

4-H NEWS

Milk Pail Ranglers
As a reward for their year's work, an outing was held by members of the Milk Pail Ranglers 4-H dairy club of Wagner valley at Willow lake recently.

Attending were Kathy Turpin and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turpin; Don Enloe and family, Jean, Tom, Dave and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Enloe; Sue, Roger and Leslie Welburn; Linda Sommer and parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sommer, and a guest, Mary Sue Emerson, all of Talent. From Medford were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cahill, the club's leaders.

A picnic was a high spot of the day. Many activities went on during the day, including swimming, wading, playing on the playground equipment, and Cahill rented a row boat for the children so they could explore the lake.

The next meeting will be held Monday, Oct. 14 at 8 p.m. at the home of Leslie and Roger Welburn on Hendricks rd.

Antelope Cooking Club

A meeting of the Antelope Cooking and Sewing 4-H club was held at the home of Paulette Anderson recently.

The meeting was mainly for catching up on record books. A demonstration on honey cookies was given by Margie Lehman.

Five new members joined. They are Karen Greb, Cynthia Fox, Cathy Fox, Carolyn Fox and Susan Stanley.

Our next meeting will be held at the home of Margie Lehman Oct. 26.

Fun to Sew

The A.I. Fun to Sew 4-H club held its last meeting of the year recently at the home of the leader, Mrs. J. R. Wilson, with six members and three visitors present.

The members answered the roll call by naming the awards won at the Jackson County 4-H fair and the State Fair.

Deborah Chavis won one blue, one red at the county fair and one red at State with a skirt. Paula Lupini won one white, Connie Moore one red, Sue Anne Slates one red, Dena Lupini one red, Jane Ayres one blue and one red.

The club voted to give its club property to the Sewing Gens club under the leadership of Mrs. Ray Chavis.

The meeting was adjourned and a party was given so members could meet their new leader, Mrs. Ray Chavis.

Games were played and refreshments were served. Those receiving prizes were Deborah Chavis, Paula Lupini, Connie Moore, Helen Chavis, and Linda Chavis.

Knitten Kittens

Members of the Knitten Kittens 4-H club did well in their project completions at the county and State Fair.

Winners and their ribbons were Kathy Anhorn, county blue; Carolyn Barnes, county blue; Ann Bowling, county blue and state red; Lana Carpenter, county blue and state white; Regina Carpenter, county red; Cynthia Charley, county blue and state blue; Karen Charley, county blue and state white; Corine Dunlap, county champion; Judy Frink, county blue and state red; Kathy Legler, county red; Sue Lisenbee, county red; Brenda Long, county red; Sharyl Marshall, county blue and state white; Ilene Mitchell, county champion and state blue; Carolee Kuest, county blue and state red; Shirley Roach, county blue and state blue; Christine Stith, county blue and state red; Marsha Wilson, county champion and state blue; Sharon Wilson, county blue, and Tallie Wilson, county blue.

All members that entered a project at the State Fair received a gift certificate from the Oregon Worsted company of Portland.

The last two meetings of the Knitten Kittens was called to order. The flag salute and 4-H pledge were said. Ilene Mitchell, secretary, read the minutes and called roll. Roll was answered by whether or not we had our projects finished. She also told us how many meetings each of us attended.

We have two new members. They are Angelika Bayley and Sally McKay.
