more than 900,000 members.

Mrs. Johnson is the wife of a World War I veteran who is a hardware dealer and prominent in the commercial and civic life of their city. She is a former high school teacher and at present is active in the management of extensive family farms in Nebraska and Colorado. An only child, Dr. L. Palmer Johnson, is in the practice of medicine in Valley. He is a veteran of the Korean war.

A member of the American Legion auxiliary since 1926, Mrs. Johnson was president of the Nebraska Department in 1953-1954. For the past 10 years she has served in the chairmanships of various national committees directing the organization's national activities. At the time of her election she was completing a year as chairman of the National Rehabilitation committee in charge of activities for disabled veterans.

Mrs. Johnson was born in Ulysses, Nebraska, a town founded by her grandfather on land granted to him under the signature of President Ulysses S. Grant. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Nebraska and did graduate work at Columbia university.

Society Hears Eugene Bennett

Eugene Bennett, Jacksonville, spoke on "Ideas and Where They Come From," at a recent meeting of the Southern Oregon Society of Artists.

Colored slides were shown of Paris, Florence and Venice where Mr. Bennett studied and painted. He explained how the types of architecture, colors and geographic locations has influenced his art work. Other slides of local landscapes, lumber mills and power sub-stations also helped in supplying ideas for more paintings in that each subject had its own type of pattern and color spectrum.

The group has four rotating exhibits of interest to the public which are located at the Medford airport, Maury's Corner, Travis and Harry's Coffee shop and Foster's Jacksonville store. These paintings are for sale as well as for viewing.

Paintings to be hung in the Public Library of Medford and Jackson county through the month of October are by Mrs. Bess Mitchell, Mrs. Dorothy Beck, Mrs. Donna Lantis and Mrs. T. E. Knackstedt.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ethel Shuck and Mrs. Bonnie Melum.

Portland Woman To Speak Here

Mrs. Joyce Larson, past chairman of Christian Women's club, Portland, will be the featured speaker for the Christian Business and Professional Women's council meeting Thursday, October 3, at 6:15 p.m. at the Rogue Valley Country club.

A fall style review will be staged by Mann's and music will be furnished by "Karen and Barbie," duo from Ashland.

Each member is privileged to bring a guest to this special fall meeting.

Central Point Club Will Hear Talk on Herbs

CENTRAL POINT—"Herbs to Grow and Use" will be the topic for Mrs. R. D. Abel when she speaks to members of the Central Point Garden club Wednesday, October 2, in the home of Mrs. Eugene Orr, Old Military road. The meeting will open at 12 noon with a potluck luncheon.

Members are to take either salads or hot dishes for the event and their table service. Cohostesses will be Mrs. Archie L. Purdy and Mrs. C. C. Campbell.

Those who attend also are to take herbs for a horticultural display.

Fourth Class Graduates From School of Practical Nursing

Thirteen women from Jackson county made up the fourth class to be graduated from the Southern Oregon School of Practical Nursing. The graduation ceremonies took place Friday, September 27, in Hedrick Junior High school.

The graduates are Mrs. Regina Schroeder, class president; Mrs. Beth Cuozzo, vice president; Mrs. Marian Louise Rogers, secretary and Mrs. Alberta Floyd Neimoyer, treasurer, all Medford; Mrs. Clara E. Beer, Mrs. Marion M. Euden, Miss Judy Joyce Stuart and Mrs. Opal Ida Wyatt, all Medford; Mrs. Vera Louise Sutherland and Mrs. Hellen Marie Hurt, Ashland; Mrs. Beulah Mary Abbott, Butte Falls; Mrs. Kathleen MacKenzie, Central Point and Mrs. Jean Ann Griggs, Gold Hill.

The nursing school is administered by the adult education department of the Medford public school system in cooperation with Rogue Valley Memorial hospital, where the classes are conducted.

Graduation Address

"Happiness Through Service" was the title of the graduation address given by Dr. Alvin Fellers, director of student affairs at Southern Oregon college, Ashland. Dr. Fellers spoke of how to achieve happiness, said that momentary happiness is the most that the average person can hope to achieve and pointed out that nurses are in a position to help others achieve happiness.

"Happiness is within ourselves," Dr. Fellers stressed and added that "We cannot find happiness alone, but only through God's help."

Frank Bash, chairman of the Medford Board of Education and Mrs. Moore Hamilton, member of the Oregon State Board of Education, presented diplomas and certificates to the graduates. Mrs. Bertha Morrill, RN, instructor for the practical nursing school, and Mrs. Freida Fontaine, RN, director of nursing for Rogue Valley hospital, presented pins to the class members.

Service To Mankind

Lindsay Vinsel, director of the school, presided and the invocation was given by the Rev. Harvey Coovert of Zion Lutheran church. In his prayer the minister pointed out that nurses provide a special service to mankind and said they would need to have patience, strength and judgment in their work.

Among the special guests was Charles Gustafson, administrator of Rogue Valley hospital and chairman of the six-member Practical Nurse Steering committee. A number of registered nurses and other persons are on an advisory committee for the school.

Mrs. Violet Hunter sang for the ceremony, and John Lusk played the marches and background music. Flowers provided by the Jackson County Medical society, the board of trustees of Rogue Valley hospital, and alumnae of the nursing school, decorated the stage.

Following the ceremony, attended by a large number of relatives and friends, a reception was given by District 4, Oregon Nurses' association, and Area 4, Oregon Licensed Practical Nurses' association.

Mrs. Joan Bass, president of District 4, and Mrs. Thelma Martly, president of the Jackson County Licensed Practical Nurses' association, and Mrs. Betty Love, poured and served.

Ashland Club Opens Season With Speaker

ASHLAND—"Entertainment As You Like It" will be George Bailey's topic at the opening fall dinner meeting of Siskiyou Knife and Fork club Thursday, October 3 at 7:30 p.m., in the Mark Antony hotel Caesar room.

Known as "The Man With the Photographic Memory," the speaker also is described as a versatile humorist, magician, and a musician of sorts. A feature of Mr. Bailey's program is a feat of memory in which he names more than 100 persons in the audience whom he has met upon entering the room.

Dinner reservations are to be made in advance with Mrs. Ella Hendrison, 360 Morton street, Ashland. Prospective members and guests are invited to this opening meeting.
