OSU Drills On Pass Defense; Oregon's Post To Miss Games

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI) — One Oregon State man was injured in last Saturday's Colorado game, but three players who missed that game are expected to be back for Saturday night's battle against tough Baylor.

Halfback Bill Sinyard is considered a "doubtful" participant in the Baylor game, but returning to action will be end Doug McDougal, center Dick Ruhl and guard Warren Cole.

Baylor has a brilliant quarterback in Don Trull, and the Beavers Monday drilled on pass defense.

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI) — An Oregon team spokesman said today that junior Doug Post, Oregon's second string quarterback, suffered torn ligaments in his knee last Saturday while the Ducks were bombing Stanford 36-7.

Post, the regular 1961 quarterback, was out all last year after an operation on the same knee. The spokesman said that Post "will definitely miss several games" because of the re-injury to his knee.

Coach Len Casanova ran the Ducks through a two-hour workout Monday and spent most of the time on offense. Oregon is at West Virginia next Saturday.

PULLMAN, Wash. (UPI) — Washington State, still seeking their first win, Monday worked to fix its leaky pass defense.

The Cougars meet Arizona in Spokane Saturday night.

John Browns, who subbed for injured Herm McKee at fullback during last Saturday's comeback from behind 14-all tie with Iowa, is expected to handle the same chores against the Wildcats.

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI) — Coach Marv Levy says that guard Jim Norwood has been elevated to the University of California's first team.

Levy put his Bear squad back to work yesterday to prepare for Saturday's battle at Pittsburgh.

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) — Coach John Ralston of Stanford counted up three players who missed the Oregon game who may be back for Saturday's game against UCLA.

But two who played against Oregon are considered doubtful for the Bruins.

Those returning include fullback Glenn Myers, end Gary Pettigrew and center Carl Schraeder. But fullback Dan Conaway and guard John James are the question marks.

Stanford concentrated on defense yesterday after Oregon piled up a 36-7 win over the Indians in a fumble-filled battle Saturday.

SAN JOSE (UPI) — San Jose State, its spirit buoyed by a 18-0 whitewash of Kansas State, must build up an attack to match its defense.

That's the opinion of Spartan coach Bob Titchenal, whose team plays at tough Utah State Saturday.

Concerning the Kansas State game, he said, "our offense bogged down in the clutch too often. We've got to sharpen up."

SEATTLE (UPI)—Coach Jim Owens of Washington said tackle Roll Hagen and halfback Bill Shifter are doubtful starters for the Iowa game here Saturday.

Quarterback Bill Siler, out with hepatitis, is now feared lost for the season.

Owens had his Huskies working on scoring from near the goal line in drills Monday. Inability to punch touchdowns across after moving the ball downfield has cost the Huskies two close losses to Air Force and Pittsburgh.

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The University of Southern California Trojans begin intensive workouts today in preparation for their game Friday against Michigan State at the Coliseum.

Coach John McKay said Monday that the Trojans would work on their defense and their running game.

McKay was dismayed at the poor passing performance by his team in last Saturday's upset loss to the University of Oklahoma.

The loss was the first in 12 games for the 1963 national champion Trojans.

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The UCLA Bruins return to the practice field today with Carl Jones, who quarterbacked the team in the first two games of the season, running at left halfback.

Coach Bill Barnes said Monday that he made the switch so as to utilize Jones' running ability.

Larry Zeno takes over the quarterback position for the Bruins.

Barnes also announced that Al Geverink, who missed the Penn State game last Saturday, will be ready for action when the Bruins meet Stanford Saturday.

ALL COACHES BACK

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Bobby Bragan's entire coaching staff with the Milwaukee Braves will return next year despite the fact that the Braves recently concluded their worst season in Milwaukee. Ken Silvestri, Dixie Walker, Jo Jo White and Whitlow Wyatt have all been given 1964 contracts. Bragan already has a 1964 contract.

WILDCATS LOSE GUARD

EVANSTON, Ill. (UPI) — Northwestern will be without its All-America guard, when the Wildcats tangle with Illinois on Saturday. Cvercko, who suffered a knee injury against Indiana, will be out of action for the services of Jack Cvercko, more than a week.

Roseburg On Top in Grid Poll

PORTLAND (UPI) — Roseburg's Indians, victors in three straight games, moved to the top of the Journal coaches' poll among the state's A-1 football teams today.

