KIMMY SAYS—

Editor's note: This column is written by a Medford teen-ager who has chosen the non-deplume of "Kimmy." Other teen-agers in the area—and, who knows, perhaps even parents baffled at their offspring's behavior—are invited to write to "Kimmy," in care of the Mail Tribune, for suggestions or advice in manners, dress, behavior and similar subjects.

Dear Kimmy: Would it be proper if I sent a Birthday card to a boy that I know quite well? He lives several hundred miles away. He hasn't written to me yet.

Undecided
Dear Undecided: I think that would be terrific. It will show him you still care and he may start writing to you.

Dear Kimmy: My boy friend and I want to get married real soon, but my mother doesn't think I'm old enough. I'm 18. What should we do? Go to Reno?

In Love
Dear In Love: A talk among you, your guy, and your parents is actually the only smart thing to do. TRUE love never dies, so hang on and the day will come.

Dear Kimmy: I have a boy friend. Should I call him at night or wait for a call from him?

Little worries
Dear Little worries: I can tell you right now, if you start calling him you'll soon be looking for a new guy.

Dear Kimmy: I have one problem, I LOVE YOU!!! What should I do?
Stranger

Dear Stranger: Introduce yourself!

Dear Kimmy: I have a little sister who will not leave me alone. What should I do?
Troubled

Dear Troubled: Maybe she wants something, but you've never given her the chance to ask. Perhaps this could be your answer.

Dear Kimmy: Why do boys want to go steady and then break up?

Wondering
Dear Wondering: For the same reason girls like to go steady and then break up!

Dear Kimmy: I played a joke on a very good friend of mine. Now this person is mad at me. I know I was wrong and I apologized. This friend accepted my apology, but still acts angry with me.
Unwanted friend

Dear Unwanted friend: You did right and all you could have done. The rest is up to him.

Dear Kimmy: This is quite embarrassing, but I am constantly bothered by big pimples which pop up on my hands. It's probably because I'm going through adolescence, but anyhow, what can I do?

Pimple
Dear Pimple: Go to a doctor and get some help.

Dear Kimmy: My girl friend has been sneaking out behind my back. Should I quit her or keep going out with her?

Confused
Dear Confused: Just turn around and watch where she goes!

Passenger Train Smashes Box Cars

MARINETTE, Wis. (UPD)—A Chicago and North Western "400" passenger train roared through an open switch and piled into a line of box cars late Wednesday night. Police said at least 32 persons were injured.

Twenty-four were treated and released. The other eight were hospitalized, and at least one was seriously injured. Police said only six or eight persons on the train were not hurt.

Grange News

Roxy Anne Grange
The "Big Steam," a film depicting the Oct. 12 steam in Oregon, will be shown at the Roxy Ann Grange Friday, Oct. 4. Grange Master Francis Mofatt announced the film will be followed by the regular Grange meeting.

The public is invited to the showing of the film, starting at 8 p.m.

A special class of five candidates from Bellview, Phoenix and Roxy Ann Granges was given the third and fourth degrees by the Roxy Ann degree team Sept. 25.

4-H NEWS

CP Swine Club
The Spawards Division of the Central Point Swine 4-H club met at the home of Walter Herzog for the September session.

Members are completing their record books for the year.

Date of achievement night was announced at the meeting. It will be held Nov. 12 at the Central Point Grange hall.

The next meeting of the club is scheduled for Oct. 25 at the Crockett home.
