COMPACTS POPULAR NEW YORK (UPI) - About one-third of all new cars sold in the United States last year were compact models, according to Volkswagen of America. The company also said more than 500,000 air conditioning units were installed in cars in this country in 1962.

MANNA WASHINGTON (UPI) - The Internal Revenue says computers will save taxpayers an estimated $50 million in refunds annually. Refund checks totaling approximately $1.5 billion never reach the taxpayer because the post office can't find them.

PERSONAL VICTORY - Social Credit Premier W.A.C. Bennett, 63, won a personal victory in his South-Okanagan riding in British Columbia's general election and led his party back into power with a majority. (UPI)

Deschutes County, Officials Sued PORTLAND (UPI) - Joseph Wright, of Nampa, Idaho, filed a $15,125 suit against Deschutes county and three elected officials in Federal court Tuesday. Wright made the complaint on behalf of his son, Lamar, 4, as the result of injuries the child received in a traffic accident on U.S. Highway 20 in the county. Named as defendants were Fred Shepard and George Baker, county commissioners; Devere Penhollow, county judge; Don Shokes, a county employee; and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cooper, listed as residents of the county. The complaint said the accident involved two private vehicles and a county truck and that all defendants were negligent.