Medford, which rebounded by beating North Salem last Friday, was second. Pendleton was third, Grant of Portland fourth and Grants Pass fifth.

Others included North Salem sixth, Sunset seventh, Parkrose eighth, Jefferson of Portland ninth and Cottage Grove 10th. Also getting votes were West Linn, Central Catholic, South Salem, Cleveland and Marshfield.

Phoenix topped the A-2 list, followed in order by Vale, North Catholic, Brookings, Siuslaw, Bandon, Yamhill-Carlton, Seaside, Newport and Central.

SMITH HURT

McMINNVILLE (UPI)—Bill Smith, Linfield fullback and leading ground gainer may miss the game with College of Idaho Saturday because of a knee injury. Smith had 116 yards in 21 carries in Linfield's first two games.

JACK CHRISTIANSEN
Takes Over Helm of Forty-Niners

Jack Christiansen Named Forty Niner Head Coach

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Youthful Jack Christiansen held his first workout as head coach of the San Francisco Forty Niners today — confident that he could rebuild the fading fortunes of a club that has lost 10 straight ball games.

Christiansen, 34-year-old former defensive star of the Detroit Lions, took over the fortunes of the San Francisco club late Monday after Red Hickey resigned.

He has to be a man with a mission to make good with a club that was slaughtered by the Minnesota Vikings, 45-14, on Sunday; had lost all three league games this year; all five exhibition games, plus the final two games of the 1962 season.

"I have no definite changes in personnel or playing positions at the present time," said Christiansen. "But we have some good men on this squad if we can get them to play up to their potential.

"I feel we should be able to win our share of the games."

A few minutes after Christiansen held his first press conference, wherein he wondered about the quarterback situation where John Brodie has a sore throwing arm, who should walk into camp but the veteran Lamar McHan.

McHan was obtained from the Baltimore Colts on waivers last week, but was slow in reporting.

"He'll be insurance for us in case Brodie's arm continues to bother him," said Christiansen. "Against the Detroit Lions this week we'll use Brodie if he can go. If he can't we'll try with Bobby Waters. It will take a while for McHan to learn our plays."

Christiansen is starting his first tour of duty as head coach. He is rated as one of the all-time best secondary defensive men in the history of the National league. It was at Detroit that he headed his famous "Chris' Crew" that ate up passes from opposing teams during the mid-fifties. He has been an assistant coach with the Forty Niners since 1958.

Fernandez To Fight DeNucci

NEW YORK (UPI) — Cuban Florentino Fernandez and Joe DeNucci of Newton, Mass., two middleweight knockout specialists, meet at the Boston Arena Friday night in a nationally televised fight that features this week's boxing schedule.

In addition, two champions are slated for non-title bouts. Welterweight king Emile Griffith engages in a 10-rounder with Puerto Rican middleweight contender Jose Gonzalez at San Juan, P.R., Saturday night.

Junior welterweight champion Eddie Perkins of Chicago clashes with Joey Limas of Albuquerque, N.M., in a 10-rounder at Albuquerque Tuesday night.

For the nationally televised Fernandez-DeNucci bout at Boston, Fernandez is favored at 7-5 because of his explosive left hook. Fernandez tried to wrest the middleweight title from Gene Fullmer in 1961 and almost knocked out Gene in the closing rounds but lost the decision.

Now, Fernandez is ranked ninth among 160-pound contenders. DeNucci is unrated because in his latest fight on May 11 at Boston, he dropped a decision to ninth-ranking Jose Gonzalez, who fights welter champion Griffith at San Juan Saturday.

Fernandez has 29 knockouts among his 35 victories in 41 fights. DeNucci registered 20 kayoes in 36 wins among 43 bouts.

The week's boxing schedule includes:

Tuesday: Albuquerque, N.M.—Eddie Perkins vs. Joey Limas, non-title.

Thursday: Miami, Fla.—Joey Murchinson vs. Tommy Dennis. Montreal: Peter Schmidt vs. Joey Durelle.

Friday: Boston Arena — Florentino Fernandez vs. Joe DeNucci (TV). Paterson, N.J.—Charlie Jordan vs. Ron Jeffron.

Saturday: San Juan, P.R.—Emile Griffith vs. Jose Gonzalez, non-title.

Seventh Grade, Elementary Slates Begin

Junior high seventh grade intramural and elementary school grid leagues officially begin their schedules on Thursday.

Seventh grade games will be Hedrick Red at McLoughlin White and McLoughlin Black at Hedrick Blue.

Elementary games on Thursday will be non-counters with rivalry mixing the American and Rogue Valley leagues. The games will be Griffin Creek (A) at West Side (R), Lincoln (R) at Oak Grove (A), Ruch (R) at Lone Pine (A) and Howard (A) at Jacksonville (R).

National league action opens on Friday with Jefferson at Washington, Jackson at Wilson and Roosevelt at Hoover.

Oklahoma Heads Football Poll; Oregon State Is 15th

By GEORGE LANGFORD
UPI Sports Writer

NEW HAVEN (UPI)—If Bud Wilkinson succeeds with President Kennedy's physical fitness program the way he has rebuilt the Oklahoma Sooners, Sonny Liston will be just another guy.

Oklahoma was accorded the nation's No. 1 ranking among college football teams Monday by a landslide ballot in the season's first weekly rating of the United Press International board of coaches.

Alabama was a distant second, Texas third and Big Ten representatives Northwestern and Wisconsin rounded out the top five.

The Sooners, surging back to the eminence they enjoyed in 1955 and 1956 when they were national champions, churned out 304 yards on the ground to upset Southern California, the defending national champion, last Saturday.

Coach Wilkinson, who heads Kennedy's fitness program, guided the Sooners to No. 7 spot last season after three straight years in which they failed to gain ranking.

Oklahoma received 22 first place votes from the 35-man UPI board. Alabama was No. 1 on seven ballots, three coaches picked Texas, and Northwestern, Navy and Pitt polled one each.

The Sooners rest next weekend before tackling third-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas on Oct. 12. Their first win was over Clemson. They last topped the nation on Sept. 30, 1958.

Georgia Tech grabbed sixth position, Navy rated ahead of Pittsburgh for seventh, Southern Cal was relegated to ninth and Ohio State and Nebraska tied for tenth.

Mississippi and Penn State headed the "second 10" followed in order by Air Force Academy and Oregon State.

Michigan State and Missouri tied for 16th, Texas Christian was 18th and Duke and Rice deadlocked for 19th.

The other ranking teams to clash this week will be Southern Cal, No. 9 vs. Michigan State (tied for 16th) Friday night in Los Angeles.

With points distributed on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis, for votes from first to 10th places, Oklahoma had 324 out of a possible 350. Alabama had 270 points, Texas 245, Northwestern 182 and Wisconsin 176.

The United Press International major college football ratings (with first-place votes and won-lost records in parentheses):

Team	Points
1. Oklahoma (22) (2-0)	324
2. Alabama (7) (2-0)	270
3. Texas (3) (2-0)	245
4. Northwestern (1) (2-0)	182
5. Wisconsin (2-0)	176
6. Georgia Tech (2-0)	134
7. Navy (1) (2-0)	108
8. Pittsburgh (1) (2-0)	87
9. Southern California (1-1)	76
10. (tie) Ohio State (1-0)	57
10. (tie) Nebraska (2-0)	57

Second 10 teams: 12, Mississippi 41; 13, Penn State, 34; 14, Air Force, 32; 15, Oregon State, 20; 16 (tie), Michigan State and Missouri, 16 each; 18, Texas Christian, 9; 19 (tie) Duke and Rice, 8 each.

Others: North Carolina State, Michigan and Wyoming, 4 each; Notre Dame and Kansas, 3 each; Auburn, Army and Arkansas, 2 each; Oregon, 1.

Wrestling Comes Back Oct. 10

Tony Borne, who won the Pacific Coast junior heavyweight wrestling championship from Rocky Columbo here in June, will headline a six-man battle royal marking the opening of the fall wresting season at Medford armory on Thursday, Oct. 10.

Borne, who comes from Texas, recently became an Oregon citizen when he purchased a ranch at Pendleton and moved his family there.

The other five men making up the battle royal will be announced in a few days and all will be new to southern Oregon mat followers, Promoter Elton Owen said.

There will be three regulation matches in addition to the free-for-all, the promoter said.
